Chestertown Transcript.
THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1881.

Go to Cape May on the 27th.

The July Term of Court was held on last Monday. Judge Wickes was away. Judge Stump presided.

Remember that the excursion starts at 6 A. M. from Chestertown next Wednesday. Don't get left. This early starting gives an hour longer at Cape May.

Father Ryan, the Poet Priest of the South, will lecture in Chestertown next month. Those who wish to hear something nice should not fail to attend his lecture.

A Proclamation by the Governor, calling attention to the proposed amendment to the constitution, with regard to the election of Judges, will be found advertised elsewhere.

Teachers' Examination.—Elsewhere will be found advertised a notice to those desiring to obtain certificates to teach in Kent county. The examination takes place Tuesday August the second.

Kent County, Maryland, (says Colonel H. C. Douglas, of Smyrna, the leading grain merchant of the Peninsula, in a communication to the Wilmington Morning News,) has the honor of being the finest wheat-growing county on the Peninsula; next comes Talbot county.

Don't Forget the excursion to Cape May on the 27th.

Sale of Real Estate.—C. H. Baker, Esq., trustee, advertises for sale elsewhere, what is known as the home farm of the late Thomas Baker, situated on the road leading into Quaker Neck, and about two miles from Chestertown. The farm is a very desirable one.

To be Built.—The feasibility of building a choir-room to the remodeled Protestant Episcopal church of Chestertown, has for some time been held under consideration. It has recently been determined to build the choir-room immediately, and work has been commenced upon it. The church is now rapidly approaching completion.

Baltimore Grain Market.—Wednesdays' quotations.—The movement in Southern Wheat is active, and the market is strong, with prices tending in sellers' favor. The business includes steamboat parcels at 1 22a$1 25 from wharf, and sail lots at 1 23a$1 25 for Fultz and 1 25a$1 28 for long-berry. Southern white Corn in lots at 61a62 cents, and yellow is nominal at 57½a58 cents.

The Kent Agricultural Association have issued their catalogue of the Eleventh Annual Fair to be held next September. The purses for the races aggregate $1200. The premiums offered aside from the races, aggregate over $1100. The Association is in every respect in a healthy condition. Though not as pretentious as some other Peninsular associations, there are none whose affairs are in better condition.

The Mosquito has arrived in Chestertown. There is not many of him, and he never becomes as plentiful with us, as with some of our Peninsular neighbors. But one mosquito, when he has fully determined to pasture for a night on a sleeper's nose, can create more internal and external profanity, than forty million of mosquitos that are content to live in the swamp and get their living out of the huckleberry crop.

Grandest of the Season—The excursion to Cape May on the 27th.

Excursion to Tolchester.—Elsewhere will be found an excursion advertised for Tolchester, on Friday, July 29th, from Georgetown and other points on Sassafras river. This excursion is for the benefit of Sunday schools, and will be found to offer rare inducements to those who wish to take their families out for a day of pleasure. Children under ten years of age are taken free, and children over ten years are charged only twenty-five cents.

Personal.—Rev. T. H. Haynes of the Methodist Episcopal church, was confined to his bed during the first part of the week, but is up and about again.

Mr. C. H. Baker preached at the M. E. church Sunday morning, and Presiding Elder Martindale at night.

Rev. W. J. Neepier, of the Methodist Protestant church, was called away to officiate at the re-opening of a church in Virginia last Sunday. His congregation worshipped at the Methodist Episcopal church.

A Whale in Chester River.—We understand that Captain Rockwell saw a whale in Chester river one day last week. Captain Rockwell has fished for whales in his time, and therefore knows a whale when he sees it. The whale seen last week was off the Cliffs, nearly opposite the mouth of Corsica creek. It was among a school of porpoises, which seemed to be making warfare against it. A whale in our waters is a rarity, though not without precedent. Some twenty-five or thirty years ago, a small whale was grounded and killed in Corsica creek, and was cut up and manufactured into oil.

