UNUSUAL FACTS REVEALED

—by "Movie Spotlight"

COLUMBIA'S "TRAPPED BY TELEVISION" boasts of the following celebrities:—

"It's No Fake"! MARY ASTOR is gaining fame as a writer and recently sold a story by that name to a national periodical.

LYLE TALBOT, whose real name is Lyle Hollywood, made his theatrical debut at the age of 16 as assistant to a magician.

MAY PENDLETON represented the U.S. as wrestling champion in the 1920 Olympics, and later won the world title.

JOYCE COMPTON embarked upon a movie career as a result of winning a beauty contest in her home town — Tulsa, Okla.

Sea Food Favorites

Casserole of Salmon

Two tablespoons tapioca, 1-4 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, 1 cup canned salmon (flaked), 1 cup diced celery, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 6 or 8 unbaked baking-powder biscuits rolled 1-4 inch thick.

Combine ingredients in order given. Turn into greased casserole; bake in hot oven (425 degrees Fahrenheit) 25 minutes, stirring mixture twice during first 10 minutes of baking. Place biscuits on top of salmon mixture after it has baked 10 minutes; return to oven; bake 12 to 15 minutes longer to bake biscuits. Serves four.

Scalloped Crab

Four tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups light cream or top milk, 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, dash of cayenne, dash of paprika, 1-2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 2 cups crab, shrimp or lobster (cut in 1-2 inch pieces), 1-4 cup soft buttered crumbs.

Melt butter in saucepan, add flour and stir to a smooth paste. Add cream and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add seasonings, Worcestershire sauce, 1-2 of parsley, and fish. Pour into well-greased casserole. Sprinkle crumbs and remaining parsley over top. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 minutes, or until crumbs are browned. Makes six small servings. May also be baked in individual ramekins.

DEANER—RUTTER

The marriage of Miss Mildred G. Deaner, of Havre de Grace, and Earl G. Rutter, of Perryville, has been announced. The ceremony was performed in the Perryville M. E. Church on Saturday, June 27, by the Rev. Otis P. Jefferson, pastor of the church.

Preview of Coming Attractions at Local and Nearby Theatres

NEW THEATRE

For the countless Will Rogers fans who have always maintained that "A Connecticut Yankee" was the greatest of the great comedian's pictures, there is good news in the announcement that 20th Century-Fox have re-released that rib-tickling comedy and that it is to be shown at the New Theatre next Monday Tuesday and Wednesday.

Directed by David Butler, and featuring Myrna Loy and Maureen O'Sullivan in the excellent supporting cast, the picture presents Rogers as a twentieth century Yankee, raising hob in old King Arthur's court.

Mark Twain's delicious satire has been modernized in this version to permit the inclusion of speeches and actions that show the Will Rogers talent at its greatest.

An extra added attraction for the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday bill will be the fight pictures of the recent Max Schmeling-Joe Louis championship bout.

Chester Morris achieved an unusual honor while playing one of the godfathers in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's dramaci "Three Godfathers," coming Thursday to the New Theatre. He was invited to become the godfather in real life of the two sets of twin babies that appear in the picture, little Jean and Judith Kirchner, and Jeanne and Joanne Kelly. Morris, who has children of his own, and who had become deeply attached to the tots, gladly accepted.

California's gold rush of 1849, presented in all its frenzied grasping greed, is one of the key situations in "Sutter's Gold," the Universal drama which has been booked for showing at the New Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Edward Arnold is starred in the role of oJhn Sutter, pioneer colonizer of California. The discovery of gold on his "empire" brings a motley horde of gold seekers from all parts of the country. The yellow luring metal finally canses Sutter to lose his domain and all his wealth.

"Snowed Under," a rollicking First National comedy romance with a New England setting, comes to the local theatre on Saturday, bringing together a leading man and three leading women, all of whom are top notch Hollywood stars in their own right. George Brent has the lead while the feminine trio is composed of Genevieve Tobin, Glenda Farrell and Patricia Ellis.

NORTH EAST THEATRE

As a successor to their two previous full-length hits, "The Devil's Brother" and "Babes in Toyland," Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy make their latest feature-length film appearance in "The Bohemian Girl," Hal Roach's ambitious filmization of the world-famed operetta which has thrilled generations ever since its first presentation at the Drury Lane Theatre in London in 1843. The new picture will be shown Monday and Tuesday at the North East Theatre.

Robert Emmet Sherwood's stage hit, "The Petrified Forest," which ran all last season on Broadway to crowded houses, comes to the North East Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, in the screen version produced by Warner Bros.

Leslie Howard and Bette Davis, who gave such sterling performances in "Of Human Bondage," are again playing the stellar roles in this picture. They are supported by a brilliant cast which includes Genevieve Tobin, Dick Foran, Humphrey Bogart, Joseph Sawyer and others.

"Bunker Bean," co-featuring Owen Davis, Jr., and Louise Latimer, provides something unique in romantic comedy—as did Harry Leon Wilson's novel from which it was taken—by spoofing reincarnation and inferiority complexes to a fare-thee-well.

The R. K. O. Radio picture traces the adventures of a meek male secretary who, usually petrified by petticoats, and brow-beaten by his boss, suddenly becomes a lion among the ladies and a tiger of big business when he finds courage in the belief that he is the reincarnation of a great Egyptian Pharoah. The film shows at North East next Friday and Saturday.

Madeline Carroll, beautiful blonde English star who makes her American screen debut in "The Case Against Mrs. Ames," expects to makes her home permanently in America, and has taken a lease on a house near Hollywood.

Miss Carroll is co-starred with Geo. Brent in "The Case Against Mrs. Ames," which was produced for Paramount by Walter Wanger.

Walter Wanger, and this picture will also show at North East next Friday and Saturday.

STATE THEATRE, NEWARK

"Devil's Squadron," Columbia's exciting drama of the test pilots, opens Monday and Tuesday at the State Theatre with Richard Dix in the starring role. Karen Morley plays the leading feminine part, while Lloyd Nolan, Shirley Ross, Billy Burrud, Gene Morgan, Henry Mollison, Thurston Hall, Gordon Jones and Cora Sue Collins are featured.

Erle C. Kenton directed. The story, by Dick Grace, was adapted to the screen by Howard J. Green, Bruce Manning and Lionel Houser.

"The Amateur Gentleman," Jeffery Farnol's world-famous romance of one of fiction's favorite adventures, comes to the State Theatre Wednesday and Thursday with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., in the title role and Elissa Landi as his co-star.

Adapted to the screen by Clarence Dane, this thrilling and colorful tale offers young Fairbanks his greatest and most romantic role to date as gay, daring Barnabas Barty, who roamed the broad highway in the glorious days of Regency England, meeting all comers with his fists, battling desperately to clear his father's name and charming every woman who crossed his path.

A new pair of romantic stars, a story of dramatic force ,and super direction combine to make "Fury," playing at the State Theatre, Friday and Saturday, a picture for the "must see" list of every discriminating motion picture patron.

Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy are the co-stars, and not within this reviewer's recollection have they ever acquitted themselves with greater distinction on the screen.

Much of the inspired quality of their performances may be attributed, doubtless, to the genius of Fritz Lang, noted Viennese film maker, who directed "Fury" as his first American picture.

SPEAKMAN—HITCHENS

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Speakman, of West Chester, Pa., to Frank B. Hitchens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hitchens, of near Elkton. The wedding took place at Cecilton on Monday, June 22, with Rev. Dr. Davis, pastor of the Cecilton M. E. Church, officiating.
