An ordinance to regulate the erection of Livery, Hiring or Sale Stables within the limits of direct taxation

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or bodies corporate, to erect or cause to be erected, or to alter or cause to be altered, any building or buildings for the purpose of being used as Livery, Hiring or Sale Stables within the limits of direct taxation, without having first had and obtained a permit from the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that notice of all applications for permission to erect Livery, Hiring, or Sale Stables, or to alter buildings to be used for that purpose within the limits of direct taxation, shall be inserted three times a week in two or more of the daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, two weeks previous to making such application

Section 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, that for every and every violation of the provisions of the foregoing sections of this ordinance the party or parties so violating shall forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred dollars, and a further sum of fifty dollars for each and every week thereafter until the stable or stables so erected or altered shall be removed outside of the limits of direct taxation, torn down or ceased to be used for that purpose; the said fines and forfeitures to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are now recoverable.