Installation of Officers.—Amicable Lodge I. O. O. F. of Chestertown, has elected and installed the following new officers:

S. P. G.—John Bordley;
N. G.—William M. Slay;
V. G.—Nathan Lieberman;
Secretary—E. C. Reiche;
Treasurer—James W. Chapman;
Chaplain—S. C. Roberts;
R. S. to N. G.—Walter H. Beck;
L. S. to N. G.—Joseph W. Thompson;
R. S. to V. G.—William J. Spicer;
L. S. to V. G.—S. S. Hepbron;
Conductor—Colin F. Stam;
Warden—William T. Sutton;
I. G.—William S. McDonnel;
O. G.—John W. Carroll;
R. S. S.—Thomas S. Bordley;
L. S. S.—A. J. Fiddis;
Representative to Grand Lodge—S. C. Roberts.

The Lodge numbers nearly 90 members in good standing.

July the 27th will be in the midst of the Cape May season. Those who go may anticipate a splendid time.

A Steer Loose.—A young steer, brought into town yesterday morning by a cattle buyer, got the rope from off his horns, and made matters lively for his tormentors. Before he landed in Chestertown he seems to have made up his mind that the fun was not all going to be on the other side. While coming over the Chester river bridge, he made direct for an innocent crabber, and came near landing him into the river. When he got into town, and in front of Hall's hotel, the rope came off his horns and he made a playful dash for Samuel Hazleton. Samuel got on the North side of a post about four seconds earlier than the steer's horns reached the South side. Chester Wilmer, another brave soldier, got behind a tree-box, and gave a great deal of good advice. In the mean time the steer dashed here and there, and his horns several times came within a few inches of the seat of some matadore's trousers, as the aforesaid matadore made his escape behind a tree. A rope was finally got over his horns, and he was persuaded to walk into a stable.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, July 19, 1881.—present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

On application of Mary Ruth and others, Letters of Administration D. B. N. on the personal estate of Robert Ruth, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted and committed unto Marion deK. Smith, who filed his bond in the sum of $1500, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Richard C. Johnson, executor of Hannah T. Corbaley, returned the inventory and appraisement of the real and personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Cornelius J. Scott filed an exemplified copy of the last Will and Testament of John W. Pearson, late of Wilmington, Del., deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

On application, Letters Testamentary on the personal estate of John W. Pearson, late of Wilmington, Del., were granted and committed unto Cornelius J. Scott, who filed his bond in the sum of $2200, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Cornelius J. Scott, administrator of James C. Hartt, returned account of sales of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Thomas W. Wickes, late guardian to Margaret S. Wethered, filed his release from said ward, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

William G. Trew, guardian to Henry Brown and William T. Brown, returned his guardian account for said wards from July 1, 1880, to July 1, 1881, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Queen Anne's Items.—The Observer denies that there is any case of small-pox in Centreville, as had been reported.

A. Randolph Weedon and B. Palmer Keating, Esqs., sold last Saturday as trustees, the two Kent Island farms which have been advertised in the TRANSCRIPT. The Western Bay farm was purchased by Mr. Wm. P. Tanner at $30 per acre, aggregating $5,100. Kent Point was purchased by James F. Cray, at $22 per acre, aggregating $3,850.

On the same day Messrs. T. J. & B. P. Keating sold the Elfred Price farm, located on Kent Island, to Alex. C. Lowery for $36 per acre, aggregating $10,887.

Wm. N. Watts, residing near Vandyke's station, was run over by a horse-rake, on July the 2d. His foot was dislocated and two of the leaders cut by the machinery. He has suffered very severely and doubts are entertained of his recovery.

Cape May July 27th.—Be sure to go. July the 27th is a desirable time for an excursion. The air is fine and the water is fine.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

POLITICS QUIET—GEN. REED'S GRAVE—CONCERT—WHEAT YIELD—DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING—FISHING SEASON AT BETTERTON, ETC., ETC.

During the hot weather too great caution in eating and drinking cannot be exercised. A vegetable diet should be avoided as far as possible.

The universal expression of sympathy for President Garfield is a sufficient guarantee that we are a united people, and that party prejudice is fast giving way to common sense.

