The New Party.

The Henry George party—the Knights of Labor party—the progressive Democratic party—by whatever name it may be called, there can be but little doubt that the move headed by Henry George is destined to assumed something of the dignity of a party, and that if it nominates candidates for the Presidency in 1888, it will exert, at least as an unknown power, an immense influence upon the presidential campaign of 1888. When it is remembered that Henry George received 68,000 votes for mayor of New York city, when it is remembered what a vast organization the Knights of Labor has grown to be, headed by T. V. Powderly, it will be readily understood that, though the labor party might have no prospect of winning in 1888, it would introduce an additional element of uncertainty between the two great opposing parties. The "progressive Democracy," which is the name adopted by the new party, is already organizing for the next Presidential fight, and undoubtedly, means either directly or indirectly to make its influence felt. There is one noteworthy fact connected with this new party, that may later prove an element of discord, and that fact is that while the Knights of Labor are almost unanimously protectionists, Henry George, the conceded leader of the new party, is a free trader of the most pronounced type. He is undoubtedly the brains of the new party, and will most likely draw up its platform for the Presidency. With a free-trade leader and a high tariff following, the new party will probably have some trouble in adopting a satisfactory platform.

To the Deserving Belong the Spoils.

The Hagerstown Mail is really growing melancholy, in contemplating the numerous positions of honor and trust, that are being filled by distinguished citizens of this lovely Eastern Shore. More than once the Mail has sadly printed the list of Eastern Shoremen, filling prominent State and federal positions, and again in its last issue it breaks out into lamentation. We take pleasure in printing what the Mail has to say:

"It is reported that Joseph K. Roberts, of Prince George's county, is appointed Collector of Internal Revenue, and Philip H. Downes, of Caroline county, a General Appraiser of Merchandize. Mr. Baughman's 17,000 Democratic voters of the 6th Congressional District have still no recognition.

"The Eastern Shore stands thus upon the office-holding list:

GOVERNOR,
COMPTROLLER,
TAX COMMISSIONER,
SECRETARY OF STATE,
INSURANCE COMMISSIONER,
SUB TREASURER AT BALTIMORE,
GENERAL APPRAISER AT BALTIMORE,
COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS AT BALTIMORE.

"Besides, there are a great number of subordinate appointments under these and otherwise. This is a favored part of the State if office-holding is to be regarded in a favorable light. It makes up but one Congressional District with a county over, and has a United States Senator besides, leaving the other five Congressional Districts to get what they can. For ourselves, going upon the presumption that it is the favored section, where men are better fitted to hold office, we do not propose to complain, for our Democratic doctrine is that where the fittest and best are, there we should go for our public servants. The public good should always be first and the personal interests and ambitions of men last.

"This great preponderance in office-holding must be ascribed to the great dearth of good men on the Western Shore, for when we consider a Senator and four Democratic Representatives in Congress for the Western Shore, whose influence should certainly be sufficient to command some recognition, both State and national, and with the great city of Baltimore and all those counties behind them with the 'workers,' as against a single Senator and only one member of Congress from the Eastern Shore, it does so appear."

ONE of the leaders on the Democratic side in the next Congress will be Congressman Buckalew from the 11th district of Pennsylvania. He is a lawyer of unusual abilities, and is a tariff reformer. He is an impressive speaker and has had considerable experience in public affairs, having been for several terms a leader in the State Senate of Pennsylvania. It was at one time reported that he had been appointed to succeed Mr. Garland in the President's Cabinet as Attorney-General of the United States. Congressman Buckalew it is believed will do much toward strengthening the Democratic side in the next House.

Two others of New York's boodle aldermen have confessed, and there is a promising chance that four additional bribe takers will join Jahne in Sing Sing. Five or six of the bribe-receiving aldermen are in Canada, or other foreign parts where an extradition treaty cannot reach them.

Mr. Cleveland's Hagerstown Mail.

From the Philadelphia Times.

Mrs. Cleveland is said to receive more letters from Hagerstown, Md., than from any other place in the country. Shortly after her marriage two little girls living in that town sent her a letter and a boquet of flowers. The letter was answered and in a short time was copied by the town newspaper. From that time Mrs. Cleveland has been addressed by young and old from Hagerstown on all sorts of subjects and for all sorts of purposes.

Georgia for Cleveland.

From the Atlanta Constitution.

Mr. Cleveland may make mistakes here and there, but he is a great big man, and in him is comprehended Democratic hope and Democratic assurance for 1888.

A Speech from John G. Carlisle.

Hon. John G. Carlisle was a guest of the Iroquois Club, Chicago, last week and responded to the toast: "American industries—their growth and prosperity cannot be promoted by unnecessary or unequal taxation." Among other things he said: "Taxes do not create wealth; they destroy it. All taxation, whether it be direct or indirect, and no matter how it may be disguised or in what manner it may be enforced, is ultimately a charge upon labor, while its immediate and invariable effect is to withdraw the full amount of the exaction from the productive industries of the people. When it is equitably imposed for public purposes only, and its proceeds are honestly used in defraying the necessary expenses and meeting the just obligations of the Government, all are equally benefited, and no one has a right to complain; but when a tax is imposed upon one part of the people or one class of industries simply for the purpose of increasing the profits of another part of the people or another class of industries, or when a tax is so laid that its necessary effects is to increase the profits in some industries at the expense of others equally meritorious, the impolicy and injustice of the proceeding are too obvious to require comment."

