they may deem proper and necessary, and with power also to appoint and compensate guardians of the said property, for the preservation of order within the limits thereof.

Section 7. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Mayor of the City, for the time being, shall always be a member of the Commission ex-officio.

Section 8. And be it enacted and ordained, that the said Commission shall have power and authority to dispose of, by sale or otherwise, any portion of said site or sites originally purchased, which may not be necessary for the purposes of said Park or Parks, as well as any crop, wood, trees, or other property that may be severable from the freehold, should it become necessary, in the improvement and maintenance of said Park or Parks so to do, in their judgment, and to make use of the avails thereof for the use of said Park or Parks. And the Mayor is hereby authorised to execute any conveyances, certified by the City Counsellor, that may be required therefor; Provided, however, that the joint expenses of said improvement and maintenance shall not exceed in any year the net revenue that may be received under the provisions of this 8th section, together with the said four fifths of remaining revenue as set apart for this purpose in the fourth section of this ordinance.

Section 9. And be it enacted and ordained, that the said Commission shall have full power to make all agreements with proprietors in regard to division lines and enclosures, the adjusting thereof, and the exchanging of property for that purpose, and in like manner the said Commission shall have full power to agree for the closing of public roads should any be found