It is said that if a man wants a wife now-a-days he must reform his habits and join church. In addition to this, the girls ought to require a bond for future good behavior; then there wouldn't be so many husbands going back on their religious vows.

We have never known county politics so quiet. The politicians are on a still hunt, and somebody is going to get fooled.

In walking through I. U. cemetery the grave of General Philip Reed was pointed out to us. There it is without a stone. If the State will not erect a suitable stone to his memory the county should.

The concert given by the Robinson family at Union M. E. church recently, was very entertaining. The following duetts and solos were well rendered: "A B C Lesson," "The Cows are in the Corn," "Old Gentleman's Courtship," "Mocking Bird," "Who's to Blame," "Matrimonial Sweets." Prof. Robinson has his little ones well trained. About $27 was realized.

Wheat is yielding from seven to thirty bushels per acre. The average will not be twelve bushels. Lands recently limed are giving the best yields. Fultz is doing better than red wheat, and a larger acreage will be seeded in it this fall.

The thunder storm last Wednesday evening was very severe here. The lightning struck a stack-yard belonging to Messrs. Polk and Pennington, (Howell's Point) and destroyed about 400 bushels of wheat.

Of the early varieties of peaches that are being marketed the "Rivers" is commanding the highest price.

The ladies of the Kennedyville Presbyterian church, netted about sixty dollars from their festival.

The fishing season at Betterton has opened. The boarding houses have quite a number of guests. White perch are biting at Grove Point. One boat brought in thirty-seven dozen the other day. Crabs are very scarce.

Barnard's wharf is the favorite bathing resort. Bathing suits are furnished on the shore.

Mr. Frank Woodside is visiting Lynch's.

Mr. Jerry Miller has bought one hundred acres of land of Mr. John A. Miller and is going to build a dwelling and barn right away.

With regret we chronicle the death of Mr. George Diehl, one of Worton's worthy and enterprising citizens.

The delicious Wild Goose Plum is ripening. They are very fine this year, and are selling in market at the rate of ten dollars per bushel. They are one of the most profitable fruits grown.

If a suitable dwelling can be obtained, a hotel and livery stable will be opened in Still Pond next New-Year. It is something much needed.

July 18, 1881.

Lippincott's Magazine.—Lippincott's Magazine for August is a capital number for midsummer reading. The illustrated articles are "A Glimpse of the Cumberland Border," the first of two papers, descriptive and anecdotical by Miss Rose Kingsley, daughter of the late Canon Kingsley; "The Home of the Giant Squid," by C. F. Holder, which is a nautical piece, with the breeziness of the ocean and the flavor of salt spray; and the continuation of Dr. Oswald's excellent and entertaining series on "Zoological Curiosities." "New Ground," by S. M. A. Collins, is a graphic sketch of labor and field-life on a Tennessee tobacco plantation. "The Pension Office" and "New York's Fresh-Air Fund" are timely papers, full of noteworthy details; "On the Wrong River," by C. F. Johnson, Jr., is the narrative of an exciting adventure in the Adirondacks; and "House keeping in North Carolina" is a bit of personal domestic experience. "Captain Put's Novel," by Susan B. Long, and "Santa Lucia," by J. D. J. Kelley, are effective and well-constructed stories. "Craque-o'-Doom" is brought to a conclusion, and is to be followed by a new serial, by Sherwood Bonner, which will begin in the September number and run to the close of the year.

ALTHOUGH the Hebrews could not make bricks for the Egyptians without straw, yet in this country we can put up a neat fire-proof chimney without bricks in a few hours. You can examine the drawing in another column.

GOOD LOGIC.—A word to those who neglect to avail themselves of the business opportunities we offer. For nearly thirty days we have largely supplied the retail demand for Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing in this city and State satisfactorily. The class of clothing we make is too fine for dealers in small towns to keep and is much better than is generally found in large cities. If you want a good article at the lowest possible price call upon C. N. OEHM & SON, Pratt and Hanover streets, Baltimore.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special Inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisemen to be found elsewhere this issue.
