The Transcript.

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1884.

Subscription $1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months, in advance.

—The Louise now makes two trips each day between Baltimore and Tolchester.

—There is to be an excursion from Cambridge to Tolchester today, and one from Centreville on next Wednesday.

—Mr. W. B. Usilton, of the News, returned Saturday from the ten days' session the M. P. convention held in Baltimore.

—The ladies' meeting to organize a temperence union, will be held at the court house this evening. A number of addresses will be delivered.

—The Chester river draw at Chestertown has been thoroughly repaired of its recent damage, and is all right for the passage of vessels and vehicles.

—Misses Maggie R. Fowler, Georgia Porter and Ethel L. Stewart, of this county, were among the recent graduates of the Maryland State Normal School.

—Chestertown now has a mid-day mail from Baltimore, by the way of Tolchester. We get the daily papers by the new arrangement at 12.30, instead of 3 P. M.

—The ladies of St. Paul will hold a festival and supper on the church green on the afternoon and evening of next Thursday. Soft crabs and spring chicken will be items on the bill o' fare.

—The M. P. Church and Sunday school of Kennedyville, holds its festival on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of next week. The Kennedyville festivals are always pleasant affairs.

—There is said to have been frost several mornings during the cool snap of last week, and farmers complain that corn and vegetables were injured. No material damage to peaches has been observed.

—The Pauline Markham Company exhibited in Chestertown last week, performing "Our Boys" and "East Lynne." The character of the paternal Middlewick in "Our Boys" was very well sustained.

—Geo. Ingram sold recently at private sale to John W. Ireland, the Vansant farm, adjoining Mr. Ireland. The farm is said to be fine soil but unimproved. Contains about 200 acres. Price paid $7,500 cash.

—Mr. John W. Loud's declination to serve as tax collector for the 4th election district of this county, has been noted by a large number of our exchanges as an unusual occurrence. In these days it is very rare for a citizen to decline an office that has got money in it.

—The annual meeting of the Maryland Teachers' Association will be held at Ocean City, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 9th, 10th and 11th. The various railroad and steamboat companies have agreed to give the members reduced rates, and the hotels at Ocean City have agreed to reduce their rates.

—R. Hynson, Esq., as trustee, offered for sale at the Voshell house, on last Tuesday the farm belonging to the estate of the late Lewin Usilton, known as "Green Point." There was no bid on this farm, and it was withdrawn and is held for private sale. He also offered at the same time a small farm of 62 acres, located in Broad Neck, upon which was bid only $25 per acre. This was also withdrawn and is held at private sale.

—Capt. James L. Waddell, commander of the State fishery force, has preferred charges of drunkenness against Samuel G. Copper, chief mate of the oyster steamer Governor Hamilton. The charges will be investigated at the next meeting of the board of public works. Mate Copper was at Annapolis Monday. He states that he is ready for an investigation, and claims that the charges were brought because Capt. Waddell prefers another man for the place. On Saturday Mr. Copper received a notice from Commander Waddell informing him that he had been retired from service.

—The Chester River Steamboat Company has contracted with the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company of Wilmington, Del., for a new iron steamer in place of the burned B. S. Ford. The new boat is to be larger than the Ford, and is to be built with latest improvements in machinery, and will be in all parts handsomely finished. One particular in which the new boat will differ from the Ford, is that she will have a stairway to the upper deck saloon, front as well as aft. The new boat is expected to be ready for the route on or about the first of next October. The steamer Chester has been chartered, and will be put on the route next Monday the 9th inst. to supply the place of the Ford until the new boat is completed.

—A committee representing the Kent County Agricultural Association recently met a committee from the Delaware State Fair Association at Smyrna, and arranged a uniformity of entry list, so that horses entered at one fair would find the same class of races to enter at the next. The design of the meeting was to have an understanding between the three Peninsula fairs, but the Elkton fair was not represented. The Kent County association was represented by Messrs. Wm. P. Norris, T. J. Willis, W. W. Stephens, Joseph E. Gilpin, J. M. J. Byron, John Gale and Samuel Vannort. The Delaware State fair association, by E. Bailey, J. B. Wharton, W. G. Poatles and J. G. Smith. A satisfactory understanding between the Kent county and Dover fairs was reached, and the classes for race entries will be made this fall in unison.

