Destructive Fire.

Our town was awakened on Wednesday morning last, about 3½ o'clock, by the cry of fire, which proved to be in the large frame dwelling on High street, owned and occupied by Mr. John Smith as a dwelling and two store rooms. The fire was first discovered by Charles H. Baker, Esq., who lived adjoining. He was aroused by the cracking of the fire and supposed it rain, but on going to the window discovered the fire and gave the alarm. Mr. Smith and his family were aroused with some difficulty. The rear of the building was in flames inside when discovered by Mr. Baker, and the fire is supposed to have originated in the shed-room or kitchen. Mr. Smith's building being of wood and, except the upper story old, burned rapidly, and but little was saved either in the way of furniture or store goods, and none of the clothing of the family except what they had on.

The efforts of the citizens to save the dwelling of C. H Baker, Esq., adjoining, proved unavailing, and it also was entirely consumed. Mr. Baker succeeded in removing all of his effects. He had but recently repaired his house.

Mr. Smith has an insurance in the Kent Mutual of $4,500, which we should suppose would nearly cover his loss.

Mr. Baker has an insurance of $2,000, which is scarcely sufficient to cover the loss of his house.

Our people as usual, with some exceptions, worked bravely, and with the necessary apparatus could have saved Mr. Baker's building. Among the colored citizens whom we noticed as conspicuously active were Ben. Ringgold, Frank Chambers, George Jones, Richard Jones's son, —— Boyer, George Butler, Sam Smith and William Willson, barbers; the younger son of George Nicols, James A. Jones, and Emory Staton. There were many others who did good service, but our attention was not called to them. The origin of the fire has not transpired. It leaves a large gap on the main street of our town, and adds another warning to the need of preparation and proper appliances to combat the devouring elements.

The Fire Insurance Company has lost heavily this year, and we should suppose it would be a profitable investment on their part to secure a suction and hose for our engine. It is the general opinion that Mr. Baker's house could have been easily saved had water been available at the proper time.

Most every tragic event

Is intermingled with comedy. Our theatrical performances are intended to be mimic events of life, but the stage affords nothing half so amusing as the actual occurrences of life, if they are only sifted out. The lamentable fire on last Wednesday gave rise to its amusing incidents. A gentleman in the upper part of the town, having the fear of tramps before his eyes, was aroused from sleep by what he claims was the cry of murder, and soon found himself in the street, armed with a repeating rifle: some say, a pistol in one hand and the rifle in the other, looking for the rioters. We saw him afterwards doing valiant battle with the water buckets. Another gentleman, conspicuous for his portly bearing, commanding voice and activity in organizing the line of bucket-men, was tripping around in a handsome pair of fancy slippers. One of those adjacent to the fire, after assisting to arouse Mr. Smith's family, was found in his own house, turning round and round, perfectly bewildered, and for the moment completely demented.

Tramps.

The tramp nuisance is beginning to reach a point in our midst which cannot be endured much longer. Ladies are insulted in their houses because the demands of the tramps for money are not complied with. Our citizens, in many instances, are cursed and abused by them, houses are entered and thefts of victuals committed, and they are becoming generally obnoxious. Some concerted action of our people will soon become necessary, to rid the county of this vagrant population. In the mean time, we recommend vigilant watchfulness on the part of every householder, and especially our police authorities.

We think the times demand an increased police force in our town at night. The outlay to feed this idle, worthless class is costing our county certainly not less than a hundred dollars per day, besides the terror it inspires among the females, and the consequent annoyance and often detention at home on the part of the male head of the family.

The nuisance should be abated.

Appointments.

The School Board on Tuesday last, appointed Edw. A. Scott, son of C. J. Scott. Esq., of Galena, to the vacant scholarship in St. John's College, and Miss Julia Leary, Virginia Johnson and Mollie C. Lynch as students to the State Normal School, leaving one vacancy yet to fill.

Horrible Coal Oil Accident.

About noon, yesterday, Mrs. Asbury Howard was dreadfully burned on her hands, arms, neck and breast, caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp. We learn that she was lighting a fire by pouring oil from the lamp, when the explosion took place. It is feared that her injuries will prove fatal.

