The Transcript,

CHESTERTOWN, MD.,

Tuesday Morning, July 23, 1878.

SUNDAY afternoon a heavy rain visited this section.

SEVERAL deaths of infants, from cholera infantum, occured in Chestertown last week.

TRAMPS.—Our Town Commissioners have issued a stringent but very commendable ordinance in reference to tramps.

THE Kent Cornet Bank will accompany the M. P. Sanday School excursion, to-morrow, and enliven the trip with choice music.

DRS. STEARNS AND WILSON will be at the Clayton House, Wilmington, July 22d, and remain until August 1st.

A VERY able and eloquent sermon was preached in the M. P. Church of this town, last Sunday morning, by Rev. Walter R. Graham.

THE annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association will be held at the Baltimore City College, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27th and 28th.

ICE.—A cargo of northern ice arrived here, last week, on a large sea-going vessel, consigned to Wm. Perkins, the well known caterer of the Rising Sun Saloon.

A GRATEFUL change in the weather took place Sunday night, and yesterday was delightfully refreshing and invigorating to poor sweltering, exhausted humanity.

THE LEVY LIST, which appears this morning, occupies a large amount of space—but its publication is an important matter, and we ask the indulgence of our patrons for the short time of its continuance, after which we shall be able to give them the usual amount of reading.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday July 16th.—Present Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson. J Frank Wilson, guardian to Jos. S. Clark, passed his guardian account for the year ending June 30, 1878, which was examined and ordered to be recorded.

MR. JOHN R. KING, book-keeper with Klipper, Webster & Co., Baltimore, had been troubled with Constipation and its resulting ill effects for six or seven years, when he gave Keller's Vegetable Life Drops a trial and experienced immediate relief, PICNIC.—The pupils of the Protestant Episcopal Sunday School of this town, attended by their officers, teachers, parents and friends, spent a very pleasant day, last Tuesday, in a picnic, in the woods of Mr. Thomas Baker, near the school house, a short distance from Chestertown.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Mr. Barton, of Queen Anne's occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church in this town, last Sunday morning.

Rev. W. H. Hutchin is spending a short time at Rehoboth, attending the camp meeting.

T. W. Fliason, Jr., Esq., is recreating at Rehoboth.

Rev. Walter R. Graham is spending a few days in Chestertown.

IMPORTANT TO PEACH GROWERS.—It is announced that Mr. Barnard has finished his budding for this fall's sales and will commence again in two weeks to bud for planting in fall of 1879.

Is it not advisable for those intending to plant then, to make selections of the kinds they desire, and forward soon, so they can be budded.

THE COLUMBIA brought a large excursion from Port Deposit and Havre de Grace to Chestertown last Wednesday, arriving about 5 o'clock and leaving near 7. The party, generally, appeared to be thirsty, (probably from being cooped up on the boat ever since eight o'clock in the morning without anything to drink,) and a regular stampede for drinking houses and hotels was at once made. Making good use of the opportunity, in a short time a large number were gloriously drunk. Altogether, it was rather a rough party.

EXCURION TO BALTIMORE AND DRUID HILL PARK.—To-morrow, the M. P. Sunday School of this place will make an excursion to Baltimore and Druid Hill Park. Four-horse coaches will connect with the boat at Light st. wharf and convey the excursionists through the city to the Park, and after giving several hours for the enjoyment of its delightful shades, and for viewing its grand scenery and curiosities, will return to the boat. This ride to and through the Park is alone worth the cost of the excursion, but a trip across the bay on the splendid steamer Ford, and opportunity to spend several hours in the city, will no doubt be equally enjoyed. An additional charge for coach tickets of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under 12 years, will be made, in order to assist in defraying the heavy cost of charter of these vehicles. Those intending to go through to the Park must purchase the additional coach ticket before the steamer leaves the wharf in Chestertown. This should be borne in mind.

TICKETS $1 for adults; 50c. for children under 12 years. Coach tickets 25c. for adults; 15c. for children. All should provide themselves with tickets to-day (Tuesday).

DROWNING OF MASTER ALONZO DECATUR MING.—Upon our return, from Baltimore, last Thursday evening, the 18th inst., our ears, as we stepped from the B. S. Ford, were painfully greeted with the sad intelligence of the death of Alonzo D. Ming, the only son of Mr. Alonzo Ming, one of our enterprising merchants and much respected citizens. The deceased was born 18th December 1867, and consequently was in the flower of boyhood and of an age that interests all persons and is particularly promising to the eyes of such fond parents as he had. It appears that about four o'clock that afternoon, he and several young companions, went bathing in Chester river from an old hulk lying upon the shore of the residence of Dr. George T. Perkins, above the bridge, near Chestertown. Young Ming, though unable to swim, boldly plunged into the water, much beyond his depth, calling to his companions to save him in case of necessity. His little friends exerted their utmost strength and ability to rescue him, but without success. The alarm was given, and after the elapse of an hour, the body was recovered from the bottom of the river, near the spot where the fatal leap was taken. The feelings of our community were deeply moved by this tragic occurrence and the parents of the deceased have received the full sympathy of our citizens.

