Resolutions providing for inviting Admiral Farragut and the officers of the Russian Frigates now in, or to arrive at New York harbor to visit the City of Baltimore

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That a committee, consisting of the Mayor, the Presidents of the First and Second Branches of the Council and three members from each Branch, to be appointed by said Presidents together with six citizens, to be selected by the Mayor, be appointed, who shall proceed to New York, and extend an invitation to the officers of the Russian Ships of war now in or shortly to arrive at that port, to visit the city of Baltimore at such time as may suit their convenience, and to accept of its hospitalities, as a testimonial of the high respect of the authorities and citizens of Baltimore for the Sovereign and people of Russia who, when other powers and people more strongly bound to us by the ties of interest or common descent have lent material and moral aid to the Rebels of the South, have honorably abstained from all attempts to assist the rebellion, and have given our Government repeated assurances of their sympathy and good will

Resolved, That a similar invitation be at the same time extended to Admiral Farragut, who has rendered such noble service, in connection with our navy in destroying and capturing so many of the strongholds of the rebellion

Resolved, That the committee thus appointed be and they are hereby authorized to take all the necessary steps for carrying out the measure proposed in these resolutions
