Outstanding Tournament.

The tournament held on Saturday afternoon last at Mutual, for the benefit of Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, was probably the best ever held in Calvert county, in point of excellent management, the large number of riders who entered the contest thirty-three strong, the record-breaking crowd in attendance, and, most important of all, the unity of purpose which characterized the efforts of all who assisted. It is fine management of Dr. Everard Brinsfield, with John S. Williams as chairman, resulted in a tournament fully equal to any given in Maryland.

Mayor Howard W. Jackson, of Baltimore, introduced by John B. Gray, Jr., made a brief but graceful address, and Senator Lansdale G. Sasscer, Folger McKinsey, better known under his pen name, "The Bengtstown Bard," and Congressman David J. Lewis were each introduced from the speaker's stand, and each made a three minute talk.

The riding was in three classes, professional, amateur and novice, a few of the knights riding in each of the first two classes. In the amateur class, Hilton off first. Dr. George J. Weems won the first prize, $15.00 and the crown, as queen. He transferred the crown to William Coil, who crowned Miss Annie Laurie Weems queen. The second prize, $10.00 and crown, were won by Laurence Gates; he transferred the crown to Arthur W. Dowell, Jr., who crowned Miss Eleanor Sauter, of Roland Park, first maid; third prize, $6.00 and crown, for second maid won by Franklin Parran, who crowned his wife, Mrs. Matilda Parran; fourth prize, $5.00 and crown for third maid, won by John Turner Crane, who crowned Miss Elizabeth Weems; Harry Fowler, of Mechanicsville, won fifth prize, $4.00 and crown for fourth maid; Philip Briscoe won the sixth prize, crowning Miss Mary Louise Asbury fifth maid; William L. Weems, winning seventh prize, crowned Miss Jenny Ward, of Virginia, sixth maid; David Harkness crowned Miss Elenor Gunn, of Mt. Airy, seventh maid; Kennett Gates won the crown for eighth maid.

In the professional class the first prize, $30.00 and crown, was won by Alex Fleury; the second prize, $20.00 and crown, by Donald Gates; the third, $10.00 and crown, by Joseph Brady; the fourth, $5.00 and crown, by Thomas L. Weems, Jr., who crowned Miss Dolly Sasscer, of Upper Marlboro; fifth prize, $5.00 and crown, won by Douglas Parran, who crowned Miss King, of Washington. 6th and 7th prizes, each $5.00, won by Laurence Gates and Francis Brady respectively.

In the novice class, Joseph Goldstein was the winner, and crowned Miss Mary Jane Wilson, of Pittsburg.

Eighteen riders entered the contest for the two handsome silver trophies, the Parran cup and the Goldstein cup, the former won by Laurence Gates, and the latter by David Harkness.

William Welch, the marshal, was presented with a handsome English riding crop in recognition of his services as marshal at the Mutual tournament the past few years

Following the tournament a supper was held in the Mutual Parish Hall, where the ball was held from 8 o'clock until midnight. Governor Harry W. Nice delivered an eloquent coronation address.

Youth Council Outing.

Charged With Manslaughter.

John Hicks, colored, held in the sum of one thousand dollars on a manslaughter charge, growing out of the death of Warren Brown, colored, in an automobile accident, on August 20th, has been released from jail when bond was given in the amount named for his appearance for a preliminary hearing on September 10th before Justice William W. Duke, who issued the warrant. Hicks was driving the machine at unsafe speed, according to evidence given at the inquest before Justice Duke the following day. The jury, of which Maurice T. Lusby was foreman, rendered a verdict that Brown came to his death in the accident, which was caused by the reckless manner in which Hicks was driving. The car upset, and Brown was instantly killed. In addition to the manslaughter charge, Hicks has also been charged with reckless driving.

League Series to Start Sunday.

The final game of the series between Owings, the second place team in the first half, and Greenock, the second place team in the second half, will be played at Greenock this Saturday. Owings won the first game last Saturday on the Owings grounds and quite an exciting game was won by Greenock on the Greenock ground last Sunday. The score on Saturday was 6-1 and Sunday 7-5. This Saturday bids fair to find both teams fighting to win which gives the winner the privilege to play the series with Huntingtown, winner of both halves.

The series for the championship of Southern Maryland will start at Huntingtown this Sunday, September 4th at 2-45 o'clock. Either Greenock or Owings will be the opposing team, which will be decided on Saturday. They will play a five game series and the winner will receive a championship flag from the league and a silver trophy from Senator Sasscer, a Democratic candidate for the nomination of Governor of Maryland. Last year quite a lot of interest was taken in the series and even more should taken this year. Watch your local newspapers for the progress and notice where the games will be played.

Geo. H. Boyd Seriously Injured.

The many friends of Mr. George H. Boyd, of Paris, regret exceedingly to know that he was seriously injured on Wednesday afternoon about 3.45 o'clock when, walking on the highway near his home, he was struck by a car driven by Louis W. Plowman, 1701 Kearney St., northeast, Washington. Mr. Boyd suffered a compound fracture of his left leg and other injuries, and is in the Calvert County Hospital under treatment by Dr. Hugh Ward. Charged with reckless driving on a warrant issued by Justice Herman J. Fay, Plowman is held in bond in the amount of $100.00 for trial before that Justice.

Poultry Meeting.

Arrangements have been completed for a poultry meeting to be held in the Court House at Prince Frederick Thursday evening, September 14th, at 8 o'clock, according to County Agent John B. Mornell. This meeting is being sponsored by the Calvert County Farm Bureau. Dr. Byrd, of the University of Maryland, will discuss "Breeding and Feeding for Higher Hatchability." Mr. Downey, of the Extension Service, will speak on Maryland's 4-H Poultry Club Program. In addition to the addresses a motion picture will be shown featuring the poultry industry. MY PLATFORM---

To the waterman I pledge my cooperation, assistance and humble ability.

I pledge myself to fight to have the gasoline tax spent on the roads of our State; to fight for the extension of the Southern Maryland Boulevard on toward Solomon's; to attempt for the people of the northern end of the county a more direct route to Washington via the old Chesapeake Beach Railroad bed

I desire to make our waterfront property more attractive to prospective buyers, to develop more full there communities and cut our own tax rate by having more assessable property on the tax books.

I pledge myself to fight to oppose the increase of real estate taxes and to work for a reduction of the same. I shall use every effort and every faculty I possess to fight legislation taxing the toilers—but our people great and from which they derive their principal means of livelihood.