THE EXCURSION TO CAPE MAY, by the Odd Fellows of Chestertown, last Wednesday, was a very successful affair. The run on the cars, to Bombay Hook, was delightful, and enjoyed by all—in fact, it alone was well worth the sum charged for the entire trip. At the pier, however, a not very pleasant surprise was experienced, for instead of a large side-wheeler, the "Artisan" was found to be a propeller, and not the largest of that style of boat, either. For a little while things looked squally—the captain of the boat protesting that he could not take so large a party, and the excursionists, generally, giving vent to their disappointment in expressions quite forcible if not very elegant. But the party soon embarked, notwithstanding, and the vessel turned her prow down the bay, encountering a strong flood tide all the way. Inspection revealed the "Artisan" to be a stauch boat, built for sea-going, with a freight deck below and a well furnished saloon, with state-rooms, above. The speed of the boat was excellent, the run occupying but a few minutes more than the time made by the large side-wheelers used on the two former excursions by the Odd Fellows, and, a party of half the size would have been well accommodated. However, the discomforts interfered but slightly with the enjoyment of the trip on the part of a great majority of the passengers, either going or returning. About five hours time was allowed at Cape May for bathing and sight-seeing. The train arrived here, on the return, about midnight. With the exception of the inconvenience occasioned by a crowded boat, the excursion was a delightful one. The party numbered upwards of four hundred persons.

MR. JOHN NEEDLES, a very aged gentleman, known to most of our old citizens, died suddenly, on Thursday last, at the residence of Mr. James L. Bowers, near I. U. He was in his 91st year. The Baltimore Sun, of Friday, says—Mr. Needles came to Baltimore from the Eastern Shore while a lad, and learned the trade of cabinetmaker, combining it with that of undertaker. He used to say that he buried the first white woman born in Baltimore. Some twenty-five or thirty years ago he retired from business and since then has lived with his children. It was Mr. Needles who purchased the type and printing material for Benjamin Lundy when he founded his paper the "Genius of Universal Emancipation." Mr. Needles was a member of the Society of Friends and one of its ministers. Years ago he traveled extensively through Pennsylvania and Ohio with other ministers in the interests of the society. He leaves a wife, his third, and eight children, three sons and five daughters, all of whom are living, two in Philadelphia, one in Wilmington, two at Sandy Springs, Montgomery county, and three in Baltimore, one of whom, John A Needles, is a dry goods merchant on Charles street. The remains of Mr. Needles will be brough to Baltimore to-day. Mr Needles took a deep interest in all humanitarian projects, and was especially interested in the Prisoners' Aid Association.

PERSONAL.—Mr. G. E. Barker, a gentlemen well known in Baltimore, and whose residence is at Ashland square, has been troubled personally, and in his family, with those distressingly painful complaints—Neuralgia, Sore Throat and Rheumatism. He writes: "I can unhesitatingly testify to the remarkable efficiency of Keller's Roman Liniment in relieving and curing these diseases." Nothing equals it as an instantaneous pain extractor and healer.

Second District Letter.

Business is unusually dull at this time, with the prospect of it being no better for some time to come. The almost total failure of the peach crop is one of the chief causes. Farmers are buying no more than they actually need. People may talk as they please about peaches being a humbug—the failure this year will depress business more in this county than anything else that could have happened. Peach money is generally spent in a free and easy way. All branches of business receive a share. The grain crop pays for phosphates, machinery, wages, &c., while the peach crop pays the merchant, mechanic, physician, &c.

It is wisdom in our people not having a camp meeting this year. Camp meetings have done good in their time, but there is too much of a frolic made out of them now-a-days, by the young and thoughtless.

The colored people intend holding a camp near Still Pond, which will prove a nuisance. Laboring men that shout all night, cannot work the next day. It is strange that they don't hold their meetings during the winter, when farmers are idle.

There is some talk of a Bush Meeting in Clark's woods, near Still Pond creek. The flies will be apt to break up the meeting.

A company has been formed to procure huckleberries from the forest, near Massey's. A number of gentlemen seem anxious to go to that benighted region to get berries, and also to try and enlighten the people.

Evening excursions (once a week) from Georgetown to Tolchester, are contemplated. A few hours on the bay would be fine for invalids and sick babies.

