Sec. 36. Be it enacted and ordained, that if any person shall wilfully stop or obstruct the passage of the water of any common sewer, made or which may hereafter be made, he, she or they so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every such offence.

Sec. 37. Be it enacted and ordained, that if any person or persons, owner or owners, occupier or occupiers of any lot within the city of Baltimore shall tap or open, or cause to be tapped or opened, any of the public sewers in the city, without first obtaining the permission of the city commissioner and the approval of the Mayor, said person or persons, owner or owners, occupier or occupiers shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for each and every such offence; and it shall be the duty of the city commissioner to cause a notice to be served upon such person or persons, owner or owners, occupier or occupiers, directing any of said sewers to be closed when they have been tapped or opened, in the manner prescribed by said notice, and such person or persons, owner or owners, occupier or occupiers shall refuse or neglect to comply therewith, he, she or they so refusing or neglecting, shall forfeit and pay the further sum of five dollars for each and every day he, she or they shall continue to refuse or neglect to comply therewith, and shall moreover pay the expenses incurred in case such sewer shall be closed under the direction of the city commissioner, which said commissioner is hereby authorized to have done in case of said neglect or refusal.

Sec. 38. Be it enacted and ordained, that if any person having a cow or cows, horse or horses in any stable within the city shall keep the same in such manner that the filth and stench therefrom shall become offensive to or annoy any neighbor or other person, the person keeping such cow or horse as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, one dollar, and the further sum of one dollar for each and every day the nui-