and the book to be transmitted to the Register of the city, which shall be final and conclusive in every respect, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Criminal Court aforesaid, to the Court of Appeals and such record book or a copy of the proceedings therein or any part of such proceedings, whether in court or out of court, certified by the Register of the city, under the corporate seal of the city shall be evidence in any court in this State; and the Judge of the Criminal Court of Baltimore, shall have full power, in his discretion to add the reasonable costs of any appeal, to be taxed by him, or any part thereof, to the damages to be collected for opening or closing said street, or to require such cost, or any part thereof, to be paid by all or by either of the appellants, as the circumstances of each appeal, in his opinion, shall justify.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted and ordained, That within ten days after the time hereinbefore limited, for making appeals, shall have elapsed, if no appeal shall have been prayed, or after the return of the decision of an appeal shall have been made to the Register, the said Register shall transfer the said Commissioners' return to the Collector, who shall proceed forthwith to notify the parties assessed for benefits by means of bills specifying the several sums so assessed, and if the same be not paid within six months from the date of such transfer of said Commissioners returns, he shall proceed to sell the specific pieces or parts of property, on which such unpaid sum or sums shall have been assessed, in the manner, and after having given the notice, directed by the eleventh section of this ordinance.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted and ordained, That the sums assessed upon the property benefited, which shall not be paid to the Register within the time limited,
