OCTOBER 22, 1938.

We commend the nominees on the State and county tickets to the voters of Calvert for a whole hearted support. In the matter of the state candidates and candidate for United States Senator there is no question as to the superior ability of the Democratic candidates.

Attorney General O'Conor has demonstrated his ability in the various offices he has held, as has Judge Walsh, James A. Young and J. Millard Tawes. Certainly Senator Tydings needs no recommendation beyond the record and reputation he has earned. In the matter of our local candidates no excuse or apology is needed.

For State Senator the party has selected a young lawyer of ability and high character, born and raised among us.

For the House of Delegates the voters in the primary election selected two able young men of high character and ability. George W. Owings won his primary victory, as did Louis Goldstein, upon the strength of their own efforts and reputations, and deserve the recognition and votes of the party.

For Clerk of the Court Mr. George W. Dorsey is the candidate, and his successful management of his own business is a guarantee of his ability to carry on successfully the office of Clerk.

Mr. Samuel C. Cox has demonstrated his fitness for the office of Treasurer. He has served many years as deputy and is now filling out the unexpired term of the former Treasurer.

For Sheriff, John S. Williams is deserving a united support, as he is fully qualified for the office.

The last but by no means least important office is that of County Commissioners. Both Mr. Archie Parran and Mr. Thomas S. Scrivener have made splendid records in that office. Mr. Parran and Mr. Scrivener have had not only the experience that fits them for the office but in their last administration made it easier on the taxpayer by a large reduction in the tax rate. Mr. Norfolk's recommendation is his own successful management of his own business.