CONSTITUTION
THE PUBLIC SCHOOL ASSOCIATION OF KENT COUNTY.

ARTICLE I. NAME AND OBJECT.

This Association shall be known as the Public School Association of Kent county: and its object shall be the promotion of the interests of Education among the people by means of the Common Schools.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP.

The Association shall be composed of all white Public School Teachers in the county, the Boards of District Trustees of the county, the County School Board and the Examiner, together with all other white persons of either sex who will assent to and sign this Constitution, being above the age of sixteen years. No other qualification for membership shall be required.

ARTICLE III. OFFICERS.

The officers of the Association shall be a President, Vice President from each Election District, a Recording Secretary and a Corresponding Secretary; all of whom shall be elected by ballot at the last regular meeting in the scholastic year: such officers, however, to continue in office until their successors are elected and installed.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS.

The regular meetings of the Association shall be held on the first Saturday of the Fall term, the first school Monday after the close of the Fall, the Winter, and the Spring terms, and the first day after the close of the Summer term; but Special Meetings may be called by the President should urgent necessity so require.

ARTICLE V.

At each regular meeting one member shall be appointed by the President to prepare an Essay on some topic germain to the object of the Association, to be read at the next subsequent regular meeting, and be subject to discussion.

ARTICLE VI. DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at, and keep order in, all meetings of the Association, to call Special Meetings when in his judgment it may be necessary, and in case of a tie vote upon any question to give the casting vote. In the absence of the President the oldest Vice President, present at any meeting, shall preside and discharge all the duties of the office. In case of the absence of the President and all the Vice Presidents, a Chairman shall be elected to serve pro tempore.

The Recording Secretary shall keep in a proper book to be procured for that purpose, a true and accurate record of the proceedings of each meeting, and take charge of and preserve all papers presented to the Association.

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct all the correspondence of the Association.

ARTICLE VII. COMMITTEES.

Immediately upon the adoption of this Consitution the President shall appoint two standing committees, to consist of five members each, one from each Election District; to the first shall be committed all matters which may arise in relation to finance—and to the other all matters pertaining to the intellectual, literary or educational interests of the Association, including topics for consideration at the regular meetings.

All special or select committees shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members, to be appointed by the Chair.

ARTICLE VIII. LIBRARY.

In case it should seem practicable at any time hereafter to form a complete Teachers' Library, a separate committee of three members shall be appointed to manage the same.

ARTICLE IX. FINES AND PENALTIES.

The members of this body being voluntarily associated for the promotion of the greatest earthly good, are expected to give to it their best thoughts and efforts; and to treat their fellow members with courtesy and respect; therefore no fines or penalties shall be imposed on any pretext whatever, except that of expulsion for immoral conduct.

ARTICLE X.

This Constitution may be altered, or amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any regular meeting, provided notice shall have been given at the previous regular meeting.

THOMAS M. PINKIND,
JOSEPH PETERSON,
Committee.

☞It is reported that Mr. Munn, of Chicago, asked Mr. Blaine to use his influence with Gen. Grant for some purpose or other. Mr. Blaine, according to the story, replied in these terms: "I have no influence with the present administration. No man has who is not a thief by instinct."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

The reputation it has attained, in consequence of the marvellous cures it has produced during the last half century, is a sufficient assurance to the public that it will continue to realize the happiest results that can be desired. In almost every section of country there are persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. All who have tried it, acknowledge its superiority; and where its virtues are known, no one hesitates as to what medicine to employ to relieve the distress and suffering peculiar to pulmonary affections. CHERRY PECTORAL always affords instant relief, and performs rapid cures of the milder varieties of bronchial disorder, as well as the more formidable diseases of the lungs.

As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, it is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued and restored to health.

This medicine gains friends at every trial, as the cures it is constantly producing are too remarkable to be forgotten. No family should be without it, and those who have once used it never will.

Eminent Physicians throughout the country prescribe it, and Clergymen often recommend it from their knowledge of its effects.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
