be entitled to receive licenses for said stalls for the year beginning May 1, 1896; provided, however, that any license assigned during the year between May 1, 1895, and May 1, 1896, shall be issued to the assignee thereof, and provided, further, that any license issued May 1, 1896, to any other person than hereinbefore mentioned shall be revoked.

Regulating to persons occupying any vacant stands or places.

Section 22. Any person bringing provisions or articles of any description not prohibited to the several markets for sale on market days, during market hours, shall be authorized to occupy any vacant permanent bench, movable stall, or any other stand or place (excepting butcher's stalls), on paying for the use of the city to the clerk or his assistant the sum of twenty-five cents for each day or part of a day he, she or they shall occupy the same; provided, however, that no person shall be permitted to occupy any stall, stand, or other place under this section for which a license has been issued, without the consent of the licensee; and provided, further, that the permission granted by this section shall not be construed to allow any meats or other cooked provisions of any kind whatever to be sold or exposed for sale on any permanent or eave bench in the Lexington Market, unless such permanent or eave bench be located as prescribed by ordinances.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Limits of Centre Market

Section 80. The limits of the Centre Market shall be as follows: Beginning with the kerbstone on the south side of Baltimore street and running southerly the whole width of Market Space to Pratt street, and from the east line of the space east with the Fish Market space and the width thereof to Jones Falls; also from the west line of the first named space, west on Second street with the kerbstones to Frederick street; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the rights and privileges of the occupier or occupiers of any of the houses on the spaces above-mentioned, or with the free passage of the foot-ways, and provided, also, that nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to authorize the placing of stalls, stands or benches on any foot-way.

Limits of Hanover Market.

Section 122. The Hanover Market shall include the market house, with the grounds in the centre thereof, the alleys to the northward and westward thereof, and also the whole width of Hanover street from Conway street to Lombard street, and also the whole width of Camden street from Charles street to the west side of Sharp street, and also the whole width of Sharp street from Conway street to Pratt street, and the whole width of Dover street from Hanover street to Sharp street, subject to the provisions regarding foot-ways prescribed in Section 80 of this article.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted and ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved August 3, 1896.

ALCAEUS HOOPER, Mayor.