Periodically Hollywood produces a picture that stands out as a beacon along the highroad of motion picture progress—and such a picture is Darryl F. Zanuck's production of Irving Berlin's great saga of three decades in the march of America—"Alexander's Ragtime Band." Add story to cast and direction and the 20th Century Fox Film, which is coming to the Marlboro Theatre in Upper Marlboro for 4 big days, beginning Sunday, October 9, amounts to a picture that for years to come will be remembered as a turning point—a new trend—the utilization of memorable melodies in a dramatic story of the screen's mightiest moment.
