Chestertown Transcript

THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1883.

Subscription $1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months, in advance.

Advertising Rates.

Transient advertising will be charged at the rate of one dollar per square for first three insertions, and twenty-five cents per square for each subsequent insertion. A space equal to eight lines of brevier, constitutes a square. Figure-work will be charged fifty cents per square additional for first three insertions.

Simple notices of marriages and deaths, inserted free. Obituary notices will be charged at the rate of five cents per line.

JOB WORK.

Handbills, large and small, flyers, dodgers, letterheads, billheads, envelopes, cards, tags, programmes, and other kinds of job work will be done neatly and reasonably.

Correspondence upon matters of local interest desired. Anonymous communications will not be inserted.

It is desirable that communications be in by Saturday night if possible, and in any case not later than Monday night or Tuesday morning.

—Remember the boys concert to-morrow evening. Go and encourage the boys.

—Decoration Day was observed in Chestertown by the parade of Sumner Post, (colored) G. R. R.

—C. H. Baker, Esq., as trustee, advertises a desirable small lot of land, containing 13 acres, situate in Broad Neck.

—On and after Monday, June the 11th, the B. S. Ford, of the Chester River line will make round trips, as will be seen by advertised schedule. The trips of the Corsica will remain unaltered.

—Mr. Jas. P. Carothers denies the report that he expects to return to Ireland. He says he expects to journey no further than a neighboring State, and that he expects to continue his residence in Kent.

—The excursion on the 8th will not stop at Bay Ridge, as the general desire seems to be to reach Annapolis at as early an hour as possible, and have all the time allotted for the enjoyment of the attractions at the Naval Academy, &c.

—The Washington College baseball club has sent a challenge to the St. John's College nine, and if the latter accepts, the game will be played at Annapolis on Friday, the 8th of June. The W. C. nine will go by the Nelly White excursion.

—The peach crop in Kent is difficult to guess at. Some growers say their crop is badly hurt, and that their yield will not be greater than one third of an average, others say their present prospect is for a full crop. Danger from frosts is past, but danger from the curculio is yet ahead.

—At the sale of Mr. Jas. P. Carothers, which comes off to-day, there will be offered six very superior road horses, well-bred, safe and fast. Also a number of valuable mares and farm horses. Any one who desires a valuable and rapid traveler should attend this sale. It is thought by many that Mr. Carothers' stock is above the average usually offered at public auction.

—Mr. Joseph Massey, who about a year ago built a carp pond on his farm, and turned loose some young carp, brought a sample to town last week to Mr. R. Hynson. He had grown to be a handsome fellow, and weighed one and three quarter lbs. We have not learned Mr. Hynson's verdict as to the flavor. Mr. Massey says that his pond is full of young carp, the offspring of those first put in.

—On next Tuesday, M. deK. Smith, Esq., as trustee will sell the valuable farming property known as Radcliff Hall. This estate has many features that make it very desirable. It is located within a mile of Chestertown, it has a river front, and is improved by a commodious dwelling and out-buildings. Undoubtedly it is one of the most desirable farms in the county. Fuller particulars are given in the advertisement.

—Young man, the strawberry begins to take on a roseate hue, and the season of church festivals, a season dear to all right thinking young men, is close at hand. The young lady upon whom you have set your affections adores ice cream. Don't you forget that young man. If she does not adore ice cream, we must say she is a very exceptional sort of a damsel. In any case young man, do your duty; take her to all the ice cream and strawberry festivals, and if she does not love ice cream, you have our sincerest congratulations.

—The real estate of the late Dr. Thos. C. Kennard was put up at public sale at the Voshell House on last Tuesday by the executors, Messrs. Henry C. Kennard and James A. Pearce. The farm known as the Webster farm, containing 142 acres, was purchased by Mr. Theodore Hayes, of Kennedyville, at $70 per acre, or a total of $9,940. The Rich Neck farm, containing 210 acres, and a small house with 1½ acres of land attached were sold to Mr. F. Boulden for $67 per acre, or a total of $14,170.50. The Home farm, containing 370 acres, was withdrawn at a bid of $55 per acre, and is held at private sale.

