he logic of the position taken by Republican party in the recon-ction laws and the constitutionmendments adopted after the r is reversed entirely in the antihinese legislation. It shows that e negroes were not made citizens om any love of natural justice, but pon a mere calculation of partisan dvantages. In like manner the hinese bill was passed, not because he Republicans believe that the white labor of the country is en-itled to any protection from Mongolian competition, but because they believed it to be absolutely necessary in order to save the Pacific States to the party in the next Congress and at the next Presidential election.

But it is now very clear that many of the Republican leaders are heartily sick of what they contemptuously call the "negro experiment." This sentiment appeared very distinctly in the Chinese debate. Senator Jones of Nevada, who is known as one of the most trusted counsellors of the faction now in possession of the offices, was especially outspoken. He regards the negro race as being totally unfit for the control and management of institutions created by and for the white race; and when he came to denounce the Asiatic he logically and fairly enough included the African in the same category. The admission of the latter to the ballot box, where he holds the balance of power and gives government to the whole Union, was, in Senator Jones's opinion, an almost fatal and extremely foolish sentimental error, which he does not propose to repeat on ever so small a scale in the case of the Chinese.

It is not at all impossible that in the course of a very few years the freedmen and their descendants to whom the elective franchise was given to serve a Republican party purpose, will be compelled to look to the Democrats mainly for protection in the exercise of that privilege. Ignorant, innocent, confiding, notorious either servicency to the Grant idea; the same show and glitter at the White House, and the same contemptuous disregard of the cardinal principles of republican government. If Grant himself were President the impress of his individuality could scarcely be more broadly or more distinctly marked.

Mr. Arthur's purpose appears to be an enigma to some people. To us it is very plain. Evidently he has abandoned the hope of being President in 1884, if he ever entertained it, and is loyally seeking to promote the candidacy of Gen.
Grant. Otherwise, shrewd as he confessedly is, he would not go thus deliberately to work to destroy his own prospects by resurrecting politicians whose records are simply odious. On the hypothesis that he is seeking to aid Gen. Grant his course at once becomes intelligible and reasonable. Grant is not likely to be seriously injured by any of Arthur's acts while on the other hand the appointment of his followers to places will undoubtedly strengthen the stalwart column and improve his chances for 1884.

Those persons who imagine that Grant has relinquished the presidency deceive themselves. They leave out of reckoning that bull dog tenacity of purpose which sacrificed thousands of human lives on Southern battle fields. Grant will abandon his aspiration for a third term when he is dead and not before. The policy of the present administration is purely and simply a revival of Grantism, and there could not well be a sorrier sight.—Baltimore Gazette.

The Stalwart Cabinet.

The Stalwart Cabinet is now complete, and the country will carefully study the contrast between the Garfield and the Arthur constitutional advisers. The following is a complete list of the two Cabinets:

Garfield.	Arthur.
SECRETARY OF STATE.
James G. Blaine.	F. T. Frelinghuysen
SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
William Windom.	Charles J. Folger.
SECRETARY OF WAR.
Robert T. Lincoln.	Robert T. Lincoln.
SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.
William H. Hunt.	William E. Chandler.
SECRETARY OF INTERIOR.
Samuel J. Kirkwood.	Henry M. Teller.
ATTORNEY GENERAL.
Wayne MacVeagh.	Benj. Harris Brewster.
POSTMASTER GENERAL.
Thomas L. James.	Timothy O. Howe.

Of the Garfield Cabinet but one remains, and he remains because he bears the honored name of Lincoln and is one of the Stalwart Grant school. All of the Arthur Cabinet were earnest supporters of Grant excepting Chandler, who quarreled with Blaine nearly a year ago because Blaine did not force his confirmation as Solicitor General, and who has now all of an apostate's vindictiveness in support of Stalwart cause.

When President Garfield was assassinated the name of Stalwartism was a term of reproach, and none boasted of devotion to its odious spoils system that had nerved the murderer to his horrible work.
Now only the Stalwart is in favor with authority, and the Republican who dares to honor Garfield's memory or to assert political manhood, is ostracised as the foe of the ruling power of the party. Have the people changed, or are they waiting until their side of the issue can be heard at the polls?—Phila. Times.

THE unaccountable actions of a big, burly tramp caused a great fright to Mrs. James Cooper, living on the railroad near Glenfield, Pa.
She was alone in the house with her children, and seeing the man approach the house she locked the doors and secured the windows.
Thus repulsed the tramp walked to the track and laid his head on the rail quietly awaiting the coming of a train. The frightened lady thinks she lived a week or two, while watching the worthless man, who, however, as soon as he heard the whistle of a train, picked himself up and sauntered off chuckling at the joke.

MURDER WILL OUT.

A few years ago "August Flower" was discovered to be a certain cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. A few thin Dyspeptics made known to their friends how easily and quickly they had been cured by its use. The great merits of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER became heralded through the country by one sufferer and another, until without advertising, its sale became immense. Druggists in every town in the Canadas and United States are getting it.
No person suffered with a Sour Stomac, Sick Headache Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Low Spirits, etc., can take three doses without relief. Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

Year by year there seems to be a growing difficulty among peninsula farmers, in obtaining farm labor.
The supply at present, especially in busy seasons, is not equal to the demand.

There are several reasons for the increased difficulty in obtaining labor One reason is that the colored people are gradually gravitating to the cities. The African race love a show. They love to be where there is bustle and flash and gayety.
Hence the cities are gradually charming them away from the country. Life is more charming to the average "colored gentleman" as waiter in a big hotel, than as the holder of the plow or the driver of the ox cart. The "colored lady," too, is finding the city kitchen more attractive than the country kitchen.

of the county where he is engaged in business, of the amount of goods kept on hand at their principal season of sale, or the oath may be administered by a Justice of the Peace when the person wanting a License applies through an agent. If the latter course be adopted the following form will be deemed a sufficient compliance with the act:

Kent County, to wit:

the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for said county, personally appeared ——— ———, and declared session, 1858, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county, and made oath that the amount of stock of goods generally kept on hand by him (or by the concern in which he is engaged, in case it be a partnership,) at the principal season of sale, (or if the applicant has not previously engaged in such trade,) that the amount of goods which he intends to keep, &c., does not or will not exceed $———,

Sworn before ——— ———

If the oath be administered before a Justice of the Peace out of the county in which the application is made, there must be attached the cer-
