JOB WORK.

Handbills, large and small, flyers, dodgers, letterheads, billheads, envelopes, cards, tags, programmes, and other kinds of job work will be done neatly and reasonably.

Correspondence upon matters of local interest desired. Anonymous communications will not be inserted.

It is desirable that communications be in by Saturday night if possible, and in any case not later than Monday night or Tuesday morning

—Next Wednesday is St. Valentine's day.

—February has given as some very promiscuous weather so far.

—A valuable mill property, located near Galena, is to be sold at Galena on Thursday of next week. See advertisement.

—There has been no new case of small-pox since our last issue, and there is none now in the town. All the cases at the hospital are convalescing.

—The dance given by the young men of Locust Grove and Galena, at the Galena town hall last week, was a very successful and very enjoyable affair. There were many charming ladies present, in fact we have it from reliable authority, that they were all charming.

—The M. E. Church, South, on Kent Circuit, will hold its quarterly meeting at Millington, on Saturday and Sunday next. The Presiding Elder, Mr. Hough, will preach at Millington in the morning, and at Chesterville at night. He will also preach in the church at Chesterville on Friday night, the 9th inst.

—The Rev. F. C. Kline, a missionary sent out by the Methodist Protestant Church to Yokahoma, Japan, preached at the M. P. Church, Chestertown, last Sunday evening to a packed audience. The reverned speaker was full of earnestness and enthusiasm in speaking of his life of banishment in the missionary cause.

—On Friday morning last, between four and five o'clock, a fire broke out in the second story of the store and dwelling of Mr. W. H. Schwatka at Crumpton. The flames issued forth furiously, and for a time it was feared the building would be destroyed, but by prompt and efficient help the fire was extinguished in about an hour's time. The damage was not very serious.

—Fred. Gerker, Esq., lessee of the Kent County Railroad, has bought of Mr. Thos. H. Whaland, of this town, his young bay horse "Monk," and has also perchased another young horse of the the same color from Mr. John B. Harris. Both of them are good trotters, and a handsome price was paid for each. They were shipped to Philadelphia on Thursday.

—Mr. John Brock, tenant on one of Mr. Wm. H. Pennell's farms, near Worton Station, was kicked on the right side of the face by one of his horses on Thursday, breaking the jaw-bone in three places and displacing a number of his teeth. Drs. Catlin and Merritt dressed the wound and left the patient in much pain, consequent upon his being unable to swallow. Dr. C. describes it as one of the most serious cases of the kind that has occurred in his practice.

—The old war-horse "Beauregard" died at "Chantilly," the farm of Capt. Wm. I. Rasin, in this county, on the 25th ult. He was ridden by Captain Rasin, his owner, at the surrender of Lee's army at Appomattox, and for years previous was owned by Lieut. C. Blackiston, of the Confederate cavalry. He was the last surviving war-horse in Maryland, and is well remembered by many who served in the Confederate army. "Beauregard" was 28 years old.

—Rt. Rev. Henry C. Lay, Bishop of Easton, was recently taken suddenly ill at Port Deposit, while attending a session of the northern convocation His illness was from an attack of heart disease, from which he suffered intensely. He was removed to Philadelphia, where he had professional treatment. After remaining in Philadelphia two days, he had so much improved as to be able to leave for Easton. He is reported by the Star of Tuesday to be much better, though far from well. His winter appointments have all been canceled.

—Two new steamboats that ply between Baltimore and Chestertown, are being furnished with enlarged accommodations. W. E. Woodall & Co. are enlarging the passenger accommodations of the steamer Corsica, of the Chester River Steamboat Company, by the addition of fifteen staterooms and lengthening of the main saloon. The steamer Enterprise, of the Enterprise Steamboat Company, is also receiving eight additional staterooms at the same yard. The B. S. Ford has left off for painting and freshening up. The Law is now filling the Ford's trips.

—The teachers of Kent county hold their quarterly association at the school room, in Chestertown, next Friday, commencing at ten o'clock A. M. The programme for discussion is as follows:

Unfinished Business—What subjects of Arithmetic ought to receive more attention than others, on account of practical use, or prominence in the development of the mental faculties?

Regular questions for discussion:

1st—How may we teach Literature in our schools in a general way?

2d—How can we relieve the monotony that may prevail during School hours?

Miss E. Ava Downes will read the Essay, and the Rev. W. W. Reese deliver the address.

—The new commissioners appointed to consider the matter of widening 'Crumpton Lane,' have determined to make the road fifty-four feet wide. When the work is accomplished, it will make a roadway similar to that leading from Galena to Georgetown, which thoroughfare is, perhaps, one of the widest and best in the county. As that broad roadway has enhanced the value of property through which it passes, and been of so much benefit to Georgetown, we can see no just reason why the same results may not follow in the further opening and widening of the present "Crumpton Lane." Crumpton is now a place of considerable shipping importance, and is yearly becoming more so. With its present increased shipping facilities, it is very important that the piece of road about to be widened should be duly ample to the still greater amount of travel which will in consequence follow.

—Orphans' Court, Tuesday, Feb. 6, 1883—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Wilson.

On application, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Martha Jane Walmsley, dec'd, were granted and committed unto C. Wright Dory, who filed his bond in the sum of $5,000, which was approved and ordered to be recorded; and Edward Slaughter and David Clements were appointed to appraise the estate.

On application, J. Frank Wilson was appointed guardian to Willis K. Hackett, who filed his bond in the sum of $5,000, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Jas. H. Plummer, guardian to Chas. E. Jackson, filed his release from said ward.

Mary Powderly was appointed guardian to Maggie, Jno. C., Annie, Ellen and Catharine J. Powderly, who filed her bond in the sum of $1000, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Wm. Stevens, adm'r of Peter Stokes, dec'd, returned his account of sales of the personal estate of said dec'd, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Chas. H. Baker, executor of Elijah Bond, deceased, filed the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said deceased.

Wm. H. Thompson and John B. Parrott, administrators of John Thompson, dec'd, returned their second and final administration accounts, which were examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Reversal of Judgement by Court of Appeals.

The Baltimore papers of last Thursday announced the decision of the Court of Appeals, reversing the decision of the Circuit Court of Kent county in the matter of the confirmation of the sale of the real estate of Joseph J. Webb, remanding the cause and ordering the costs to be paid out of the fund. The case was the sale of two farms belonging to Jos. J. Webb, located near Kennedyville, made in November, 1880, by George B. Westcott, Jr., under power in mortgage. Sold subject to an annuity of $400 during the life-time of Mr. Webb's mother, and also subject to annuity in arrear of about $2700. The farms were purchased by Wm. T. Hepbron and F. H. Harper for $11,125. T. S. Wickes, a creditor of Webb, filed exceptions to the sale. Testimony was taken on either side, and the case submitted to Judge Robinson in the fall of 1881, who sent the papers back to the commissioner for further testimony. Further testimony was taken, and Judge Robinson filed an opinion over-ruling and dismissing exceptions to the sale. An appeal was taken by T. S. Wickes and the case was argued before the Court of Appeals last December by Chas. T. Westcott and John B. Brown, Esqs., for the appellees, and James A. Pearce and Henry C. Kennard, Esqs., for the appellants. Judge Irving last week announced the opinion of the court reversing the decision upon the grounds of non-compliance with the forms in making the sales.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

The intermediate examination of the pupils of Chestertown public school was concluded Wednesday of last week, and after an address by the county examiner, the work of the different grades was announced by the principal—Prof. Fallowfield—and the reports distributed to the scholars. The following received a general average of 80 per cent. and over:

1st Seventh Grade—Maggie Wroth 90, Fannie Stuart 87, Lottie Russell 82, Lilla McFadden 81.

2-6th Grade—Lizzie Fowler 93, Laura Thomas 92, Elsie Stephens 91, Annie Leaverton 87, Wm. Russell 82.

1-6th Grade—Richard Usilton 83.

2-1st—Palmer Carroll 91, David Ford 88.

PENINSULA ITEMS.

Mr. Joseph Alexander Graham, editor and proprietor of the Salisbury Advertiser, was last week married to Miss Mary Virginia Williams.

The Easton Star has a new man as localizer, under whose touch the hitherto sedate journal grows positively frisky.

The Salisbury Advertiser in its last issue, gives to the public something that the public has hitherto rarely been blessed with,—a communication from a lost soul. This lost soul makes its revelation in rhyme, more or less bad, but at the same time quite blood-curdling.

A pair of Easton sports, according to the Easton Star, went after ducks. They killed a tame muscovy, a dog valued at $50, fired into a flock of decoys, and bought a pair of dippers. Their trip cost them $60 besides a large amount of worry.

