CHRISTMAS TREE ENTERTAINMENTS.

M. P. SUNDAY SCHOOL, BEL AIR.

One of the most interesting and delightful Sunday School entertainments ever witnessed in Bel Air was given in Masonic Hall, on New Year's Eve, by the Sunday School of the Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, pastor. The large room was crowded to overflowing with happy children and their parents and friends. The exercises opened with singing a hymn by the school.

The stage had been fitted up to represent an old-fashioned sitting room, in which a large fire place formed a conspicuous feature. Seated near this were an old and venerable-looking couple, whom Mr. J. G. Rouse, Superintendent of the School, introduced as Mr. and Mrs. McIlfresh, friends of the school, who had been invited to enjoy the festivities. The old folks (Mr. Wm. Franklin and Miss Fida Swartz,) performed their parts well. After conversation they called upon the children for recitations, which were given by Mary Warren, Bertha Grier, Lulie Hoopman and Albert Hoblitzell, Mayfield Wright, a tiny little girl aged four years, daughter of Prof. Chas. T. Wright, recited very effectively, "The Cricket;" and little Maud and Chester Melvin sang a duet very prettily. Rev. Mr. Hoblitzell also made an address, after which the old folks hung up around the fireplace about 60 stockings, preparatory to an expected visit from Santa Claus. This done the old lady remarked that it was growing very late—nearly nine o'clock, and they had better retire. Before doing so they said they would like to hear the "Night before Christmas" recited, which Master Raymond Hoblitzell volunteered to do, and did it well.

In the midst of the recital a noise was heard in the chimney and Santa Claus (Mr. Wm. M. Hines,) made his appearance. His personality was unmistakable. He was a portly old fellow, covered, apparently, with snow, and carried an immense pack and dozens of toys, wagons, &c., on his back. He emptied the contents of his sack on the stage, and oranges, bags of candy, &c., rolled about in every direction, to the delight of the little ones, whose faith in the good old man was thereupon made a reality. He proceeded to fill the stockings, being assisted by the old folks, who seemed to have forgotten the lateness of the hour. When this pleasing task was ended Mr. Rouse came forward and gave old Santa Claus a hearty welcome, remarking that he had not seen him since he was a boy, and asked him to remain and distribute the presents to the good little boys and girls. Old Santa pleaded pressing engagements but was prevailed upon to remain. One by one the children were called up, each one receiving a stocking and a toy or book besides.

The superintendent then thanked the audience for their attendance, complimented the children upon their good behavior and said the exercises would close by singing a hymn. When he retired Mr. Hoblitzell appered and said the exercises were not quite over and made an address, winding up by presenting to Mr. Rouse, on behalf of the school, a handsome family Bible. The gentleman was taken completely by surprise, this event not being on the programme, but expressed his thanks in suitable terms. A hymn was then sung and the entertainment closed.

The school numbers 56 pupils. The officers and teachers are as follows:

Superintendent, J. G. Rouse; assistant, Frank McLane; Secretary and Treasurer, Clarence H. Slater; Librarian, H. S. Grier; assistant, C. H. Slater; Teachers, Miss Fida Swartz, Miss Annie L. Munnikhuysen, Miss Ella Hoblitzell, Miss Laura Oldfield, Mrs. S. A. Hoblitzell, Messrs. Harry Norris, Frank McLane and others.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL, BEL AIR.

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Bel Air M. E. Sunday School took place in the Church, last Friday evening. The chancel was tastefully ornamented with evergreens and colored grasses. On each side of the pulpit were Jacobs' ladders similarly decorated. Between these a beautiful white star was suspended, beneath which hung the banner of the Sunday School Mission Band. Between the ladders were piled the prizes for attendance, together with a bountiful supply of candies, nuts and oranges. The exercises, consisting of "Beautiful Little Hands," sung by a number of small girls, addresses by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wood, and the Superintendent, Dr. Benjamin Smith, with recitations by the pupils, were interspersed with fine music by the church choir, composed of Miss Nannie Dean, organist, Mrs. Thomas Wood, Misses Annie Underwood, S. F. Jones, Alice Jeffery, Annie Keith, Messrs. J. William Bauer, Isaac Warren and Dr. Benjamin Smith. Those taking part in the performances were Clarkson Keith, Allen Kirk, Howard Kennedy, Mary Lingan, Annie Wilde, Lee Colder, Walter Young, Greta Warren, Bertha Stewart, Eva Smith and Madison Lee. The young people acquitted themselves well. The exercises were followed by the distribution of presents, in which the pastor of the church and his wife were remembered.

LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL, PERRYMAN.

The first anniversary of the Evangelical Lutheran Sunday School at Perryman, was celebrated on the evening of Christmas Day. The music and addresses were excellent, and the occasion altogether an enjoyable one.

At the close of the exercises the congregation of St. Paul's Church presented their pastor, Rev. R. E. M. Engers, with a handsome gold watch, as a testimony of their appreciation of his labors among them.

TRINITY CHURCH, MAGNOLIA.

The Christmas celebration of the Sunday School of Trinity Church, near Magnolia, took place on the 24th instant, and was largely attended. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens. In the centre of the building was a representation of the birth of our Saviour, with the inscription; "He is our light, our life and our salvation."

Several addresses appropriate to the occasion were delivered.

CHURCHVILLE, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The annual Christmas entertainment at Churchville Presbyterian Church, occurred on Christmas eve. A crowded house denoted the general interest in the enjoyment of the little folks. The exercise, entitled "The Royal Son," was used. It consisted of music, responsive Scripture reading and prayer. The pastor, Rev. C. D. Wilson, and Rev. D. B. Fitzgerald, of Harmony Church, delivered short addresses to the children. Mr. G. Junkin Finney read a short article, and four little girls gave a recitation.—Santa Claus was then introduced, with his long white beard, snow flakes on his back, his carpet-bag and a bundle of sticks in his hands. He shook hands warmly with both pastor and Superintendent and went straight to his work of distributing baskets of candy, nuts and fruit to the children. Wishing them all a Merry Christmas he retired. The Superintendent, Mr. J. Thomas Webster, stated that there are 103 names on the roll. One boy had been present 49 Sundays and two or three others 45. These faithful children were especially remembered by presents. The church was wreathed in cedar and laurel, and a Jacob's ladder stood in front of the pulpit.

BUSH M. E. CHURCH.

The weather cleared, last Saturday evening, in time for the friends to attend the annual Christmas entertainment at Bush M. E. Church. A pleasant programme of music, prayer and recitations by the scholars was enjoyed by a full house. Wreaths of crowfoot and holly and an arch with the words, "Christ was born in Bethlehem," gave the room a festive appearance. A large school responded to their names when called to receive candy and oranges. Good attendance was rewarded by presents.

MT. CARMEL M. P. SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The annual Christmas entertainment of Mt. Carmel M. P. Sunday School, at Emmorton, came off on New Year's night. The church was crowded and the usual programme of recitations, dialogues and readings was carried out in excellent style, under the management of Mr. E. J. Rogers, superintendent of the school. Master Lerew Porter delivered the opening address. Those who recited pieces were Rhoda Archer, Edna Grafton, Alice McNamee, Gover Rogers, Maud Archer, Lewis Hooker, Nannie Swartz, Harry Magness, Wilson Warn and Miss Alice Norris. The following young ladies delivered reading and acquitted themselves splendidly: Misses Kincaid, Annie Muttendorf, Bertie Lee and Lillie Grafton. Miss Fannie Magness was organist, and was assisted by a large and well-trained choir. At a given signal the ubiquitous Santa Claus made his appearance, and as the names of the members and friends of the school were called he distributed the confectioneries which had been lavishly provided for the occasion. The old gentleman also presented to Miss Fannie Magness a handsome willow rocking chair, a gift from the choir. Rev. Mr. Hoblitzell, pastor of the church, then delivered a brief address, and presented, in behalf of their teachers, a handsome plush photograph album to Miss Lillian Grafton, and a scrap-album to Master Gover Rogers. A box, with contents not noted, but surmised, was presented to Mr. Harry Love. The church was handsomely trimmed.

