tively be so assessed, and the City Commissioner shall correct any mistake in such list, whenever he may be satisfied that any mistake has been made.

City Register to give notice that the assessment and explanatory plats are in his office, and that the parties affected are entitled to appeal.

Sec. 61 e. It shall be the duty of the City Register, within five days after the said proceedings shall have been deposited in his office, to notify all persons interested by an advertisement to be inserted once a week for four successive weeks, in two daily newspapers of the City, that the said assessment and explanatory plat or plats have been so placed in his office, and that the parties affected thereby are entitled to appeal therefrom by petition in writing to the Baltimore City Court.

City Commissioner to serve notices on parties assessed.

Sec. 61 f. It shall be the duty of the City Commissioner to serve written or printed notices on each and every party or parties assessed or taxed for the said grading, shelling, graveling, paving and kerbing, or for regrading, reshelling, regraveling, repaving or rekerbing of any street, lane or alley; provided, however, that the service of such notice shall not be so construed as to be one of the prerequisites to the collection of any assessment under any ordinance heretofore passed, or hereafter to be passed, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

Proviso.

Right of appeal.

Sec. 61 g. Any person or persons who may be dissatisfied with any assessment in which he or they are in any manner interested, may within thirty days after the return of the above mentioned duplicate lists of the property, and owners or reputed owners thereof liable to said tax or assessment by the City Commissioner to the City Register, appeal therefrom by petition to the Baltimore City Court, praying said court to review the same, and thereupon the proceedings shall be similar to those in the case of the trial of street appeals, and the said right shall be had to appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Relating to ordinances set aside and declared null and void.

Sec. 61 h. Whenever any ordinance, passed by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, providing for the grading, shelling, gravelling, paving, kerbing, regrading, reshelling, regravelling, repaving or rekerbing of any street, lane or alley in said City, shall, before any of the work has been done under the same, be set aside and declared null and void by any court of competent jurisdiction, to wit: the Baltimore City Court, or the Court of Appeals in the event of an appeal to that tribunal, or the same shall be repealed by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller immediately thereafter to draw his warrant on the Register, in favor of any and all such persons, or their legal representatives, who may have paid into the City Treasury any sum or sums of money on account thereof, which shall be forthwith paid out of any sums in the treasury not otherwise appropriated; the Comptroller shall likewise draw his warrant on the Register for the payment of all expenses which may have been incurred by virtue of any such ordinance, in carrying out the provisions thereof, for which the City may be liable under existing circumstances.
