The open season on squirrels in Maryland is from October 1st to October 15th. We think it well to give hunters this reminder, since it often happens that many have the impression that it begins in September, as was the case some years ago, and such is not the case now.

Three Calvert riders were successful at the tournament at St. Margaret's, near Annapolis, on Monday. Douglas Parran won the first prize, but preferred the crown to Clyde Turner, Jr., who crowned Miss Leila Matthews, of La Plata, queen. N., who crowned Miss Annie Laurie Weems second maid. Edward Duckett won the crown for third maid, but transferred it to Thomas Parran, who crowned Miss Lucy Sasscer, of Upper Marlboro.

The opening of the county public schools on Wednesday was marked by a large enrollment at the various schools. There have been but few changes in the teaching force. Mrs. Benson Bowen is made a member of the faculty of the Prince Frederick elementary school. At the Calvert County High School Miss Ruth Little, of Westminster, succeeds Miss Dorothy Grotwohl, resigned, and Mrs. Herbert Smither returns to her duties there after a year's leave of absence. At Solomon's elementary school Mrs. Frank Zoubro and Miss Catherine Pardoe are new teachers.

The Prince Frederick Tournament.

The tournament, sponsored by the vestry of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, given for the benefit of this church, at Prince Frederick, on Saturday afternoon last, was a most successful affair. The very large attendance was composed of persons from practically every section of Calvert county and many sections of southern Maryland and from Washington and Baltimore. It was an exceedingly well managed and enjoyed affair, in spite of a rain storm toward the end of the tournament, which effectively stopped proceedings for awhile. However, when the rain abated the tournament was properly completed.

The chairman of the tournament was John R. Mowell, and various other members of the vestry were at the head of other committees. The judges were A. Claude Turner, Arthur W. Dowell and William W. Duke. John S. Williams was the marshal, with Miss Margaret Sindair Parran and Miss Annie Laurie Weems as aids.

State Senator Lansdale G. Sasscer, introduced by Dr. Everard Brinsfield, delivered a very interesting and eloquent address to the knights.

In the amateur class, Nathaniel D. Coleman won the first prize, $10.00 and the queen's crown, transferring the latter to Claude Turner, Jr., who crowned Miss Leila Matthews, of La Plata, queen; 2nd prize, $5.00 and crown, won by William L. Weems, crown transferred to V. D. Harris, who crowned Miss Mary Sasscer, of Upper Marlboro, first maid; 3rd, $3.00 and crown, winner, John Turner Crane, who crowned Miss Elizabeth Weems second maid; 4th, winner, Dr. George Weems, crown transferred to John Lawrence Milligan, of Clinton, Md., who crowned Miss Margaret Plummer third maid; 5th, winner, James L. Weems, who crowned Miss Mary Lancaster Parran fourth maid; sixth, winner, Franklin Parran, who transferred crown to Hugh Hammond, of New Jersey, who crowned, his wife, fifth maid; 7th, winner, David Harkness, who crowned Miss Eloise Hamner, of Mt. Airy, sixth maid; 8th, a lance, winner, Harry Harkness.

In the professional class, the first prize, $25.00 and crown, winner, Dr. George Weems, crown transferred to Philip Brinsfield, who crowned Miss Mary Louise Asbury seventh maid; 2nd prize, $15.00 and crown, Thomas L. Weems, Jr., who crowned Miss Yvonne Belt, of Catonsville, eighth maid; 3rd, $10.00 and crown, Franklin Parran, who crowned Mrs. Parran, his wife, ninth maid; 4th, $5.00 and crown, Douglas Parran, who crowned Miss Lucy Lancaster Morsell tenth maid.

In the novice class, Hulsom Young was first, crowning his wife, Mrs. Young eleventh maid, and Joseph Ireland crowned Miss Mary King twelfth maid.

Following the tournament, a particularly fine supper was served in the Calvert County High School building by and for the benefit of the Parent-Teachers Association of the school.

The ball at night in the Prince Frederick Town Hall was very largely attended. Former assistant Attorney General Willis R. Jones, of Baltimore, delivered a graceful coronation address. He was introduced by John B. Gray, Jr. Tommy Spittal's orchestra furnished the music.

Death of Mrs. Dockett E. Williams

Mrs. Dockett Elizabeth Williams, wife of Mr. John W. Williams, of Prince Frederick, died on Friday morning of last week about 4 o'clock at the Calvert County Hospital, where she had been under treatment since August 23d. Mrs. Williams suffered a fall some time previous to the latter date, and never recovered from its effects.

Mrs. Williams was very well known in this county, and particularly in Prince Frederick, and besides her immediate family leaves a large family connection. She was an earnest christian character, and for many years had been closely identified with the work of her church. Much sympathy is felt for her bereaved family, and particularly her devoted husband.

She was aged 78 years, and was a daughter of the late Benjamin J. Bowen and Mary Bowen, of Calvert county.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Bowen; two sons, Roy O. Williams and John Wright Williams; four grand-children, and two brothers, Benjamin Bowen, of Baltimore, and Roszell J. Bowen, of Washington.

The funeral was held Sunday morning last at 11 o'clock at Central Methodist Episcopal Church South, when the large attendance of friends and relatives indicated the high regard in which the deceased was held. Rev. Clarence E. Kirby conducted the service considered to be the first oratorio.

To the watermen I pledge my cooperation assistance and humble ability.

I pledge myself to fight to have the gasoline tax spent on the roads of our State; to fight for the extension of the Southern Maryland Boulevard toward Solomon's; to attempt for the people of the northern end of the county a more direct route to Washington via the old Chesapeake Beach Railroad bed.

I desire to make our waterfront property more attractive to prospective buyers, to develop more fill these communities and cut our own tax rate by having more assessable property on the tax books.

I pledge myself to fight to oppose the increase of real estate taxes and to work for a reduction of the same. I shall use every effort and every faculty I possess to fight Legislation taxing the tobacco that our people grow and from which they derive their principal means of livelihood.
