"Pocohontas" December 10.

The Indian musical comedy, "Pocohontas" will be given in the Town Hall, Prince Frederick, by the Players Club, on Saturday evening, December 10th, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the agricultural department of the Calvert County High School. Admission 40 and 25 cents. Reserved seat tickets, 10 cents additional, will shortly be on sale.

"Pocohontas," the operetta or musical comedy, has had a long and successful career in Calvert county. It was first given here in December, 1912, two years before the beginning of the World War, and during the years following has been presented on several occasions, the last time in 1926. Despite its advanced years, "Pocohontas" has managed to retain all of its original freshness and charm, and now, in addition, an entirely new second act, while keeping in the mood of the play, has, with the addition of new characters, a new comedy element, and pretty songs and dances, pleasantly helped the general tempo.

The cast for the forthcoming production is an excellent one, and includes as principals Mrs. Harry H. Hackney, Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Young, Mrs. T. Newton Gibson, Jr., Miss Alma Hughes Harkness, Carey F. Lacey, Lavelle Hance, Cir Gibson, James Young and William W. Duke. The names of the Indian maids and braves will soon be published. Mrs. Robert Harkness is in charge of the music.

Miss Mogck Composes Song.

"Please Don't Ever Leave Me" is the title of a song, of which the words and music were composed by Miss Gladys Mogck, talented young musician, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mogck, of Huntingtown, during the time she was confined to bed with a severe illness. The song has been copyrighted, and vocal and dance orchestrations made. It is being introduced by the Merry Men of New Windsor Orchestra this Saturday night, the 19th, at a dance at Blue Ridge College, and will also be played around Baltimore the same night.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Mae Klein were held at Mount Harmony Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday, November 4th, at 2.30 P. M., Rev. Jacob H. Snyder officiating. Mrs. Klein is survived by her husband, Harry J. Klein; three sons, Herbert, Harry Owings and George Klein; three daughters, Emily, Evelyn and Theresa Klein, and her parents, Mr and Mrs. Charles Buckmaster; one sister, Mrs. German Bowen; a brother, Lawrence Grierson; a half sister, Mrs. Wesley Stinnett, and a half brother, Maurice Buckmaster.

Many Enjoy Musicale.

The Sunday afternoon concert given in the Prince Frederick Elementary School, under the direction of Mr. J. Reed Hutchins, of Barstow, for the benefit of the Calvert County Hospital, recently, was very well arranged, and an occasion of immense enjoyment to the large crowd in attendance. Mr. Marion Randall, Director of Music at the University of Maryland, was guest artist, and gave very gracefully a group of songs, with Mrs. Bildred Coe Gavin as accompanist. Other numbers were: Solos by Glenn Insley, with Miss Betty Boyd as accompanist; Mrs. Emmet W. Beach, with Mrs. Robert Harkness accompanist, and Mrs. Hugh Ward, with Miss Alice Harrison accompanist; vocal duets by Mrs. Jessie Bowen and Miss Dorothy Tucker, and Mrs. Cleveland Young and Mrs. Clarence Hutchins; a number of selections by the County Chorus; Negro spirituals by Arthur Bowen, Gus Hanck, Lacey Bowen and Jesse Bowen, quartette; piano solos by Mrs. Vernon Bowen, Miss Mary Anne Berry, Mrs. Everett Calvin and Miss Alice Harrison; a piano duet by Mrs. Vernon Bowen and Miss Edna Lyons, and a group of songs by the University of Maryland Quartette.

Malcolm Grahame is visiting his second daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ridgway Grahame, at Poughkeepsie, New York.

Mr and Mrs. William Hurt McKenny are the happy parents of a daughter born at the Calvert County Hospital on November 3rd.

I wish to take this means of expressing my sincere appreciation to my many friends for their loyal support in the recent election. To have received such numbers afterward, coupled with expression was an expression of regard from only that I will never forget, and is in itself a rich reward. I am indeed very grateful.

George W. Dorsey.
