Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, DEC. 22, 1881.

The Fair at the Church of the Sacred Heart is yet open.

We wish a merry Christmas to our readers young and old.

The very mild weather is beginning to cause fears of a failure in the ice crop in this section.

Mr. William Gale shot an eagle last week, that measured seven feet from tip to tip of wings.

Christmas almost here! another year almost gone! It don't take the years long to go when we leave our 'teens.

Wm. J. Sennett, living over in Queen Anne's not far from Chestertown, let two of his cows die of thirst last week, by neglecting to water them.

Poultry Thieves.—A gentleman living near Chestertown informs us that on Monday night last he lost eighteen turkeys by theft. He had a large flock, but depredations from time to time, recently, have made considerable inroads on it.

Personal.—Mr. T. W. Eliason, jr., who has been ill for several weeks, is improving.

Mr. S. W. Aldridge, who was struck by the negro Brooks, is slowly getting better.

Dr. J. K. H. Jacobs is also improving.

Large Business Failure.—The firm of R. W. L. Rasin & Co., fertilizer manufacturers, of Baltimore, has failed, its liabilities being for considerably more than $100,000. This company was more extensively engaged in the manufacture of commercial fertilizers than any other firm in the country. R. W. L. Rasin, the head of the firm, is a native of Kent county.

A Success.—The Fair held in the Town Hall by the ladies of the Methodist Protestant Church which closed last Saturday night, was a decided success, about one hundred and fifty dollars net being realized. Everything passed off very pleasantly, and the ladies are to be congratulated on the good management and taste displayed in all its departments.

An Entertainment, consisting of singing, recitations, dialogues, &c., will be given by the pupils of Chestertown public school, beginning at 10 o'clock, to-morrow (Friday) morning. Heretofore, their Christmas closing exercises have been very enjoyable, and we have no doubt this entertainment will be fully as good as any that have preceded it. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Christmas Beef.—We noticed the other day in passing the stall of Mr. Jas. Brice, our oldest established butcher, an array of choice cuts of roast and sirloin that would almost make the mouth of an epicure water; and all around were hanging quarters of remarkably fine beef. It is a fact, we believe, that the citizens of Chestertown are getting better beef for less money than can be had elsewhere on the peninsula.

The P. E. Church will be opened for services next Sunday,—Christmas day. There are only a few more finishing touches before the inside will be complete.

The interior of the church is very handsome. The stained glass windows shed a pleasant light within, and the carpet, the pews and the chandeliers are all evidences of good taste. The pews in the new room, will not present the crowded appearance of the old pews, but have the appearance of being well spaced and comfortable.

A Knowing Dog.—Mr. Thomas M. Pinkind, who teaches in Broad Neck, has a neighbor near his school, in the person of an old dog. During most of the day, this old dog remains at home and attends to his own affairs. There is a certain time, however, at which he invariably visits the school house. This is when the bell rings to call in from the noon recess. He has learned by experience that bones and scraps are plentiful at that time, and as soon as the bell rings he unfailingly starts to look up his share of the meal that has just been finished. Is the old dog's acquired knowledge a matter of instinct?

A Flourishing Literary Society has been organized, to meet Friday evenings, at the school house where Mr. Milton Melvin teaches. Most of the young men of the neighborhood are members. The exercises comprise essays and discussions of some given subject. A lively meeting was held last Friday evening, at which the question was discussed, "Resolved, that the execution of Charles I. was justifiable." Mr. Milton Melvin and Mr. McRea took the affirmative of the question, and Mr. McGee and Mr. Bevins Morris the negative. The question was decided in the negative.

Baltimore Grain Market—Tuesday's Quotations.—Southern Wheat was easy and lower, closing dull. The range of sales was at 1 30a $1 38 for Fultz and 1 40a1 42 for long-berry. No. 1 Maryland red sold at $1 43½ regular, $1 48 in Baltimore and Ohio and $1 45 in Canton elevator. The arrivals of Southern Corn are more liberal, and the market is dull and lower. Mixed and off white sold at 65½a65¾ cts., and prime dry cargoes at 66a67 cts., closing at 66 cents. Prime dry yellow sold at 67 cts., and a few small lots at 68 cents.

New Steamer.—The Chester River Steamboat Company has given an order to the Harlan & Hollingsworth Co., of Wilmington, Del., for the construction of a new iron steamer for the route. The new steamer will be handsomely fitted up for passengers, having not less than 40 first class staterooms, and a commodious and elegantly furnished saloon. She will be a propeller, the length of the Law, capable of making eleven miles an hour, and carrying from six to seven thousands bushels of grain and as many boxes of peaches. The contractors have stipulated to have the new boat ready the first of May, 1882.

