have the same erected agreeably to his directions, and to obtain from him a certificate in writing, that such privy is conformable to this section, before the same shall be used, and such privies shall be kept at all times in the like complete repair.

Sec. 52. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be the duty of the health commissioner to give notice to the owners or occupiers of the property within the boundaries mentioned in the preceding section, upon which privies or dung vaults are now constructed, in a manner different from that above provided for, to have them removed, altered or repaired, as may be judged necessary by said commissioner, and any one who shall refuse or neglect, for sixty days after the receipt of such notice, to cause them to be removed, or shall offend against the provisions of the preceding section, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, and five dollars per week thereafter until the provisions of said section be complied with.

Sec. 53. And be it enacted and ordained, That if the Commissioner aforesaid shall be of opinion that the state or condition of any privy erected within the limits prescribed by the fifty first section, is such as to be likely to injure or corrupt the waters of any of the said springs or pumps, in that case he is hereby required to order and direct the owner or owners of such privy to clean out and repair and otherwise secure the same, within twenty days after such order has been given under the penalty of fifty dollars, and the further sum of ten dollars for every week such refusal or neglect shall be continued.

Sec. 54. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall erect, or cause to be erected, any privy or other building over any wharf or wall, or over the bed of Jones' falls, or Harford, Schroeder's or Chatsworth runs, or suffer the contents of any privy to flow into the aforesaid streams by means of a sewer or otherwise, within the limits of the city, so that the filth therefrom be discharged into the said falls or either of said
