Chestertown Transcript.
THURSDAY, DEC. 1, 1881.

Eggs and Butter scarce, high priced, and eagerly sought after.

Another steam freight boat now plies between Chestertown and Baltimore.

Thanksgiving turkey was eaten in Kent in peaceful thankfulness. So it is presumed at least.

The Nellie White has not been substituted for the Pilot Boy. The mistake was made by the postal card of the steamboat men.

Steamer L. G. Cannon leaves Chestertown, on Thursdays, at 2 p. m., instead of 3 o'clock as heretofore.

Want to Compromise.—The South Carolina claimants to the Round Top and other tracts of land near Chestertown, want to effect a compromise with the present holders.

All the thieves that have been thriving in the neighborhood of Galena, are not yet in jail. Last Saturday night a fat porker was stolen from Col. George W. Spencer. He has also lost recently two valuable woolen carriage blankets.

Corner Stone Laying.—The corner stone of the new M. E. Church to be built at Locust Grove, will be laid next Thursday the 8th day of December. Ceremonies will commence at 2 o'clock P. M. Revs. T. E. Martindale, Dr. Caldwell and J. B. Merritt will take part in the ceremonies. The public are invited to be present.

Correction.—The Transcript has been informed that it was mistaken in reporting Mr. Crosby as saying before the Teachers' Association, that $50 per quarter is enough for lady teachers anyhow. Mr. Crosby measures six feet two inches in height, and weighs two hundred pounds, and if the Transcript made any mistake with regard to what he said, it takes it back right away.

An Exchange throws out the idea, that although the dog days have departed, the dog nights are just beginning. This is the season of the year when the outside dog is filled with lonesomeness, and in the deep melancholy of his soul he sits in the back yard and howls all night. In spite of boot-jacks, hair brushes, old shoes and multiplied profanity, he insists on adhering to his mournful howl.

A Badly Cut Head.—William Diehl, living with Mr. J. Welch Crew, near Trappe, drove into Chestertown last Tuesday evening in a light sulky. Opposite Mr. T. R. Hubbard's new house the horse took fright, and ran one of the wheels of the sulky into something. The driver was thrown out, and the back of his head striking on a brick or a stone, was badly cut. He went to Toulson's drug store where his wound was dressed.

Baltimore Grain Market—Tuesday's Quotations.—Southern Wheat is dull, and a portion of the supply is held over. Sales of Fultz at 1 30a$1 35 for fair to prime and $1 37 for fancy, and of long-berry at 1 40 to $1 45 for good to choice. Southern Corn is arriving more freely and the market for dry samples is fairly active; sales of new white at 64a65 cents for damp, 66 cents for dry, and old and new mixed at 66a67½ cents, and new yellow at 67 cents for dry.

Chestertown, Md., has now three brass bands, and our brother of the Transcript invites us down there to spend a week, and have our savage breast soothed with some "Sweet by and by," and soforth. We should be too utterly glad to go, for they make the best oyster pie on the shore, at Chestertown, but we will have to linger along with one brass band till the happy excursion time comes once again. It's a mighty long walk to Chestertown.—Middletown Transcript.

For the Holiday Season.—Mr. C. M. Lucas has just returned from New York with an assortment of the latest and most fashionable designs in Jewelry, consisting of gold and silver watches, ear-rings, breast-pins, lace-pins, plain rings, set rings, sleeve buttons, studs, bracelets, chains, lockets, &c., &c. Also, Rogers & Bro's. silver ware, embracing many beautiful and useful articles suitable for wedding and Christmas presents. Mr. Lucas's stock is so large and varied that purchasers can scarcely fail in finding articles to suit their tastes and means; and everything is guaranteed to be as represented and to be sold at city prices. Be sure to call and examine his stock. He thinks you will be pleased.

Personal.—Dr. Jacobs, of Kennedyville, has suffered another relapse, and is now lying quite ill.

Mr. L. C. Justis, of Kennedyville, who has recently passed through a severe illness, is looking fresh and strong again. He talks, however, of going to Florida this winter for fear that in our changeable climate he may suffer a second attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Sarah J. Pasquelle Carroll, the wife of the late J. W. Carroll the distinguished actor, who was a native of this town, has been in Chestertown during the past week attending to business connected with her husband's estate. Mr. Carroll we understand has left considerable property, most of which however, was located in New York.