Prof. Rivers' Lecture.—Not a large audience, but a pretty fair turn out, considering the distance to be tramped between the town and college, was present on last Friday evening to listen to the address of Professor Rivers before the college literary society, upon the subject,—"Should we abandon our faith because science appears to be in conflict with it." Professor Rivers is in manner, a very pleasant, unaffected speaker. He dealt with the scientific side of his question in a liberal spirit. He argued that science as established by fact, does not conflict with faith in revelation. That mere theoretic opinion in scientific investigation is continually changing, and continually liable to change. He adduced the evidence of design in nature as the proof of a designer. He summed up by stating as his belief, that if science were free from all error, and revelation were properly understood, there would be perfect harmony be the two.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, December 20th, 1881.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

F. Hyson Dill, executor of Chas. G. Wood, filed his release from George W. Dill and Faustina Dill, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

The last Will and Testament of James Gore was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

Wm. N. E. Wickes, administrator of John Dayer, returned his first administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

The last Will and Testament of John R. Beck was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

Richard Hynson, administrator D. B. N. C. T. A. of Samuel Clark, returned his third and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Richard Hynson, Administrator of Louis B. Vanhorn, returned his second and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

On application, letters testamentary on the personal estate of John R. Beck, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted and committed unto Hannah A. A. Beck, (widow of said deceased) who filed her bond in the sum of $3,000 which was approved and ordered to be recorded; and John B. Parrott and Joseph Clinton were appointed to appraise the personal estate of said deceased.

Samuel Davis, guardian to Hyland T. Jones, returned his final guardian account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Samuel Davis, guardian to Hyland T. Jones, filed his release from said ward, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

The court adjourned to Tuesday, January 3, 1882.

CHRISTMAS IN CHESTERTOWN.

A Peep at the Inside Arrangements of our Advertisers.

A Transcript reporter started out one bright morning to see what Chestertown could turn out to make Christmas a sure enough Christmas. He found show windows and display counters overflowing. No young man need tramp off to the city to find a handsome present for his sweetheart. No young lady can fail to find exactly what she wants in way of a present to the nice young man who has been helping her to wear out the parlor sofa. The first place our bashful reporter dropped in at was

MRS. GILL'S.

We are sorry that we cannot do justice to Mrs. Gill's stock, because we hardly know the difference between a French puff and a pink ribbon. In fact we don't know whether or not there really is such a thing as a French puff. Maybe it is French rolls that has led us crooked. Any way, Mrs. Gill has a fine stock of kid gloves, hats, bonnets, neckwear, ladies' shoes, together with dolls and other Christmas toys that will please the little girls.

T. W. WICKES

Comes next on the trip toward the river. His show windows are full of beautiful things, and his show cases inside also shine out in Christmas splendor. He has a large variety of goods specially bought for Christmas trade.

W. H. LAMBERT AND CO.

Have dissolved partnership, but Mr. W. H. Lambert will be found at the present stand till the first of January, where he will be pleased to sell Christmas provisions and Christmas groceries.

J. K. ALDRIDGE

Has a stock that covers almost everything to be asked for in the hardware line. A Christmas gift can be found anywhere between a pocket knife and a cook stove. Any young man who would like to carry a pistol around in his trowsers pocket, can be accommodated with a seven shooter, costing from $1 up to $6, according to quality.

H. A. SPARKS

Has given a special eye to the Christmas trade. Tropical fruits and all sorts of confectioneries, together with toys for boys and girls, and nice things for grownup people.

T. W. ELIASON, JR.,

Though kept away from his place of business by illness, is represented by polite clerks, and is prepared to supply to the Christmas trade dry goods, groceries, lumber, building materials, and other substantials in his line.

W. H. LAMBERT, OF HENRY,

Has opened a new store just below T. W. Eliason's, jr., where he has a fresh stock of groceries, dry goods, cigars and tobacco. He wants to be counted in by the public this Christmas time.

C. M. LUCAS

The "High Street Jeweler," blandly smiles on all visitors. He has got a handsome stock of goods that come in as the right sort for Christmas gifts. Watches, handsome chains, jewel cases, silver ware, clocks, &c., &c.

E. W. F. SIMPERS

Opens up right opposite the crossing from Stam's drug store. He is the man who is ready and willing to furnish out a good Christmas dinner. He can furnish the cranberries to go with the turkey and maybe the turkey, together with canned tomatoes, corn, hominy and other things indispensable for a Christmas dinner.

T. L. HINES AND CO.

Is our last house on the right hand side going down toward the river. A substantial Christmas present could easily be picked out of his large and varied stock of hardware. There is not much sentiment in a cook stove, but a cook stove is a good thing to have around. If the good wife should wake up Christmas morning, and find a cook stove in her stocking, she would undoubtedly be much tickled.