—The young men of Chestertown organized a baseball nine on last Saturday evening, to be known as the Chestertown nine. S. T. Wickes was elected captain. The positions will be filled on the nine as follows: catcher, Lewin Wickes, pitcher, W. Barton, 1st base, R. Hynson Jr., 2d base, W. Pippin, 3d base, S. T. Wickes, short stop, H. Clay Brown, left field, J. D. Urie, centre field, Harry Dodd, right field, A. Hyland. The nine is open for challenges and has already issued one or more challenges.

In order to raise funds to properly equip the nine, and to put the grounds in good condition, the club will probably elect a number of honorary members, who it is hoped will willingly contribute fifty cents each as a starter to the nine. The nine expects to do honor to itself and supporters by the victories it will win during the season.

A Chestertown Horse to the Front.

Mr. John W. Hines' eight-year-old stallion, Young Smuggler, was entered in two races which came off last week at the spring meeting of the National Trotting Association, Ivy Park, Washington, D. C., and won distinction in both races. On Thursday he was entered in the 2.40 class, purse $500 three in five heats, and won first money in three straight heats. Time 2.35½, 2.36, 2.35½. He trotted against J. G. Turner's Nettie Thorn, George Scattergood's Lizzie R., George Sheldon's Frank and four other horses. The horses mentioned above took second, third and fourth money in order named.

On Friday, Young Smuggler trotted in 2.33 class, purse $500, and won third money. The race was won by J. H. Phillips' Orange Boy, in the 5th, 6th and 7th heats. J. K. Leavitt's Fleet Medium took second money, Young Smuggler third. Five other horses were distanced or withdrawn. Smuggler won two heats, the third and fourth, and made the lowest time in the race, winning his heats in 2.29½ and 2.30. Fleet Medium made the next best time on the first heat, making it in 2.29½. Orange Boy made the three winning heats in 2.30, 2.34 and 2.35. Young Smuggler was driven by Mr. James A. Startt, of Worton, and was accompanied to Washington by his owner, Mr. J. W. Hines, and Mr. J. N. Dodd. He reached home Tuesday morning by the steamer Corsica, and was received with something of an ovation.

Peninsula Items.

Salisbury is making efforts to establish a national bank.

Mr. Robert D. Hoffecker, editor of the Smyrna Times, who has been sick for several weeks past, is slowly convalescing. We hope he will soon entirely recover.

A number of Delaware towns are agitating the question of sidewalk paving. It appears that, with all their progressive ways, they are not yet up to brick pavements.

Persons who attended the Pauline Markham shows, at Greensborough, had to face the opposition of a Methodist preacher who stood upon the sidewalk urging people not to attend.

At a hearing on Saturday last, demanded by counsel for the defense in the Mitchell-Oldham homicide case, Capt. Mitchell was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000 for the action of the grand jury. His bondsmen were Wm. S. Potter, Jeremiah C. Price and John S. Wirt.

The Middletown Transcript says,—Middletown was never in a worse condition to have a fire than at present. The set of resolutions passed some time ago by a town meeting have been lost or mislaid, and the photograph of a fire engine that had a place for several weeks in the office of a member of the Town Board has been sent away to the owner.

A Somerset woman is the latest victim of kindling the fire with coal oil. She went through the usual programme,—i.e., poured oil on the fire from a can, the blaze ran up the stream into the can and exploded it, set it on fire, the neighbors heard her screams, ran in, extinguished the fire, but not until she was terribly burned; a physician was sent for, but he could do her no good, and she died after ten hours of intense agony. She was the wife of Jos. Brown of Westover.

The Eastern Shore Telephone Co., which has its headquarters in Centreville, has passed an order instructing the president, Wm. E. Temple, to contract for poles for the erection of a line from Centreville to Church Hill. The line will be put up as soon as practicable, and that town connected with the lower part of the county by telephone. It is the purpose of the company to extend the line to all towns of the county, and also from Denton to Ridgely. A line will also be built from Centreville to Easton, establishing offices at Wye Mills, Skipton, Longwood and Easton. An issue of 500 shares of stock was made a few days ago and taken by the present stockholders. Another issue will be made in the course of a few weeks for the further extension of the line.