Shot Dead—A Sad Thanksgiving Accident—Last thanksgiving day was marked by the distressing though accidental shooting of Isaac M. Sheppard by Edwin W. Spear. Sheppard was from Crumpton, this county, and Spear was from Queen Anne's county near Millington. The shooting took place on the ducking shore of S. G. Meredith, Hale's Point, Eastern Neck Island. The following particulars we clip from the News:

"Dr. F. N. Sheppard, of Crumpton, a brother of the deceased, had been gunning on the Point during the day, but left for home shortly before the accident occurred. We learn from Capt. Jos. W. Thompson, of this town, who was on the Point at the time but did not witness the shooting, that, the tide having gone down, both of the parties started from the blind to take in the decoys, Sheppard being a few yards obliquely in advance of Spear, the latter carrying his gun under his arm, which, from some unaccountable cause, went off, the whole load passing entirely through the stomach of the deceased. He exclaimed "Oh! Ned," and expired immediately. The body was removed to the house of Mr. Meredith, and an undertaker from Crumpton went down early the next morning to bring it home. He leaves a widow but no children.

Hale's Point is the greatest ducking resort in this county, and it is visited every winter by nearly all our sportsmen in that line. There is a small house on the Point fitted up especially for the accommodation of gunners, and in many cases persons remain there for a week or longer. This is the first fatal accident, however, that has happened at that place."

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, November 29, 1881.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Richard Hynson filed the last Will and Testament of Jacob Highley, late of Kent county, deceased, which was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

Sarah Jane Pasquelle Carroll, filed a certified copy of the last Will and Testament of John W. Carroll, late of New York city, deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Charles H. Baker, administrator of Stonewall J. Baker, returned his first and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Marion deK. Smith, administrator D. B. N. of Robert Ruth, filed his release from Annie Smyth, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Letters of Administration on the personal estate of John H. Taylor, were granted and committed unto Robert E. Taylor, who filed his bond in the sum of $300, which was approved and ordered to be recorded, and Isaac Duyer and John Dougherty were appointed to appraise the personal estate of said deceased.

This Will Pay.—We consult the best good of our readers in recommending them to now secure the valuable and important information and most interesting reading matter, including a thousand or more of pleasing and instructive engravings and sketches, that can be obtained at trifling expense in the American Agriculturist. This is not merely a farm and garden Journal, but is very useful to every housekeeper and to every household in village or country. It has an entertaining and useful department for the little ones. It is a journal that pays to take and read. Try it, and, our word for it, you will not be disappointed. Its constant, persistent exposures of humbugs and swindling schemes are worth far more than the cost of the paper. The 41st annual volume begins January 1, but those subscribing now for 1882 get the rest of this year free. Terms: 1.50 a year; four copies $5 (English or German edition); single copy, 15 cents.

N. B.—Those desiring can get an extra or double specimen number post free for 10 cents, by addressing the Publishers, Orange Judd Co., 751 Broadway, New York.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The following summary of school statistics, for the year ending June 30th, 1881, may not be entirely uninteresting to your readers:

The number of teachers employed during the school year were fifty-six white and nineteen colored—total, seventy-five.

The whole number of pupils attending the schools, 3,882; of these 2,434 were white and and 1,448 colored.

The average attendance for the year was 1050 white, and 395 colored—total, 1445.

Number of pupils over sixteen years of age, 141 white, 211 colored—total, 352.

Number of pupils on roll the fall term 1578; average attendance 863; winter term 1908, average 962; spring term 2012, average attendance 1193; summer term 1832, average 1180.

In the month of June a general examination of the pupils of the white schools was held, on printed questions prepared by the Examiner.

Peninsula News.

Middletown, Del., has been having spiritualistic performances.

The population of Middletown, Del., has increased 50 per cent. in the last ten years.

The Republicans of Somerset celebrated their victory with a barbecue and oyster roast.

Two shooters of Gumboro, Sussex county, Del., killed 119 quails in one day.

Three Eastern Shore editors go to the next legislature. Two from Cambridge, one from Easton.

Dorchester county needs a new almshouse and a new jail. Kent is in exactly the same situation.

A company expects to start a fertilizer factory in Cambridge, with a capital of from $15,000 to $20,000.

The cost of the November session of the Circuit Court for Dorchester county, was $1,039.06. There was a light run of business.

An association for the propagation of carp is to be organized in Delaware. It is to be a private corporation, but expects State aid.

Mrs. Ex-Gov. Thomas, of Easton, who has been on a visit to Europe, returned home a few days since.

Mary Long, colored, aged 72 years, of Cambridge, Md., fell into the fire Tuesday, whilst in a fit, and was burned to death.

The St. Michaels Comet turns its attention from the destruction of the oyster, to the destruction of the ale wife.

The down the country papers are blowing Dr. George W. Bishop, of Worcester, for the presidency of the State Senate.

Centreville is not only to have a telegraph line, but is to be blessed with two passenger trains daily.