—The property located on High street, Chestertown, known as the Lassell property, which has consisted of a rickety old wooden building more than a hundred years old, and which has been a very disagreeable eye-sore to the business portion of Chestertown, is being torn out by Mr. Jas. Bradley, the owner. We are glad to state that Mr. Bradley is entertaining a proposition from Mr. B. H. Gardner to put up two three-story brick buildings, giving two handsome store-rooms, to be finished with plate glass fronts. From being an eye-sore, this property promises to become an ornament to the part of the town in which it is located.

—The boys of Chestertown are to have a concert and general entertainment at the house located on Water street, recently occupied by Capt. Ruth. The concert is to be on Friday and Saturday evenings, June the 1st and 2d. The entertainment will consist of a magic lantern exhibition, solo and duet songs, a flute solo, dialogues, jubilee songs and other interesting features. The boys want it understood that they are running this concert on business principles, that they will be glad to have the general public, grown-up people as well as young people, attend. Reserved seats are to be had for 15 cts.; general admission 10 cts.; children half price. Don't forget the evenings, and don't forget to go.

—Wm. Price, colored, employed by Mr. W. H. Kennard was brought to Chestertown by officer Jacoby, last Saturday, and Mr. Kennard appeared and swore before 'squire Wheatley that Price had made threats against him, and that he believed his life to be endangered. Price was committed to jail in default of $250 bail to keep the peace. There had been some misunderstanding between Mr. Kennard and Price, and on Sunday night the 20th inst., the former was awakened about twelve o'clock at night by some one attempting to get in the kitchen. He found it to be Price, and ordered him away, and fired his gun twice to frighten him away. Price said he only wanted his coat, and when a week later he again went to Mr. Kennard's, the dispute occurred and Price made threats which moved Mr. Kennard to have him arrested.

—Whiskey appeared to be uncommonly plentiful in Chestertown on last Sunday. Some parties came over from Centreville and together with some congenial spirits of Chestertown, got gloriously drunk. After the Centreville parties had left, some of the Chestertown revelers, from being boon companions got into a drunken quarrel, and afterward into a drunken fight, which lasted with some intercessions for more than an hour. In the fight, Henry Gosman had his head severely cut with a brick by Chas. Dill. Officers Simpson and Joiner arrested Chas. Dill, Henry Gosman and Edward Armstrong, and took them before 'Squire Wheatley, who committed them for a hearing next day. From the evidence it appeared that each party was about equally blamable for the beginning of the fight, but that Dill, after the first encounter, had looked the parties up and engaged in a second encounter. Dill was fined $25 and costs and Gosman and Armstrong each $10 and costs.

—The storage-room back of the drug store of Mr. T. W. Wickes, was broken into on last Sunday night, and a large quantity of whiskey, estimated by Mr. Wickes at 16 gallons, was taken from a barrel. Two small augur holes were bored in the barrel, and the whiskey was racked off. Mr. Wickes said nothing but kept a sharp lookout, and on Monday evening he saw Alfred Palmer, very drunk, wandering around his premises. He questioned Palmer, and Palmer told him that he had been drinking his whiskey all day, and that it had been taken by Chas. Hudgins and Chas. Phillips. Phillips and Hudgins overheard Palmer's story, and when he met them one of them cut his head severely with a hatchet. On information furnished by Palmer, Mr. Wickes had Hudgins and Phillips arrested. They were taken before 'Squire Wheatley and held for trial at court. It appears from Palmer's story, that the whiskey had been put in all kinds of bottles and hid in an ash pile. Whenever any one of the party wanted a drink, he dug up a bottle, and took a satisfactory pull.

—Orphans' Court, Tuesday, May 29, 1883—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Thos. B. Hadaway, administrator c.t.a. of John Hadaway, deceased, returned the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of the said deceased.

Richard Hynson, surviving administrator of Mary B. Needle, deceased, returned his second and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated and ordered to be recorded.

Jos. R. Usilton, guardian to Peter Taylor, returned his guardian account for the year 1882, which was examined, passed as stated and ordered to be recorded.

