No. 13.

An Ordinance making a further appropriation for the ship channel leading into the Patapsco river, and from its mouth to Fort McHenry.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that for the purpose of the further prosecution of the work upon the ship channel, under the "Patapsco River Improvement Board," created by Ordinance No. 66, approved May 30th, 1872, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be taken out of the annual levy for 1874, or to be otherwise provided for, is hereby appropriated, subject to the orders of the said Board upon the City Comptroller, and to his warrants upon the Register of the City, as heretofore provided in said ordinance; and in order to meet any deficiency meantime in the City treasury, the Mayor and Register of the City are hereby, authorized to borrow temporarily, upon the credit of the City, by promissary notes, payable in twelve months, such sums not exceeding in the aggregate two hundred thousand dollars, as may from time to time be required for the payment of liabilities contracted by or under authority of the Patapsco River Improvement Board.

$200,000 appropriated.

Mayor and Register authorized to borrow temporarily such sums as may be required for payment of liabilities contracted by Patapsco River Improvement Board.

Approved March 25, 1873.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 14.

An Ordinance to authorize the Mayor to appoint three Commissioners for Perkins' Spring Square.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the Mayor shall appoint, at his discretion, and removable at his pleasure, three Commissioners for Perkins' Spring Square, located at the junction of George and Chatsworth streets, to be selected from among the residents of the vicinity of said Square, who shall serve without compensation.

Three Commissioners to be appointed.

SEC. 2.—And be it enacted and ordained, that said Commissioners shall have all the powers conferred by, and perform all the duties required under Article XLI of the City Code, title "Ordinances," sub-title "Squares and Springs."

Powers and duties of Commissioners.

SEC. 3.—And be it enacted and ordained, that this ordinance shall take effect from its passage.

Approved April 3, 1873.

JOSHUA VANSANT, Mayor.

No. 15.

An Ordinance to change the grades of Broadway, Ann, Wolf and Washington streets, and to construct a sewer at the intersection of Aliceanna and Washington streets to Fenhagen's dock.

Whereas, the present grades of Broadway, Ann, Wolf and Washington streets, are such as to cause a great accumulation of water in Aliceanna street, at its intersection with Washington street, during heavy rains, to the serious inconvenience of the public and damage to property; therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that the City Commissioner be, and he is hereby, directed to have the grades of Broadway so changed as to cause the water to flow south to Lancaster street, instead of easterly, along Aliceanna street as at present.

City Commissioner to have grades of Broadway changed.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted and ordained, that the City Commissioner be directed to have a