Mr. Lemuel Dunbracco has been appointed first assistant under Dr. Samuel C. Dudley, the new clerk for Queen Anne's.

Strawberries, raspberries, peaches, cherries, —almost all kinds of fruits were reported in numerous instances, the past season, as producing second crops.

The temperance drink of Caroline is apple jack. The Caroliners step over the border into Delaware and buy it fresh from the still for $2.50 per gallon.

One sad circumstance attending the removal of the Middletown Transcript into new quarters is that it will have hereafter to burn its own coal. It can no longer conveniently send its devil over the back fence to hook coal from the bin of the Middletown National bank.

Some false statistics of the Wilmington M. E. Conference have been going the rounds. Presiding Elder Martindale corrects the statement with the following substitute:

Membership, 28,796; pays her pastors $68,343.00; to Presiding Elders, $5,315.01; to Bishops, $655.00. Total, $74,013.01. This is an average of nearly $3 a year to each member.

Mr. Samuel Peacock, of Middletown has a large and interesting collection of old and rare coins, including two from Pompeii, probably about 1800 years old, some of the reign of Constantine I, A. D., 306-37, and several of the reign of Lucinius I, A. D., 263 323 and one of the reign of Probus, A. D., 276-82. Mr. Peacock has also a large collection of modern foreign coins. His collection in all, embracing silver coins, numbers 386 pieces.

The Salisbury correspondent of the Wilmington Morning News gives the following particulars of a homicide that occurred in Wicomico county;

Winder Culver, from the northern end of Wicomico county, and formerly a resident of Delmar, Sussex county, Delaware, went out gunning on Friday. He went upon the land of Francis Hatton, below Quantico. Hatton has always been averse to sportsmen, and the appearance of Culver, gunning unbidden on his property, irritated him and he ordered him off. Culver refused. Hatton insisted, and Culver being a very passionate man, became angry. Hatton endeavored to force his unwelcome visitor, when the latter struck him a severe blow on the head with his gun. Hatton fell to the ground with his skull crushed. The assailant, who is quite a young man, immediately fled. Hatton was picked up and taken home. He did not recover consciousness, but lingered until Saturday, when he died. The blow struck by Culver was so severe that the stock of the gun was broken. The dead man has always been known as peaceable, while his murderer bears an unenviable reputation.

A retailer of the spirituous, not far from Seaford, down in Sussex county, Del., can neither read nor write, but yet he will sell a drink on credit and charge it. The Index says:

The other day a gentleman called to settle his bill, when the said dealer in spirits took down a blank book and turned the leaves over until he came to his customer's account. Knowing that the liquor dealer could not write, the customer was anxious to find out how he kept his accounts, and upon looking at the page, he saw a picture of himself with a spade, a bucket, and a block and fall, which being interpreted means a well digger. For every drink the well digger had gone in debt the liquor dealer had made a straight mark opposite the picture. His curiosity being aroused the customer asked if he could examine the book a little closer, which was granted. On the next page was the picture of a man pouring corn into a hopper; there was kept the miller's account in straight marks. In another place was a man with a pencil and a square—the carpenter, and still further on was the account of a man who drinks on the sly, making believe that he goes into the whiskey shop to see the time of day (when the real object is a drink') the picture of a man with a clock under his arm.

LIME PAINT.

It is good for Frame Houses, outside being Water Proof

The attention of Housekeepers, Farmers and others is called to the above Useful and Valuable Preparation for Whitewashing and Sanitary Purposes. It costs less in comparison than Common Whitewash, or the unslacked lime, and its durability and beauty are two-fold greater. It never loses its strength. It can be kept for years. When applied, it forms a surface as smooth as calsomine, without glue or plaster. It can be used conveniently and economically in making Mortar, Finishing Insides, and for all purposes in which sand and lime are employed. We solicit a trial. We refer to the Knickerbocker Ice Co., and others. Sold at wholesale, by the barrel, and in smaller packages, at the Manufactory.

COAL HODS, SHOVELS and POKERS, At J. K. ALDRIDGE'S

NEW YORK SUN FOR 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for all, but and little, mean and gracious, contented and happy, Republican and Democratic depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. THE SUN's light is for mankind and womankind of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

THE SUN of 1868 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of THE SUN. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important journal already existing has been modified and bettered by the force of THE SUN's example.

THE SUN of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with THE SUN. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or in Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of THE SUN's political course.

THE WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of unequal merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence complete THE WEEKLY SUN, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

Who does not know and read and like THE SUNDAY SUN, each number of which is a Golconda of interesting literature, with the best poets of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little?

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for THE SUN.

Our terms are as follows:

For the daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.
