Sec. 50. And be it enacted and ordained, that if such deposits shall prove prejudicial to the health of the adjacent neighborhood, complaint shall be made by the aggrieved parties to the board of health, who, with the approbation of the Mayor, shall order said deposits to be forthwith suspended.

Sec. 51. And be it enacted and ordained, that the vault or well of every privy which shall be erected within the following limits, that is to say: for the city spring in Calvert street, bounded on the north by Mulberry street, on the west by North Charles street, on the south by Lexington street, and on the east by North Calvert street; for the city spring at the corner of Pratt and Eden streets, bounded on the west by Eden street, on the south by Pratt street, on the east by Caroline street, on the north by Baltimore street; and for the public spring in Franklin square, bounded on the north by Lexington street, on the west by Calhoun street, on the south by Fayette street, and on the east by Carey street; and for the public spring in Union square, bounded on the north by Hollins street, on the west by Gilmor street, on the south by Lombard street, on the east by Stricker street; and for the pump called the "Green Tree pump", bounded on the north by Granby street, on the west by Albemarle street, on the south by Stiles street, and on the east by Exeter street; and for the spring from which the Centre market is supplied, bounded on the north by Monument street, on the west by North Charles, on the south by Centre street, and on the east by North Calvert street; shall be built and floored with sound and well burnt brick, at least one foot thick at the bottom, and the walls not less than nine inches thick, with a cement impervious to water and shall not exceed six feet in depth, and shall be puddled with clay, rammed compactly at the bottom and on all sides of every such privy at least one foot thick; and it shall be the duty of every person, previous to erecting or causing to be erected any privy within the limits aforesaid, to call on the commissioner of health, and