REP. GOLDSBOROUGH DISTRICT FEDERAL COURT

President sends his name to Senate for Confirmation.

On Friday it was announced that the President had sent the name of T. Allan Goldsborough to the senate for confirmation to the appointment as an associate justice of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Columbia.

The appointment to this District Court is considered an outstanding recognition, as these justices are the court of original jurisdiction in cases involving the Federal Government.

Mr. Goldsborough has served 18 years in the house.

His appointment is said to have the backing of Vice President Garner, Senator Radcliff, Barkley and Bankhead. Representative Rayburn, James A. Farley, Postmaster General, Jesse Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Committee and others.

The judgeship is a life appointment with a salary of $10,000 per year, and becomes effective on confirmation by the senate.

During his later years he was the second ranking member of the Banking and Currency Committee.

Many of his economic ideas and financial nostrums found no support except his own.

Spoke For Constituents

His first love was local legislation for the Shore counties. He was particularly attentive to pleas for aid from waterman or from small towners who wanted some favors at the disposal of members of Congress. Even his political enemies admitted that Mr. Goldsborough answered promptly all letters and attempted—even if he didn't always succeed—to comply with requests. He could be counted upon to speak for his constituents in official Washington.

During his term he ran counter to many a theory. The wets, during prohibition, roundly berated him for refusing to make out-and-out statements concerning the issue. But the people on the Shore paid little heed to this ranting by city folk and returned their representative.

Many heads were shaken when Mr. Goldsborough took over the task of planning the trip President Roosevelt made before the Maryland primary election in the ill-fated "purge" campaign against Senator Tydings. Mr. Goldsborough rode with the President from Crisfield to Denton, the Representative's home town, where the President made a speech supporting David J. Lewis, New Deal candidate for the Senate.

Voted Againt Repeal

He voted against the repeal of prohibition, the lone Maryland member of Congress to do so. But for his action on this issue he won a vote of thanks from the Baltimore W. C. T. U.

Host To President

Mr. Goldsborough was host to the President for luncheon that day. What decorations there were along the route the President took were put up under the supervision of friends of Mr. Goldsborough.

He was born in Greensboro, Md., September 16, 1877, and was graduated from Washington College with an A. B. decree in 1899. His alma mater gave him an honorary LL.D., in 1935. He earned his law degree at the University of Maryland in 1901 and returned to his native Caroline county to begin practice of law.

Elected Prosecutor

Three years later he was elected State's Attorney and was, at that time one of the youngest prosecutors in the country. He won local fame by his campaign against gambling during his four-year term.

He married Laura Hall in 1909 and they had four children. In 1928 his wife sued for divorce, charging "cruelty of treatment and vicious conduct." The proceedings subsequently were dropped. Soon after he was reelected in 1926 he suffered a nervous breakdown and underwent treatment at a Philadelphia hospital.

Annual I. O. O. F. Frolic Supported By Cast of Elkton Hi.

Supplementing announcement in last week's issue of this paper relating to the proposed Vaudeville scheduled to be staged at Elkton Armory, on the evening of Thursday, February 9th, word just flashed from the front reveals that a cast composed of forty local High School students, under the able directorship of Miss Katherine Bratton, will occupy a prominent part of the program.

We are told, that the students have framed a sketch of international character, introducing folk songs, and dances, representing America; Spain; Russia and Japan. We are also told that participants have been working hard at rehearsals, and have really fabricated together a company of girls and boys, well drilled, and fully customed in their respective native dress and regalia, presenting an exhibition of native dances, and in the form of a light operette, that well deserves the appreciation of thos e who profess a sense of refinement, and good taste, and will reflect credit to our High School organization. It is said that this feature will serve as an introduction to the elaborate performance, and it is anticipated that these boys and girls will receive a good hand as proper encouragement in line with their endeavor.

Scheduled, as a special feature on the program, will be found a comic sketch in pantomine, introducing Ed. Wertley, the oldest black-face comedian in exhistence, who has traveled the country over as a clown with the Barnum and Bailey Circus. This sketch will take the form of the ac- in the hands of a master of the minrobatic, and should produce a laugh stral circle.

Bill Marquess Hits 300 Bowling Score For Hall of Fame

Coca-Cola Bottle Babies also set new Women's Record in Newark Tilt

William "Bottle" Marquess, rolling with the Singerly Fire Company five, broke all records on the Community Alleys last Tuesday night by smashing fourteen consecutive strikes against that head pin and totaling 300 pins for the highest bowling score possible—the dream score.