T. D. PIERCE

Is the first man we strike after crossing over and again making our way up High street. A big flag flies from his upstairs window, and an image of Old Kriss presides below. He has almost everything to be mentioned in the boot and shoe line, and can please all sorts of people. He prides himself upon his reasonable prices, and will be pleased to receive a Christmas call.

J. BELL

Has laid in a large stock of choice family groceries, foreign fruits, confectionery, &c., especially adapted to the Christmas season.

L. K. STAM

Has a store full from bottom to top. He has laid in a stock that is specially adapted to the wants of the Christmas trade. Picture frames, handsome lamps, wall papers window shades, easy chairs, furniture sets, and a great variety of other things. Hobby horses, velocipedes and other things for the young folks.

C. F. STAM,

On the corner, has his windows filled, and show cases and counters on the inside spread with beautiful wares. A large glass case of silver-plated ware is especially handsome. Another glass case that contains jewelry and dressing cases, is also very beautiful. Picture books for little folks, by the hundred, and other books in great variety. The purchaser cannot fail to find a nice Christmas present.

W. REGISTER

Our tombstone artist, deals in a line of goods that can hardly be said, under any circumstances, to be suitable for the Christmas trade.

W. HUDGINS

On Cross street, is, however, very extensively in the Christmas line. In fact, no man in the county has a more lively appreciation of Christmas than Mr. Hudgins. He lays in a special stock of cake, fruits, nuts, confectionery, toys and other Christmas wares, and has for the past week been endeavoring to meet Christmas half way, by placing images of Kriss and his wife in front of his establishment.

CHAPMAN AND LAMBERT

Who have their factory on Cross street, are prepared to put up a Christmas carriage in good style, or to build a Christmas ox-cart.

WM. PERKINS

At his Rising Sun Saloon, can furnish on short notice a good Christmas dinner or supper, and is always ready with a prime oyster fry.

B. F. FLEMING

Is ready to supply coal and wood to run a Christmas cook stove, and to furnish lime for land on short notice.

T. H. HORSEY

Of Galena, is one of our advertisers, and though we have had no opportunity of inspecting Mr. Horsey's Christmas preparations, we feel assured that he has in stock many things that will prove suitable as a Christmas present. A call at his Galena store would soon determine the matter.

THE TRAVELING PUBLIC

Are doubtless interested at Christmas time in the steamboat and railroad schedules. We refer them to the schedules for information.

OUT OF COUNTY ADVERTISERS.

We have a large number of advertisers outside the county, whose wares we have not been able to inspect personally. Wanamaker & Brown, of Philadelphia, have an establishment at 13th and Market streets, that has not its like in the whole world. Oehm & Son, Pratt street Baltimore, can accommodate any who are in need of a good suit of clothes, as can also the Excelsior clothing house, and Likes, Berwanger & Co. Messrs. Hamilton Easter & Sons should receive a call from such of our lady visitors as make a Christmas trip to Baltimore. The patent medicine men are crowded out for want of space.

Peninsula News.

Diptheria is raging in the lower part of Cecil county.

An Elkton man has painted the roof of his house a bright green.

An Elkton druggist has a caged rail bird, which he feeds entirely on oysters.

The December term of court for Cecil county met on Monday last and adjourned on Friday.

Dr. Mitchell, an Elkton druggist, has established a museum. The latest addition is a two-headed kitten.

A man in Milford, Del., has received an order from Philadelphia for 500 bushels of acorns. He can't fill it.

The grounds of the Conference Academy, at Dover, are being graded. The Delawarean says that the faculty for 1881—1882 is a good one.

Middletown, Del., has a flourishing literary society and a circulating library, both in a flourishing condition of health.

A man in Somerset has recently shipped several crates of second crop strawberries, which sold in New York at $1.25 per quart.

A Bridgeville, Del., man fell from a housetop and struck on his head. Strange to say his head stood the test without injury, but he was jarred internally.

James Bentor, a pious shouting colored man of the Milford neighborhood, in a moment of holy fervor, a few days since, cracked his voice and threw one shoulder out of place.

Birds are so thick in Sussex county, Del., that one gunner shot six without getting over a fence. And yet Delaware has a game association that is seeking to increase the yield by planting new birds.

This Peninsula is represented in Congress by three congressmen, and they come from three adjoining counties,—Sussex county, Del., Worcester county, Maryland, and Accomac county, Virginia. They are Messrs Martin, Covington, and Garretson.

It is getting to be a peninsula rage to see how much can be written on a postal card. A Dover Academy boy has succeeded in writing on a postal a communication of 1799 words. An Elkton man tops this feat by writing a communication of 2800 words on a a postal, to his brother.

The Middletown, Del., Transcript received more than a dozen letters in one week, from New Englanders, making inquiry concerning Middletown and vicinity, with the design of settling where the climate is milder, and where there is favorable inducement for manufacturing industries.