The Phosphate question is being agitated at present. Nearly every one believes that wheat cannot be successfully grown without it.

A few gentlemen have concluded to buy the ingredients and manufacture about one hundred tons of phosphate for their own use. They think they can save about fifteen dollars per ton by manufacturing their own. They propose to use genuine bone instead of the South Carolina rock, which is said to be worthless. The low price of grain will compel farmers to manufacture their own phosphate, or stop using it. We doubt whether there is a phosphate in the market that costs over twenty-three dollars per ton. Yet we pay from thirty to fifty dollars for what we use.

The slug worm is appearing again on pear trees. The Hellebore will have to be applied again or the leaves will be destroyed, and there will be no pears next year.

Early Rose Potatoes are yielding remarkably well. Late potatoes are looking fine. We hear very little complaint about the Colorado bug. No doubt it is dying out, and in a few years will have disappeared.

Mr. Barnard is through with June budding. His trees are making fine growth. He has budded the genuine Hale's Early peach, and it is the best early peach that grows. The genuine Hale's rot but very little. There is a peach called Hale's, (that nearly every one has planted,) that rots badly, and is worthless.

The mercury is only one hundred to-day in the shade. The indications are for dry weather. Stacking and threshing wheat is the farmer's work at present. Corn wants more work. Oats are going to be light—the hot weather killed them.

The hot weather has not stopped our boys from playing base ball.

We have heard nothing from the Dashaway's lately; suppose they have adjourned until cooler nights come. Our beloved pastors are still preaching the word to sinners. They prefer the present heat to that hereafter.

White perch and crabs are getting plentiful. Time is money to us—we cannot go fishing, crabbing, or sit on the green and chat the hot hours away. Our sport is hard work and nursing the children. My bachelor friends would like the latter.

William West, an old sailor, died yesterday, at Betterton. West has sailed over many waters during his lifetime, and could tell his share of the stories of the sea. He died of too much water after all—general dropsy.

TAX COLLECTOR'S NOTICE
For the Fourth District,
Of Kent County.

THE undersigned, duly appointed and qualified Collector for the Fourth District of Kent county, hereby gives notice to the tax-payers of said district that the Assessment Books and Levy List for said District are now in his hands. He is therefore ready to receive and receipt for taxes. Tax-payers will do well for themselves to pay at an early date, saving thereby five per cent. on State taxes if paid by the first of August; four per cent. if paid by the first of September; three per cent. if paid by the first of November. By a late decision of the Harford County Court, it appears that taxes are due, with interest, from the day the assessment books are in the hands of the collector; he has, therefore, no discretion in the manner of collecting, but is obliged by the law and his oath under the law, to collect the taxes according to law, if not paid voluntarily at an early date. The largest property-holders, under that rule, will be the first to be made subject to a course of law. The undersigned can be found at the Court House in Chestertown, or his residence on Queen street.

FROM the above named date the business of THOMAS S. WICKES will be conducted under the Firm name of WICKES & BROTHER,

Mr. William N. E. Wickes resuming the position of senior and managing Partner of the concern, which he formerly held as its Founder.

In placing in older and more experienced hands the controlling influence over a mercantile establishment now in the thirty fourth year of its existence, with two exceptions older than any ever known to the history of this town, THOMAS S. WICKES desires to assure the very many of the very best people of this community, of both sexes, of his keen appreciation of the kind partiality and confidence received at their hands during the past twelve years.

He believes himself warranted in assuring them that freed from the harrassing anxieties incident to complete ownership and responsibility, he will be able in resuming his old position of "Junior" and devoting all his energies catering to the honest wants of honest people, to make the old establishment with which he has been so long identified, quite as desirable and attractive to the business classes of this community as it ever was at any former period in its career.

A Talk With Fruit Growers.

I HAVE now growing, on my farm, a fine seedling Peach Nursery, (from the seed of the Smock,) of over 200,000 trees.

Being from Smock seed, and growing on land that never grew trees before, they must prove especially hardy and prolific.

I shall bud 50,000 (commencing June 15th) for this Fall's planting; such trees will run from 3 to 4 feet in height.

I shall bud the balance in August, for planting the following fall. As most all planters have preference for special varieties, I propose to take orders, before the budding is done, customers furnishing their own buds if they prefer; so that all may be accommodated. Do not fail to give this matter proper consideration, and send in your orders early. By so doing you can secure just the varieties you want; but if delayed till you are ready to plant, nurserymen may not have the kinds you prefer. I will give instructions how to forward buds, upon inquiry.

I HAVE A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF ALL KINDS OF NURSERY STOCK.

Twenty years' experience as an extensive Fruit Grower and Nurseryman, certainly entitles me to a reasonable share of patronage on this peninsula.