Bottle's performance was the most spectacular ever witnessed here. By the time he had made his twelfth straight against the Postoffice team, all activities on the alleys stopped. Word had passed around that Bottle only had a couple more to go. Players and spectators crowded over toward the scene of the brilliant event.

Bottle struck in the tenth frame, twelve straight, and took a deep breath. The door to bowling's hall of fame was open. Bottle swallowed and tried to get the lump out of his throat while the pin boys set 'em up again. Bottle said later that the pins were more or less a blur and his knees wanted to shake. He got his poise, advanced to the foul line, let it go.

Thirteen! A clean hit, all pins tumbling mightily. Cheers and cries. Every man and woman in the alley rooting.

Then the last throw. Bottle couldn't have spit had he wanted to. He felt the pulses pounding n his head The crowd was for him. But the crowd wasn't helping. He had to concentrate now.

And concentrate he did! It was a fair hit, but one pin looked like it would stay up. It spun and wobbled—and fell. And Bottle was in the hall of fame with a front seat, and the cheers were enough to deafen you. Elkton hit the big dailies. Later Bottle was properly photographed. His rolling that night for more than seven hundred pins in three games also set a record.

The Coca-Cola Bottle Babies went to Newark last Saturday night to play off a two tie against the Wilson Service Station quintet. One thing or another interferred with the team getting together as it should so when the lineup faced the foul mark there were four of the seven girls on hand. Nellie MsDaniel, Lila Kruass, Mabel Louise Hayes and Edna Denney.

That was enough. The quartet, rolling blind, didn't even need the blind man to sink their opponents. The gals totaled 2,340 pins, the highest ever rolled by women either here or at Newark. And according to bowling authorities in Wilmington, no team of girls ten-pin rollers, have ever touched that score there. Lila Krauss was the individual star with 537 for three games and 188 for single high.

The girls play the Delaware Olds here this coming Saturday night.

Six Candidates wish to Succeed Goldsborough

The post held by Representative for the last 18 years seems to have attracted an unusual number of aspirants for the position.

The Democratic Central Committee of the entire state will be called to make the nomination, as will also the Republican party candidate.

A special date for the election within twenty days after the vacancy occurs, will have to be set by Governor O'Conor and must allow 30 days notice to give the party committees time to meet and select the candidate.

Up to the present time the following candidates announced for the race:

State Senator Thomas F. Johnson (Dem., Worcester).
State Senator Dudley G. Roe (Dem., Queen Anne's), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.
State Senator David J. Ward (Dem., Wilcomico).
William S. Gordy, Jr., former State Comptroller.
Former State Senator Olin R. Higgins, of Dorchester county.
State Senator Earl Bennett (Dem., Dorchester).

Ward Indorsed

Senator Ward already has been indorsed by the Democratic State Central Committee of Wicomico county.

It is reported that if Representative Goldsborough has any say in the selection of his successor, the choice probably would be Senator Johnson a former State's Attorney for Worcester county.

On February 3d in the Fifth Congressional district an election will be held to fill the position vacated by the death of Mr. Gambrill. The democratic candidate is Lansdale G. Sasscer of Prince George's opposed by A. Kingsley Love St. Mary's county republican.

Since the suspension of the board's financial activities requested by the governor prior to a conference with him, the various contracts and obligations partially completed, have been listed and the information turned over to the governor for his information and approval or disapproval.

Included in the items of the above amount is the work on the dual highway, Route 40, from Havre de Grace to the Delaware state line. The cost of this dual line extension will approximate one million dollars giving an additional twenty miles of dual roadway. Other projects submitted to the governor for approval or disapproval include grade crossing eliminations at Leslie, Antietam, Hagerstown and Elkton.

Mr. Codd of the Commission advises a balance in the Federal grant of $503,000 remains on hand to apply on grade eliminations. Plans For New Elkton Hospital

At the Howard hotel Monday evening the members of the board and many of the staff met to dine and discuss plans for the raising of funds for a new hospital plant to take the place of the present wooden building

Mr Abel Cameron of North East suggested that the $150,000 advocated by the doctors was probably impractical because unobtainable, but that a building within the capacity of the county's financial means not over $50,000 would probably prove the best that could be done.

Before dispersing it was arranged that all parties give consideration to the matter preparatory to a later meeting where plans may be more fully matured, particularly with regard to raising the money. The treasurer reported that the debt of $13,000 owing in 1933 had been paid off by Dec. 31, 1938.
