The said portions of said street as directed to be condemned and closed being delineated and particularly shown on a plat which was filed in the office of the Commissioners for Opening Streets on the 9th day of July, 1917, and is now on file in the said office.

SECTION 2. And be it further ordained that the proceedings of said Commissioners for Opening Streets with reference to the condemnation and closing of said Mosher Street and the proceedings and rights of all parties interested or affected thereby shall be regulated by, and be in accordance with all such provisions of Article 4 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland as enacted by Chapter 123 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1898 (commonly known as the New Charter of Baltimore City) as may be applicable thereto as well as all amendments thereof, and also any other Acts of the said General Assembly of Maryland which may be applicable thereto, and also in accordance with any and all Ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore now in force and applicable thereto.

Approved January 11, 1918.

No. 318.

An ordinance to condemn and close Woodall Street, (formerly Allen Street), between the Northeast side of Wells (formerly Claggett) Street and the Southwest side of Clemm Street, in accordance with a Plat thereof filed in the Office of the Commissioners for Opening Streets on the 12th day of April, 1917, and now on file in said Office.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Commissioners for Opening Streets be, and they are hereby authorized and directed to condemn and close a portion of Woodall street (formerly Allen street), sixty-six feet wide, as opened under Ordinance No. 35, approved April 1, 1890; said portion being located between the northeast side of Wells (formerly Claggett) street and the southwest side of Clemm street; the land hereby directed to be condemned for said closing being described as follows:

Beginning for the same at the corner formed by the intersection of the northwest side of Woodall street, 66 feet wide, heretofore referred to, and the northeast side of Wells street, as now opened, 66 feet wide; thence binding on the northwest side of Woodall street, northeasterly 370 feet to the southwest side of Clemm street, 66 feet wide, as laid down on Poppleton's Plat; thence southeasterly binding on said southwest side of Clemm street, 66 feet, to the southeast side of Woodall street; thence southwesterly, binding on the southeast side of Woodall street 370 feet, to the northeast side of Wells street; thence binding on the northeast side of Wells street northwesterly 66 feet, to the place of beginning.

The courses in the above description are all referred to the true meridian of the City of Baltimore Topographical Survey Commission.

See plat of said street as proposed to be closed on file in the Office of the Commissioners for Opening Streets.