THE M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL, MAGNOLIA.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of Magnolia, held its annual Christmas festival on Friday, December 28th. The house was crowded. The committee of arrangements was composed of the Superintendent, Mr. Edward Sweeting, and the officers and teachers of the school.—The success of the entertainment was due, in a great measure, to their efforts. The exercises were opened with singing by the entire school. Miss Mary Brown presiding at the organ; prayer by Rev. G. L. Cuddy, and an address by Eddie Rollins. Those who recited pieces were Carrie Brown, Katie Carroll, Georgie Brown, Ziba Bowman, Grace Timmons, Emma Glass, Nettie Swift, Nellie Sweeting, Mamie Timmons, Vinnie Carr, Bertha Swift, Bessie Everett, Leonard Jeffers, John Carroll, Jimmie Rollins and Dora Chapman. Select readings were well rendered by Mrs. J. H. Turner, Misses Marian Sweeting and Mattie Glass, Gertie Chapman and Harry Bowman recited a dialogue with much spirit, which was followed by addresses by the Rev. G. L. Cuddy and Mr. J. O. E. Wetherill. At the close of the exercises Santa Claus made his appearance loaded with presents and confectionery, which were distributed by the Secretary. The school numbers 85 pupils.

UNION CHAPEL.

The Union Chapel M. P. Sunday School held a delightful Christmas entertainment, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 26th. The church was beautifully trimmed in garlands and festoons of evergreens and a large and handsomely adorned Christmas tree that reached from floor to ceiling, stood at the right of the pulpit. A very large audience was present. A number of interesting recitations and dialogues were delivered by the children, and several young ladies gave readings that were very entertaining and created considerable applause. Miss Cornelia Hardesty had charge of the organ and was ably assisted by an excellent choir. Santa Claus, as usual, was on hand, and distributed the presents of confectionery, Bibles, cards, &c. Some of the cards were very pretty and were painted for the occasion by Miss Grace Hardesty. The entire proceedings were conducted by Mr. James T. Norris, the Superintendent of the School, who was aided by Mr. J. W. Wood, Misses Minnie Robinson, Emma Norris and Alice Hardesty.

SHURESVILLE UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Christmas festival for Shuresville Union Sunday School was held in the school house at Shuresville, New Years's night. At least 150 persons were present. Addresses were delivered by Rev. E. W. Wroth, Rev. D. B. Fitzgerald, Rev. Geo. L. Scott and Mr. C. Wilson, Superintendent. There was fine music by the children, Miss Maude Shure performing on the organ. The children recited a number of pieces and received presents provided by the teachers. The occasion was an exceedingly pleasant one. The school is in a prosperous condition and is doing much good. One of its chief friends and supporters is Mr. Daniel F. Shure, who has from the first manifested a great interest in it.

MOUNT ZION M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The festival, on Wednesday night, at Mt. Zion M. E. Church, Fountain Green, was a delightful surprise to everybody. A programme of unusual merit, consisting of 33 readings, instructions, solos, quartettes, choruses and remarks by the pastor, gave entertainment for an hour and a-half to an audience large enough to fill two such buildings. All the children were treated. The organist, Miss Pace, was presented with a handsome hanging lamp. The Superintendent, W. H. Harward, and Mrs. S Jeffery, were kindly remembered. The pastor, Rev. Thomas Wood, received a purse and a good supply for his larder.

MEN'S, YOUTHS', BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

YOU WON'T KNOW YOURSELF

WHEN YOU ARE CLOTHED WITH ONE OF OUR ELEGANT

SUITS OR OVERCOATS.

Few things can change the looks of men like the clothes they wear. An ill-fitting, botchy garment suggests slovenliness and vice, while a

NICE, NEAT AND WELL-MADE GARMENT

works a

COMPLETE TRANSFORMATION.

Its natural that every man and boy should want to look his best. Clothes do not make the man, but they stamp the man as the mint mark stamps the coin and shows it is genuine.

IT WON'T HURT YOU

to look over our immense stock prepared for this season's business. If these goods capture you, as they are likely to do by their cheapness and superior makes, you can't fall into error by buying all you need for yourself and boys right here from us.

☞Remember, that the Biggest Stock gives the best choice, and that's our Situation to the letter.

For the information of those desiring to order by mail we will here give a list of prices:
