Maryland Ss: In the name of God Amen: I, William Digges of Prince, Prince Georges County Gentl^n, being in perfect health, and of sound mind, memory, and understanding- thanks be to Almighty God- do make, and ordain this my last will and testament, in manner, and form following; revoking and making void all former wills, and testaments, by me made; committing my soul into the merciful arms of our blessed Redeemer Jesus Christ, by whose Merits I hope for Eternal Life in heaven.

Imprimis; I give and devise unto my dear, and loving wife Elenor Digges my Dwelling Plantation, Dwelling House, outhouse, orchard, and garden thereunto belonging for and during her natural life. I also give, and bequeath unto my said wife, the use of one fourth part of all my personal estate, for and during her natural life. upon condition that she claim no title, or interest of dower, or thirds of, in and to, any other of my lands, or personal estate; and after her decease, the said fourth part of my personal estate, to remain to, and be equally divided between my sons Ignatius, Nicholas, and my daughter Mary Digges.

Item: I give and devise unto my son Edward Digges, his heirs, and assigns forever, all that tract or parcel of land called Essex, adjoining unto a plantation of Francis Marbury, binding on Piscataway Run or creek; and also I give and bequeath unto my said son Edward Digges, the following negroes, viz; Anthony and Betty, his wife, Peter and Maria, his wife, and Bess, the said Maria's
