An Ordinance to open and condemn Warner street, from Little Camden street, (formerly Elbow Lane,) to Columbia street

Whereas, application has been made for the condemnation and opening of Warner street, from Little Camden street, (formerly Elbow Lane,) to Columbia street, and notice having been given of said application, as required by the Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, No 226, passed December Session, 1838, entitled "An act to vest certain powers in the corporation of the city of Baltimore in relation to streets," and believing that the public convenience requires that the same should be done; therefore

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the Commissioners for opening streets in the city of Baltimore, be and they are hereby authorised and required to condemn and open Warner street from Little Camden street, (formerly Elbow Lane,) northerly to Columbia street; to commence at the easternmost line of Jones' house, and running eastwardly, bounding on Columbia street thirty eight feet to Nassens house; thence running south to Little Camden street, (formerly Elbow Lane,) thence bounding on Little Camden street, (formerly Elbow Lane,) to Jones' line.

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that the Commissioners for opening streets shall proceed in all respects in condemning and opening Warner street, from Little Camden street, (formerly Elbow Lane,) to Columbia street, in accordance with the provisions of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for exercising certain powers vested in this corporation in relation to streets in the city of Baltimore," approved June 5, 1858, - and the Collector and
