Sir/

Annapolis Novr. 17th 1794

The first Volunteer Company of Militia and the Company of Artillery of this City avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them by your departure from Office to express the high Respect and sincere Esteem with which your Conduct as a Citizen and as the Head of the Executive has inspired them. —

They request you to be assured that a Real Sense of your public and private Virtues and of Your unremitted and well directed Exertion for the general Interest and prosperity has induced them to offer to your Acceptance this Testimony of their Appreciation and Regard, and their ardent Wishes for your future Welfare and Happiness —

Signed in behalf of the said Companies and by their Direction —

Jno. Gassaway Brig. Major

Jno. Gorsuch Capt. Volunteers

Wm. Marbury Capt. Artillery
