The monthly meeting of the Federated Garden Club will be held on Thursday, November 17th, at 2.30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Thomas Williams, Prince Frederick. There will be a talk on "Pruning Shrubbery and Care of House Plants" by Mrs. Grenby Weknall. All members are urged to attend this meeting, which will be the last one to be held until March 1939.

The date for the performance of the musical comedy, "Pocahontas," to be given in the Town Hall, Prince Frederick, by the Players Club, has again been ch nged, postponed now to Saturday night, December 10th, because the other date selected, the 3rd, seems to be in conflict with the dates of other events previously arranged. There will be no other postponement. "Pocahontas" will be given here on the night of Saturday, December 10th.

The annual meeting of the Calvert County Tobacco Growers Association was held here in the Court House last Saturday afternoon, when Roland Howard, George D. Eaves and Leroy Wilson were elected delegates from this county to the meeting of the State Association in Baltimore, and instructed to vote for Arthur W. Dowell and George Ward as directors from Calvert. Claude Turner, chairman of the county association, presided at the meeting, and the State chairman, Thomas Parran, made an address.

Farm Bureau Meeting.

The by-laws of the Calvert County Bureau require that directors be elected annually. Pursuant to this provision a meeting will be held in the Court House Saturday afternoon, November 12, to elect nine directors, three from each district. The Farm Bureau has taken an active interest in all agricultural affairs of the county and it deserves the support of every farmer.

Bowen—Boyd.

A lovely wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, October 29th at 4 o'clock, at Miranda Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Huntingtown, when Miss Eleanor Kirwan Boyd, daughter of Mr and Mrs. J. Elmer Boyd, of this community, was married to Mr. Kenneth Daniel Bowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Bowen, of Barstow. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. S. Paul Schilling in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives. The church was lavishly decorated with autumn flowers and leaves. Mrs. Samuel C. Cox was the organist, playing the wedding music from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered the church and Mendelssohn's wedding march as a recessional. Miss Frances Duckmaster sang "I Love You Truly," and Mr. Elmer Gibson, uncle of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" immediately before the ceremony.

The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, and wore a gown of white satin, princess style, with a long train and a veil of silk illusion, carrying a bouquet of Tall man roses and ferns.

The best man was Egerton Wilson, and the ushers were: Maurice Scrivener and John William Bell, of Baltimore, and Simmons Duckmaster and Guy Scrivener, of Prince Frederick.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs Bowen left amid showers of rice and good wishes for a trip, and on their return went to the home of the bride near Prince Frederick, where they are now residing.

Agriculture Conservation Meeting.

There will be a meeting in the Court House Saturday, November 12th, at 1.30 p. m., to elect committeemen to serve on the Agricultural Conservation Program for 1939. All persons who are participating in the program are eligible to vote in the election and are urged to attend this meeting. The AAA soil improvement program has been supported by 600 farmers in Calvert county.

Goldstein—Fox.

The marriage of Miss Ava Shirley Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Maurice E. Fox, of Chestertown, Maryland, and Mr. Herbert Goldstein, son of Mr and Mrs. Goodman Goldstein, took place at 6.30 p. m. Sunday, October 30th, in the Florentine Room, Lord Baltimore Hotel. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Rosenhart and Cantor Kolovitz, in the presence of many relatives and friends. The bride was given marriage by her father, and she wore a gown of eggshell satin, princess style, with train. Her veil was of white net caught at the top with white orchid and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, orchids and gardenias. The matron of honor were the bride's sister, Mrs. Alex Steiner, of Laurel, Delaware, who wore a gown of Italy dubonnett trimmed with dusty blue, of period style, and the same with that of the bride, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Harvey Clow, Mrs Hattie R. Clow, who wore a similar gown in alternating colors. Both wore hats of velvet in blending colors and carried pink roses and delphinium.

The flower girl was Miss Esther Fox, of Princess Anne, Maryland, who wore period style gown of blue taffeta with pink, and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Mr. Louis Goldstein was the best man and the ushers were Mr Vernon Check ch, of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. Abraham Goldstein, of Prince Frederick, Md.; Mr. Leonard Fox, Hurlock, Md.; Mr. Joseph Goldstein, of Prince Frederick, Md.; Mr Alex Steiner, Laurel, Del., and Merle Fox, Chestertown, Md. Mrs. Hilda Zetzer sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because."

The ceremony was followed by a dinner for immediate families and close friends and reception and dance at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein left for Canada on their wedding trip and on their return will reside in Centerville, Md.

Gibson—Gibson.

A wedding of much interest in Calvert county took place Saturday afternoon last at 4 o'clock at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church South in Strasburg, Virginia, when Miss Mary Wilson Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A Byrd Gibson, of Prince Frederick, was married to Eldridge Anthony Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Gibson, of Huntingtown, this county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. O. Lyons, the pastor, who is a relative of the groom. Quite a number of relatives and friends of the young couple in this county were in attendance at the wedding.

The bride wore a three-piece rust brown suit, with matching accessories, and carried white roses. She was attended by Miss Ethel Williams, as maid of honor, who wore blue, carrying pink roses. The groom's best man was his brother, Clifton Gibson.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left on a wedding trip. On their return they will live at the home of the groom on his farm recently bought by him at Huntingtown. The bride and groom are well known and very popular in the younger social set in Calvert county.

Death of Mr. Wm. H. Dowell.

William Henry Dowell, 85 died on Monday afternoon last about 3 o'clock at his home at Holland Point. Mr. Dowell had not been in the best of health for a while past, but his last illness was of fairly short duration and his death was quite a shock to those who were not aware of the seriousness of his condition.

Besides being one of the most prominently known men in Calvert, Mr. Dowell's friends were legion, and th re is genuine regret because of his death

He was a life-long Republican, and a leader of that party in this county for many years. Mr. Dowell held the office of County Treasurer for two terms, was a member of the House of Delegates from this county many years ago, and at one time held the office of Register of Wills. He was a vestryman of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Prince Frederick.

He was twice married. His first wife was the late Mrs. Sallie Mae Bell Dowell. His second wife, by whom he is survived, is Mrs Henrietta Hanley Dowell. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. William G. Cassard, of Prince Frederick. His parents were the late George W. and Mary E. Dowell.

The funeral was held on Wednesday morning at 11.30 o'clock at St Paul's Church, with interment in the church cemetery. Rev. Harry L. Harlin, of Easton, conducted the service.
