No 180

Resolution to pay J. W. King, Inspector and sealer of Gas meters for expenses of fitting up office in City Hall.

Examined by the joint committee on enrolments and found correct.

Joseph Robb

Geo. - Marden

John S. Sleight

Presented to the Mayor August 16th 1867

J. C. M'Cleane

President of First Branch

Resolutions of thanks to Mr. George Brown and Thomas Winans Esq.

Whereas in consequence of the present deplorable condition of our once happy and prosperous country, great suffering and distress has been entailed upon all communities our own particularly, and whereas at such a time when large numbers of our fellow citizens, their wives and children are suffering for the actual necessaries of life, when every one is endeavoring to look into the dim distance of the future for some bright spot though no larger than a man's hand on which to hang a hope that the madness which now rules the hour may give way to the light of reason and peace tranquility and its necessary follower - prosperity may once more be our happy boon, it is truly refreshing that we can point to "Good Samaritans" in our midst, and whereas Mr. George Brown, the widow of our late excellent warm hearted citizen and good man George Brown Esq, and Thomas Winans Esq have through their princely liberality established and are daily keeping in operation at great expense extensive soup houses for the relief of our suffering community, where the needy can procure "without money and without price" at all times an abundance of wholesome food, and whereas such christian philanthrophy should not go unnoticed by the corporate authorities - therefore -

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore that the thanks of this corporation are eminently due and are hereby tendered to Mr. George Brown and Thomas Winans Esq for the great and munificent liberality displayed by