Clara C., and Jeremiah P. Wilson, administrators of Robert Wilson, (col.), deceased, returned their first and final administrators account, which was examined, passed as stated and ordered to be recorded.

PENINSULA ITEMS.

The "Guerrilla" base-ball club of Milford, Del., is open for challenges.

Wye camp-meeting is to begin July 31st, and to continue till August the 10th.

The Milford Advertiser says that soft crabs by the car load are now sent from the lower peninsula.

Lake, the Dorchester county negro who is to be hanged on the 29th of June, talks of his hanging serenely, and appears to be perfectly satisfied with the prospect before him.

The pine forests of Sussex county, Del., will most probably be sawed up within the next twenty years. There are twenty-six saw mills within a radius of twelve miles of Millsboro.

The O'Brien circus has refused an offer of $5,000 made on the part of the town of Dover as a compromise of his suit for damages, resulting from the attack made upon the show at that town.

The old Denton academy, built in 1840, was sold last week for $247. Hon. John M. Robinson, the Saulsburys, of Delaware, and Gen. Hardcastle, of Talbot, received their primary training at this school.

A man by name of Edmunds, of Canterbury, Del., lost both his forfune and his mind in attempts to invent a tricycle and a reliable fire escape. He is now in the insane department of the Kent county, Del., almshouse.

Miss Carrie Anderson, a teacher in the public school of Dover, Del., took up the study of stenography, learned it, and has secured a good position. Her success may give a hint to other young ladies who have to take care of themselves. A thorough stenographer can command a salary of from $1000 to $2000.

The Bourne estate, located near Greensboro, Caroline county, was sold last week. The whole estate, containing an aggregate of 1764 acres, brought only $49,600. The homestead, known as the Plains, which contains 759 acres, and had buildings on it which cost $75,000, sold for the very small sum of $25,100. It was purchased by Allen Thorndike Rice, the editor of the North American Review, and grandson of Mrs. Bourne.

A few days ago W. Jones, colored, living near Princess Anne, Somerset county, Md., assaulted Henry Hitch, alias Renshaw, also colored, with an axe, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The men lived in the same house, and their wives quarreled. Hitch ordered Jones and his wife to leave the house, and started to get the assistance of his employer, Mr. Wm. S. Fleming, when Jones attacked him.

THE EXCELSIOR CONCERT.

The Excelsior concert, which was held on last Thursday evening, drew a large audience to the hall over the Market House. The audience was fully appreciative, and every performance met with enthusiastic applause. The orchestra, which was composed largely of home talent, won the good opinion of the public by its skillful renderings. The performance opened with a grand march by the orchestra, following which Miss Etta Maddox sang in solo. She received a warm encore, and on her second appearance sang a ballad that brought down the house even more enthusiastically than at first. Mr. Frederick Sultan, the delightful young violinist, made his second appearance before a Chestertown audience, and fully sustained the good opinion he won on his former appearance. Miss Emma Maddox sang several duets, in company with Miss Etta Maddox, and again in solo. The concert, we understand, was under the management of Mr. J. W. Bordley. Taking the entertainment as a whole, we believe it gave great satisfaction to the audience, and Mr. Bordley should feel encouraged to try again.

THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The members elected on last Saturday to meet in Chestertown on Tuesday and consult as to the propriety of organizing a county Executive Committee, assembled at the court house, and the Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock by M. deK. Smith, Esq., and organized by appointing Nath'l W. Comegys, Esq., president and Hope H. Barroll secretary. Credentials were handed in from the various districts as follows: First, H. C. Hendrickson, C. O. Cacy, J. J. Spear, Wm. H. Pennington and B. P. Morgan; Second, Nath'l Comegys, Edward Slaughter, J. Horton Kelley, M. D., and P. G. Wilmer, with Sam'l Hill as delegate in place of J. Horton Kelley; Third, Sam'l Wallis, Adam Deihl, J. W. Wilson, Jas. Lewis and Jas. C. Roseberry, with Oliver Jervis in place of Jas. C. Roseberry; Fourth, Richard Hynson, James A. Shaw, S. H. Blackiston, John A. Groves and Stephen Lecates, with Jas. H. Plummer and Hope H. Barroll as delegates in place of Rich. Hynson and John A. Groves; Fifth, Lemuel Stevens, Earle R. Strong, Nathan Voshell, John Brice and Harry S. Francis.

Upon call of president as to object in calling the convention, Wm. H. Pennington stated that he thought his district was opposed to continuing the county executive committee, and asked for a vote as to the advisability of its continuance in existence; on a rising vote being taken 20 voted in favor of the appointing such a committee and 4 (from 1st. dist.) opposed. On motion by Sam'l W. Wallis the following committee composed of one from each district was appointed for the purpose of choosing a new county executive committee, and of defining the powers and duration thereof: Jas. H. Plummer, John Brice, Sam'l W. Wallis, J. J. Spear and P. G. Wilmer. After being out an hour or more the committee returned and offered the following resolutions:

Literary Notes.

With the June number, just issued, Eclectic completes another volume, and is provided with an Index, which shows more convincingly than the table of contents of a single number can do the rich variety of good things which this sterling and standard old magazine provides for its readers.

The Art Amateur for June contains the usual profusion of charming designs for china painting, including pansies for a plaque, cherry blossoms for a panel, honeysuckle for a vase and columbine for a dessert plate. Some South Kensington borders and a quaint chasuble ornament are provided for needleworkers; there are over twenty monograms, about forty designs for jewellers' use, and a page of capital borders from the Cincinnati School of Design to accompany the second of the lessons in "Wood Carving for Amateurs." Specially attractive articles are those on "Eretat," with eight pleasing illustrations by Henry Bacon, and on "John La Farge, Artist and Decorator," with illustrations of his work in mural painting and stained glass, the latter from the Vanderbilt house. Montague Marks, publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

THIN THINGS

We also have the Largest Line of Boys' and Children's Clothing for Summer wear ever shown.

A Separate Department for White and Fancy Vests, in which over 1,500 Styles are shown, from 35 cents to $5.00 in price.

We always excel in getting up Clothing for Summer wear, and we are proud of our magnificent assortment.

Furnishing Goods.

Our Furnishing Goods Department contains everything needed in a gentleman's wardrobe. No gentleman of taste who appreciates richness and elegance of fabric and style should miss seeing our stock. Remember, while this assortment is largely composed of the finest grades, we do not ask fancy figures on a single article. Our price will bear comparison with those usually asked for cheaper goods, while in quality and make-up they will be found immensely superior.

HATS and CAPS.

We have in our cases Hats from the most celebrated manufacturers in the United States, and we defy any Hat House in Baltimore to show finer goods or better styles. They will show you higher-priced Hats and you may think they are better because the Eight-toned Hatters tell you so, but they are not. Our display of Straw Hats cannot be equaled or our low prices beat.

CITY TRADE.

"Yes, sir, I am from the country; but I entertain a modest suspicion that I am sufficiently intelligent to know the difference between ancient and modern styles. What I want is a suit of clothes that was made some time during the present century." "Certainly," says the polite salesman addressed. "You can be accommodated, for you are now at the GREAT CLOTHING EMPORIUM OF C. N. OEHM & SON, where everything is made for the City Trade; consequently there can be no distinction in showing goods to our friends from the country. Here the Styles are set, and, as you see, there is nothing old to select from. All the Patterns new, novel and pleasing, and for Cut, Fit and Finish we are acknowledged without a rival. Your experience has evidently been among the expensive clothing houses, where they devote considerable time to window exhibitions and chromo distributions. With us there is no necessity for such devices. Our goods are all marked in plain figures, and our Prices always lower than any other house in the city."

Every Garment sold is guaranteed to be exactly as represented, or the money will be refunded by

From Henry Ward Beecher, July 14, 1881.—Your Peas are wonderful, none others so good, I do not mean to plant another year any others, early or late. They beat the Alpha in earliness and out of sight in flavor.

From Hon. Marshall P. Wilder, Pres. American Pomological Society, Ex-Pres. U. S. Agricultural Society, June 18, 1881.—My AMERICAN WONDER is a wonder, equal in sweetness and richness to the Champion of England, which is all that could be desired.
