Thomas Sim Lee Esquire
Late Governor of the State of Maryl.

680

Sir

The faithful execution of the Trust reposed in you as first Magistrate of the State together with your ~~easy~~ genteel, and polite deportment towards all Ranks have given general satisfaction and justly claim our warmest acknowledgments.

Your close attention to the public welfare and your firm unshaken conduct in the time of greatest danger are proofs that the confidence of your Country has not been misplaced, and your strict regard to the requisitions of Congress and of the Commander in Chief, and the polite Treatment of the Officers of His most Christian Majesty has done honor to the State. Accept Sir.
