by this or any other ordinance in relation to the public health, such person shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Sec. 63. And be it enacted and ordained, that if any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to comply with any order or notice of the board of health, authorized by any of the preceding sections of this ordinance, and no other penalty is hereinbefore provided for such neglect or refusal, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for each offence, and five dollars for every day that such neglect or refusal shall continue.

Sec. 64. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Potter's Fields of the City of Baltimore be and they are hereby placed under the control and direction of the board of health, who are hereby authorized, with the advice and consent of the Mayor, to establish a code of regulations relative to all interments in said Potter's Fields, which in their judgment may be proper and necessary; provided, that all graves which may be dug in the eastern and western Potter's Fields, shall be of the depth of at least four feet six inches, and any grave digger, or other person or persons employed for such purpose, who shall neglect or refuse to dig any such grave of the said depth, shall forfeit and pay, for each and every offence, the sum of ten dollars; and if the grave digger or any other person or persons employed by the board of health shall at any time omit or neglect to lock or close the gates, he or they shall, for each offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two dollars, to be deducted out of any money due him or them for digging graves or otherwise, and in case no money shall be due him or them, the said fines shall be recovered and collected as other fines are, in the name of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

Sec. 65. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to deposit on any lot within the limits of direct taxation in the city of Balti-
