and daily, (Sundays excepted,) from the first day of May until the first day of November, and they shall give notice to housekeepers of their approach, by sounding a trumpet, blowing at the intersection of each street, that may be heard at least one square; and said Superintendents shall, in no case, own or be interested in the ownership of said horses or carts. And it shall be the duty of all housekeepers to have placed in a vessel or vessels, not exceeding in capacity one bushel each, near their premises, or some convenient place of access, at such time as said carts may pass, all kitchen offal, or coal or other ashes; and it is hereby expressly ordained, that no other substances than those mentioned in this section, shall be regarded as garbage, under a penalty of one dollar for each offence.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted and ordained, that the carts employed by the city for the collection of offal and coal ashes, agreeably to the preceding section, shall each have a sign placed thereon at some conspicuous place, with the words "City Garbage cart" painted in large letters in black, and white ground, and there shall also be a bell or bells attached to the hames or collar of the harness, with sufficient tone to be heard at the distance of a square.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, engaged in the collection of offal or coal ashes, not employed by the city, to have a sign on his, her or their cart or carts, nor shall any bell or horns be used; and any person or persons violating this section shall be fined one dollar for each and every offence.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted and ordained, that if any person or persons engaged in the collection of offal or coal ashes, employed by the city, shall neglect or refuse to take and carry away, any offal or coal ashes, set out as required by this
