Sec 4 And be it enacted and ordained That William S. Marshall whose plans were adopted for the new almshouse by Resolution No 170 approved May 28 of 1859, be and he is hereby appointed Architect, and shall hold the office subject to the conditions hereinafter contained; whose duty it shall be to furnish all the general and detail working drawings and specifications required and to make all necessary explanations to the Superintendent, hereinafter appointed; and in case any contractor shall refuse or neglect to comply with the direction of said Architect, it shall be his further duty to report the same to the Building Committee without delay; and the said Architect shall receive as full compensation for his services, ten and one quarter (2½) percentum on the cost of the work, as it progresses (payable monthly) during the time he holds his office; and performs the duties thereof only, and shall be subject to removal by a two third vote of said Building Committee for any cause deemed by them sufficient, in which case another shall be appointed by the Mayor, but shall be confirmed by the City Council in Convention, before entering on the discharge of his duties —

Sec 5 And be it enacted and ordained, That John W Higgs be, and he is hereby appointed to superintend the work as it progresses, and shall be styled "The Superintendent" whose duty it shall be to give his undivided time in superintending the erection of said Almshouse; to remain constantly at the buildings, and see that every part and portion of the details are being carried out according to the plans and specifications as furnished by the architect for the several branches of the work, both as to materials and workmanship; and in case any contractor shall refuse or neglect to conform to the said specifications after his attention has been called to the same; it shall be his further duty to promptly report the fact to the architect, and the said Superintendent shall hold his office subject to removal by a two third vote of the Building Committee for any cause by them