The Directors of Denton National Bank have decided to erect a large and commodious banking house, on the corner of Main and Fourth streets. An architect is now preparing the plans for a building, which will be an imposing brick structure, and will be commenced in the course of a month or six weeks.

The Delaware Senate passed a bill authorizing the Governor to appoint an immigration commissioner, at $1,000 salary, whose duty it shall be to advertise the resources and advantages of Delaware and endeavor to turn a share of the immigration to that State.

John T. Hand, well known at one time as the editor of the Maryland Citizen, published at Centraville, died at his residence in Baltimore Tuesday night of last week. Mr. Hand was a practical printer, and served at one time on the Kent News. He was for some time post-master at Centreville, and shortly previous to his death held a position in the Baltimore Custom House.

A Caroline county teachers' association discussed the question, "What shall be done with a pupil that thinks he knows more than the teacher?" It might be a good idea to allow the teacher in the hypothesis to follow the honorable calling of spliting rails, while somebody else be put in his place as teacher whose qualifications would render it impossible that a pupil should think he knew more than the teacher.

Rev. E. L. Hoffecker writes in answer to the inquiry "where is the district on the Peninsula containing 500 square miles where no religious service of any kind is held?" as follows:

"Ten miles south east of Cambridge, you may find the said district. It was stated in the last quarterly conference of my church by the Rev. V. Creamer, a gentleman of sterling integrity, that the territory was ten miles wide and fifty miles long, and that no religious services of any kind by any denomination was held within its bounds."

Representative Bates has introduced into the Delaware legislature a bill providing for the enlargement of the membership of the legislature, and for re-apportionment between Delaware's three counties. The bill provides for 30 members of the House, to be composed of 7 members from each of Sussex and Kent counties and 16 members from New Castle; the Senate to be composed of 13, four from each of the lowerr counties and five from New Castle. The lower counties now have largely the voting majority and seem disposed to hold it, by not sustaining the bill.

Chas. Nichols, an eccentric and widely-known character, met with a horrible accident at Centreville, Tuesday of last week, which later resulted in his death. He was riding out of Centreville on a load of lumber: the wagoner stopped at the top of one of the steep hills which leads out of the town, to secure a chain to chain the wheels together. While he was gone, Nichols, who was drunk, began a noisy harangue. The horses became frightened and started, running the wagon into a gully, overturning and throwing the unfortunate man near the heels of one of the horses. The horses kicked him in the head, fracturing the skull, so that the brains oozed out. The wagon also passed over him. He rose to his feet, and walked up into the town, covered with blood, literally, from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, presenting a most horrible spectacle. He was taken to the county jail and medical skill did all that could be done for him. He lived till 9 o'clock Tuesday night.

A Washington correspondent says that Senator Saulsbury is not much of an orator, and those who know that fact will appreciate the following incident. At the head of a block of Delaware beauties he recently visited one of the government departments and called upon a distinguished official. One of the young ladies of the party, who is something of a gusher, came up to the d. o. and said: "Oh, I never expected that I would be able to meet so great a man and be able to talk to him face to face." She then rolled such a pair of blue eyes at the d. o. that he shivered along his revered spine to his distinguished heels with the electric shock, as the red blood of his boyhood stole up into his cheeks. Languidly the young giddy creature bent her gaze upon the statesman, who warmed under her look like a house cat before a cheerful blaze as she said: "Oh, tell me, great and good sir, who is the most eloquent orator in the Senate. I want your really, truly, honest opinion." The distinguished official was equal to the occasion. Stepping back, with a profound bow, in the direction of Senator Saulsbury, he said: "if you force me to it, I say that the peerless palm rests with Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware." The Delaware Senator bowed low with many a "Oh, dear, sir," not hearing in the sweet confusion of his pleasure the low satirical laugh of the cast-iron fire-dogs in the open fireplace.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

The Democratic party of Maryland cannot afford to be divided into factions any longer. The next election is one of importance. Upon its results hang the future of the party in this State. The course to be pursued is plain. New men and reform measures are what the people demand. To accomplish anything Messrs. Hamilton, Gorman and Whyte must go to the rear. While they dictate men and measures there will be contention. The nomination of men throughout the State who have never had office nor been allied to either faction will insure Democratic success next fall. Otherwise the scales may be turned. The people are tired of promises and thousands will vote with the opposite party, if their own party refuses to give them candidates they can trust. The Independent party in Baltimore is neither dead nor asleep.