William H. Donovan and James Warren, farmers, who live five or six miles from Georgetown, Del., are brothers-in-law, and their wives upon the death of their mother jointly inherited a tract of land. A squabble arose over the division of the land and the parties have been engaged in litigation ever since. On Sunday Warren went over upon the portion of the land laid off and allotted to his wife. Donovan ordered him off, and upon reaching the public road he attacked Warren with a pitchfork and at the same time set a fierce bull dog on him. The dog bit the flesh from Warren's legs and body, mutilating him horribly. His face is marked with the sharp prongs of the pitchfork, and the flesh is just clinging in shreds to his limbs. He is lying in a very critical condition and fears are entertained for his recovery. Donovan was appointed Recorder of Deeds for Sussex county in 1873, and served one term of five years. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

We had thought that the lower part of the Eastern shore did not grow anything much but congressional candidates, but we are compelled to the conclusion that that part of our State also brings forth occasionally a first class fool. The following from the Salisbury Advertiser will bear out this deduction: "For the past few days there has been a gentleman in town selling a patent burglar alarm, which works something on the style of a pistol. It is fastened on the door or window and when either is opened a spring is thrown against a blank cartridge, causing an explosion. Mr. William Jones purchased one of these and carried it home. After explaining the mechanism to his wife he fastened it on the door, but instead of putting the regular blank cartridge which accompanies the machine, he placed in it a No. 32. He then went on the outside and attempted to enter. The thing worked like a charm; his wife heard the explosion and William felt a No. 32 in his forehead. The bullet was extracted by a physician and William says he is satisfied with its workings."

Literary Notes.

The Baltimore Day has changed its rates from one to two cents per copy. The Day is the best afternoon paper in Baltimore, and is worth two cents every time.

The Art interchange for May 22d, contains a very useful design in color suitable for tile decoration, stained glass or embroidery. Six beautiful designs for fruit plates and two designs of decorative heads—one surrounded by peacocks' feathers and the other by sunbeams—are given on a separate sheet. Among the other illustrations are a charming study of violets; a unique water lily pattern for embroidery, showing disks enclosing the full bloom flower with a border of stems and buds and a vigorous and original design for stencil work.

Golden Days for June came by Tuesday's mail. It is as usual filled with thrilling stories, short sketches and interesting pictures. It has taken a firm hold upon the affections of the young people.

"Political Euchre" Playing Cards.

We have just received from Mr. Lum Smith, of Philadelphia, the following brief description of his recently invented card game:

"Political Euchre portrays the exciting features which will occur at the approaching Republican and Democratic National Convention at Chicago and the Presidental Election latter on.

The names of the States, with their Electoral votes, and Territories are printed on regular size playing cards, and four other cards (making 52 in all) represent the coming Republican and Democratic Nominees, and these cards do the duty of Right and Left Bowers. Republican States printed in blue, Democratic in red. Color of the card turned at end of deal makes the trump.

Game played the same as Euchre. First in strength comes the Bowers, and then the States of each party suit (Rep. and Dem.) according to number of Electoral votes. Trumps capture any suit, of course. Total Electoral vote 401, requiring 201 to elect. At end of game count the Electoral votes on all cards you have taken.

Regular Euchre, Whist, Casino, etc., may also be played by means of the regular playing cards printed on Political Euchre cards, and the Electoral votes counted also at close of each game. These double games form a charming attraction.

Sales of this novelty will be enormous, especially at the coming conventions and among excited crowds in front of all newspaper and telegraph offices throughout the country, awaiting the returns from the conventions. It will combine amusement with instruction and will be welcomed in every family circle.

Sample pack, 50 cents; per dozen, $4.00; per 100, $30.00.

TO THE FARMERS

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the Ohio Chilled Plow is the best plow in the world for neatness of work, and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.
