removal of nuisances in arrear, and place the balance in the city treasury, to the credit of the owner of the ground, or such other party as may be legally entitled to receive it.

Sec. 29. Be it enacted and ordained, That whenever the board of health shall discover that any nuisance complained of proceeds from the leakage of any hydrant or hydrants, pipe or pipes, situated on adjoining lot or lots cellar or cellars, they shall have the power, and they are hereby authorized to require the owner or owners, occupier or occupiers of such lot or lots, cellar or cellars, to remove the cause of such nuisance.

Sec. 30. Be it enacted and ordained, that if any person shall fail to comply with the directions of the board of health, the said board shall have power, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cause any nuisance or cause of nuisance to be removed, the cost whereof to be paid by said person.

Sec. 31. Be it enacted and ordained, that all cellars and vacancies under stores, warehouses and dwellings upon made ground, shall, when deemed necessary by the board of health, be filled up with sound materials and paved with hard bricks or stones; and when deemed expedient by the said board, the lots thereto appertaining shall be filled up above the level of the street, so as to prevent the lodgment of water on the premises.

Sec. 32. Be it enacted and ordained, that all wooden buildings that are now or may hereafter be below the level of the brick pavements or streets, shall be raised up and underpinned with brick or stone, and all persons refusing or neglecting to obey the directions of the board of health, in the premises, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars, and five dollars for each and every day during the continuance of such neglect or refusal; provided he, she or they, receive one months notice from the board of health, to complete the same.

Sec. 33. Be it enacted and ordained, That all lumber and wood yards, within
