add greatly to the desire we have of participating in the pleasures and amusements prepared for the occasion. The enclosure from Mrs Lloyd will inform your Excellency, I have delivered one of your letters, & the one for Mrs Slater is already forwarded. The cards you were pleased to favour me with, in a very flattering compliment, and strict such disposition is made of them, as to lay many worthy citizens of Maryland under peculiar obligation, for your polite attention.

Permit me to present Mrs Lee's very united Compliments, and to beg your Excellency will do me the justice to believe that I am, with the most respectful attachment.
Your Excellency's Mo. Obed. Serv.

Ann Lee