The "wager" is destined to become the leading canning peach in this country. Its origin, Ontario Co. N. Y., yellow, freestone, size and time of ripening that of Crawfords late, Hardy and productive. Never has been injured by cold or frost. Bears full crops when all other varieties are winter killed. A seedling propogated only from seed.

Through the efforts of Messrs. Wroth & Clark, liberal donations of the substantials of life (meat, flour, &c.,) were made to the families of Alfred Briscoe and Wm. Smith last Thursday evening. Both families have suffered from sickness for some time.

Martin Suiser a German, aged 75 years, died at his home near Stanley, of consumption.

Thomas Copper and Mrs. John Norris are very sick at their homes near Lynch's.

Missionary Anniversary at Still Pond M. E. Church, next Sunday evening.

Wm. S. Busic is visiting friends in Ohio.

Norris Barnard is preparing to plant twenty acres in asparagus, this spring.

The citizens of this county should have a Mutual Aid Society.

In certain districts of France, farmers are vaccinating cattle and sheep by the thousand. The result is a reduction of the mortality among those animals of 65 per cent.

A steel-trap put on a pole in the stack-yard will catch all the hawks on the farm.

A few goats in every flock of sheep will keep dogs away. When the dog attacks the sheep, the goat begins to butt, and the dog flees for its life.

Milly Hance, aged 106 years, was vaccinated a few days ago.

Still Pond, Feb. 5, 1883.

BARRETT, NEPHEWS & CO., of 43 North Charles street, formerly No. 110 West Baltimore street, the old established dyeing house, is prepared to do all kinds of work in their line with neatness, cheapness and dispatch. In dress goods of all wool and also of cotton and wool, etc., their success is greatly superior to that of a year ago.

The firm lay aside every year a certain amount of their profit to buy the most improved machinery, and during their existence have expended over one half million of dollars in that department alone. This firm calls especial attention to the rapid advances made by them during the past few years in the art of dyeing.

It has been the desire and aim to present to their customers work perfect in every respect.

SOME CHRISTMAS FACTS!

FROM

LOUIS K. STAM

To Every Man, Woman or Child who reads this paper.

I wish to present a few facts I would like you to read carefully, and consider each fact well.

1st Fact—

I have the Largest and Most Complete Stock of FURNITURE on the peninsula, comprising Suits, Extension Tables, Lounges, Chairs, Bedsteads, Bureaus, Mattresses, and every thing needed in the Furniture line, supplied at very low prices, and delivered free of charge to your houses.

2d Fact—

I can sell you CARPETS of any quality at city prices.

3d Fact—

A great number of Brackets, Wall Pockets, Clock Shelves, Pictures, Picture Frames, Easels, &c., &c., selected with great care—will be sold very cheap.

4th Fact—

Regarding Lamp and Lamp Goods—Possibly not the largest stock, but as good an assortment as can be found elsewhere. Special mention is made here of the twenty-three candle power Lamp; and extraordinary mention is made of the wonderful sixty-candle power Lamp, which will be on exhibition every night. You are especially invited to call and see it.

5th Fact—

A beautiful line of French China Mustache Cups, Shaving Mugs, Chamber China Setts, &c.

6th Fact—

Handsome Rattan and Comfort Rocking Chairs, Carpet Chairs, Gentlemen's Office Chairs, and an immense stock of Children's Chairs, at low prices.

7th Fact—

Children's Express Wagons, Shoo-Flys, Sleds, Baby Carriages, &c., &c., at very low prices.

Remember you are each and every one expressly invited to call and examine my goods. You will be received politely, and above all things don't forget the location, just below C. F. Stam's Drug Store.

LOUIS K. STAM.

The Best Time

To buy Autumn and Winter Clothing at Oak Hall is at the first of the season, when the stock is full and before cold weather creates a rush of buyers. The woolen market is so short of good materials that the low prices with which we open will be the lowest of the season. One million dollars' worth of clothing and materials await your command. You are equally welcome for a $5 boys' suit or the most liberal custom order.

WANAMAKER & BROWN,

Oak Hall, Sixth and Market Sts.,

Philadelphia.

Eclectic Magazine

OF

Foreign Literature, Science and Art.

1883—39th YEAR.
