An Ordinance to appoint a Comptroller of the city of Baltimore, and to abolish the office of Auditor of said City

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that immediately after the passage of this ordinance and its approval by the Mayor, and biennially thereafter, in the month of January, there shall be appointed by the Mayor and approved by the City Council in Convention, a qualified person who shall be a good accountant, to be called Comptroller of the City of Baltimore, at a salary of two thousand dollars ($2.000.00) per annum, payable quarterly, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor has qualified; his term of office shall commence on the first Monday of March next succeeding his appointment; he shall be liable to removal from office in the same manner the City Register may now be removed from his office; and before entering upon his duties he shall execute to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, a good and sufficient Bond, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10000.00) to be approved by the Mayor, and shall also take the usual oath of office.

Section 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, that it shall be the duty of said Comptroller to examine, audit, adjust, and settle all accounts whatsoever in which the Corporation is concerned, either as debtor or creditor, where provision for the settlement thereof is made by law, and the settlement of which is not especially committed by ordinance to some other authority; and where no such provision or
