Sec 17 And be it enacted and ordained, that the Collector be, and he is hereby directed to advertize, during the first ten days of February in each year, in two daily newspapers published in the city (one of which shall be in the German language) three times, only, a list of all unpaid collectable taxes in arrears, in his office, except such as may be in a state of adjustment and liquidation, the advertisement to set forth that if the said taxes are not paid in conformity with the laws of the State, and the Ordinances of the City, he will proceed, and he is hereby so required to collect the same by distraint or sale, said advertisement, also, to indicate the name of the person or persons to whom the property is assessed, the street, lane or alley in which it is located, the year or years for which the taxes are due, and the original amount of said taxes, exclusive of interest and costs; The name, street and amount to be embraced in a single line, whenever practicable, and the Collector in addition to the publication of such list, shall, for one week, publish in all the other daily papers a short notice, stating the name of the paper, in which said list may be published at length and the object of the same

Sec 18 And be it enacted and ordained, that the Collector shall not order distress for any arrearages of taxes until he has first given to the person or persons so in arrears, or has left at his, her or their residence or last known residence, or if neither can be found, on the premises, a statement of his, her or their indebtedness, and not less than thirty days notice of his (the said Collectors) intention if the bill is not paid within the time named, to enforce payment thereof and in case the aforesaid person or persons reside out of the city, said statement and notice shall be forwarded through the Post office to his, her or their place of residence, if known

Sec 19 And be it enacted and ordained, that whenever it may in the opinion of the Collector, be necessary to have a plat made of the property to be offered for sale for State or City Taxes, the said Collector is hereby authorized to allow the