to time the manure, street dirt, offal and garbage on the most advantageous terms to the city, and return the amount of said sales, under oath to the City Register, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted and ordained, that the said Superintendents shall each give bond to the Mayor in the sum of two thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the weekly return to the Register of the city, of all money received by him for the sales of manure, dirt and offal made by him for, and in the name of the corporation.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Superintendents appointed under this ordinance, with the Commissioner of Health, shall have power and authority, by and with the advice and consent of the Mayor, at any time when a necessity exists, to employ an additional force; and it shall also be the duty of the Superintendents, with the Commissioner of Health, to cause said additional force to be discharged as soon as the necessity for its employment shall have ceased.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall be the duty of the Superintendents, with the Commissioner of Health, to employ a sufficient number of drivers, horses, and water-tight carts for each district, for the removal of offal and coal ashes from the dwellings and other places within the several districts; and it shall be the duty of the men not only to act as drivers, but also to collect all offal and coal ashes as herein provided; and that said Superintendents shall cause said horses, carts and drivers, to pass through all the streets, lanes and alleys within their respective districts, in such manner as shall insure the passage of one horse, cart and driver, through each and every street, lane and alley, not less than three times a week, on alternate days, from the first day of November until the first day of May;