A Cecil county man has read up so thoroughly the testimony in the Guiteau trial, that a Cecil county magistrate considered him an insanity expert, and admitted his testimony as such in an assault and battery case. On his testimony the magistrate decided the prisoner to be an irresponsible crank, and gave a verdict of acquittal.

The Delaware Game Association have received 600 live quail from North Carolina for distribution. They expect to get about 3000 altogether. The object of the game association is to have the birds turned loose, and members of the association, and farmers who will give assurances of good faith can secure birds by applying at the office of George Churchman, the Secretary, on East Water street, Wilmington.

OLD REPUTATION—NEW IDEAS.—For thirty long years we have been satisfactorily clothing you and your sons, and we publicly promise to do all in our power to both deserve and retain your patronage by honest and genuine low prices. C. N. OEHM & SON, Hanover and Pratt streets, Baltimore.

RIGHT PRICES FOR HOLIDAY NOVELTIES.—In dealing with C. N. OEHM & SON, Pratt and Hanover streets, Baltimore, you deal directly with the Manufacturer and save on Clothing a Jobber's profit. Please remember this when in want of Boys', Men's or Children's Suits. But one price and one profit.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special Inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere this issue.

SOME FACTS FROM L. K. STAM.

The attention of the people of Kent county is called to the following facts:

1st.

L. K. STAM has now in stock a larger supply of goods in his line than has ever before been offered to the people of this county.

2d.

He is prepared to sell goods at Rock Bottom Prices.

3d.

He has five rooms, first, second and third story, and two back rooms, filled with goods. It will take up too much space to tell of all that he has in stock.

4th.

But he desires to call special attention to his large, handsome and varied lot of LAMPS, of numerous designs and prices. Parlor Lamps, Library Lamps, Kitchen Lamps.

5th.

He also desires to call special attention to his line of WINDOW SHADES AND CURTAINS. He has some of the handsomest and most fashionable designs to be found anywhere. He also can furnish some of the cheapest.

6th.

He has a very handsome line of WALL PAPERS, ranging in price all the way from 8 cents to 75 cents a piece. You can paper your house almost as cheap as you can whitewash it.

7th.

He has an unusually large stock of FURNITURE, PICTURE FRAMES, LOOKING GLASSES, PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES and other goods, of which no mention has been made in this advertisement.

8th.

He will be glad to see you at any time, and will be pleased to show you goods, even if you do not wish to buy.

LIME PAINT.

It is good for Frame Houses, outside being Water Proof

The attention of Housekeepers, Farmers and others is called to the above Useful and Valuable Preparation for Whitewashing and Sanitary Purpoes. It costs less in comparison than Common Whitewash, or the unslacked lime, and its durability and beauty are two-fold greater. It never loses its strength. It can be kept for years. When applied, it forms a surface as smooth as calsomine, without glue or plaster. It can be used conveniently and economically in making Mortar, Finishing Insides, and for all purposes in which sand and lime are employed. We solicit a trial. We refer to the Knickerbocker Ice Co., and others. Sold at wholesale, by the barrel, and in smaller packages, at the Manufactory.

NEW YORK SUN FOR 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for all, benand little, mean and gracious, contented and happy, Republican and Democratic depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. THE SUN'S light is for mankind and womankind of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

THE SUN of 1868 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of THE SUN. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important journal already existing has been modified and bettered by the force of THE SUN'S example.

THE SUN of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with THE SUN. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or in Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of THE SUN'S political course.

THE WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of unequal merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence complete THE WEEKLY SUN, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

Who does not know and read and like THE SUNDAY SUN, each number of which is a Golconda of interesting literature, with the best poets of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little?

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for THE SUN.

Our terms are as follows:

For the daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

DON'T BE DECEIVED!

Residents of this County,

By the bait some of the expensive stores put forth in their cunningly worded advertisements. They who use them have no real inducements to offer, and therefore resort to such measures to attract attention of buyers.

WE SAY TO YOU:

DO NOT ALLOW YOURSELVES TO BE DECEIVED!

The Season is Backward, and we have still an immense stock, one of the best and most attractive we have ever shown you, all of which we sell at than expensive stores will ask you.

We have a lot of separate PANTS——about 100.
" " " " SUITS —— " 40.
" " " " OVERCOATS—— " 60.

Which are Elegantly Made, Fashionably Cut and every way Reliable Goods, that we will dispose of at almost Cost.

AT COST! AT COST! AT COST!

TO CLOSE OUT.

OUR STOCK MUST MOVE FASTER, the GREAT REDUCTION at which we are offering it will make business boom. Reader, take advantage of it. We have only a short time to sell in, and we call especial attention of buyers, to our

ELEGANT GOODS, LATEST STYLES,

Extreme Low Prices and Guarantee Given to All Patrons.

You pay us only one profit, the manufacturers. You will be glad when you buy from us, if saving and getting value for your money pleases you.