Mr. Carlisle concluded as follows: "But, no matter who may desert or who may falter, the great fight for reform will go on. This country does not belong to either the monopolists or the communists and the people will save it from both. Between the two there stands a great and powerful body of enlightened, conservative and patriotic citizens, who respect equally the rights of capital and labor, who obey the laws and preserve the public peace, and who, in spite of all combinations and conspiracies, will ultimately see that the true principles of justice and equality prevail in the legislation of the country. While free trade is impracticable, industrial and commercial emancipation can and will be accomplished by wise and moderate measures of reform, without interfering with any private enterprise or injuring any public interest. To this some of us, at least, are irrevocably pledged, not only by the traditions and declarations of the political party to which we belong, but by a sense of personal and official duty which cannot be disregarded without betraying the confidence reposed in us by the people. Whether in public or in private life I shall stand by that pledge and to the extent of my abilities and opportunities contribute in every way to the early and complete triumph of revenue reform.

Helping the Buckalew Boom Along.

Washington Special to the Buffalo Courier.

On the presumption that Mr. Carlisle may prefer to take his place on the floor of the Fiftieth Congress as the leader of the majority some body nominates the Hon. Charles R. Buckalew for Speaker of the House. Mr. Buckalew's great abilities are already recognized among Democrats everywhere, but the Speakership is not likely to be his portion. Rather is it probable that Mr. Carlisle will again be elevated to that place. It is not improbable, however, that the honors of the leadership on the floor may largely devolve upon Judge Buckalew. He is a revenue reformer, in full sympathy with Mr. Carlisle and the majority of the party. He has had long experience in legislative bodies and is familiar with parlimentary practices. In his single term in the United States Senate Mr. Buckalew became recognized as one of the best and ablest men in the party and took rank with Trumbull, Thurman and other great lawyers of that body. He is a very strong debater. It is doubtful if the Republicans have a man who can cope with him in the discussion of great questions. Of course, he is not so ready a man as Reed and Butterworth, but he is a speaker of great force, and his voice will be potent when tariff and financial questions come up.

Ex President Arthur's Death.

NEW YORK, November 18.—Ex-President Chester Alan Arthur died this morning at five o'clock. The inmates of the old home at No. 123 Lexington avenue were astir all last night. It had been evident for some days that the ex President's days were numbered. Drs. Peters and Valentine and Mr. Arthur's two sisters, Mrs. McElroy and Mrs. Caw, and his nephew, Arthur Masten, were present when death occurred. His daughter and Chester Arthur, Jr., were in the house and were summoned as soon as their father died. There was no scene at the bedside, and at the time death occurred it was not expected. The doctors pronounced Mr. Arthur's death due to apoplexy, caused by the bursting of a blood vessel, with paralysis of the right side.

A LETTER FROM KRIS.

KRIS-KINGLE CASTLE, Nov. 24. 1886.

Friend Cummings & Co.—We have had many a jolly good time together. I am bound to make all the people happy at the Holidays, and am never kept from making up my usual things, and visiting my favorite locatities and customers by any rumors of hard times or calamities that may reach me here. While you and the other good people of Chestertown have been enjoying the fruits of your beautiful country, and the sunshine and flowers, my workmen and myself have been as busy as bees here in our workshop amidst snow and ice, and have made and fashioned a great stock of new and handsome things for the little children and big folks, that all may have some sort of present for the Merry Christmas of 1886. I await an answer at your earliest convenience and can assure you that I shall make you and all your friends glad when you get the many elegant things which I have prepared for you upon your counters on Main street.

CUMMINGS & CO. ANSWER THE LETTER

Chestertown, Md., Nov. 25.

My Dear Friend Kris—We always read your annual letter with much pleasure and profit. It brings with it cheer, and leaves the impress of a merry heart which "doeth good like a medicine." We always enjoy our beautiful seasons, and the fruits and flowers you mention in your letter, but at the Merry Christmastide we turn with equal zest to the enjoyment of all that you have prepared for us in the shape of articles, useful and ornamental. Your list of presents this year embraces an infinite variety, and you make your characteristic offer which we accept, because we know they have been made expressly for us, and with a fine appreciation of our wants which is begotten of long experience on your part. We have received from your agent an unusually large stock of Holiday Goods—the largest ever in Chestertown. We have Wagons, Doll Carriages, Sleds, Wheelbarrows, Carts, &c. We have the best selection of Dolls you ever saw; we have Mechanical Toys; also, a large variety of Toy Animals, such as Horses, Dogs, Cows, Goats and Pigs. In fact so many things that I cannot tell you all.

In Confections we do not carry anything but the very best articles, no second-class or inferior goods can be found in our store. We have the Finest line of Confections ever offered in this town. We also have Raisins, Figs, Prunes, Dates, all kinds of Nuts, Walnuts, Pecans, Paper-Shell Almonds, Cream Nuts, and all the good things you can possibly need at Christmas time. Besides, Kris, if you want a good Stew or Pan or Fry of Oysters, we can get it up for you, and if you like them raw we have the best that can be found; or, if you would like to take some home with you, we sell them by the quart or gallon. Ice Cream made to order during the winter.

Respectfully yours,

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE
Published Monthly
WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.
FIRST NUMBER READY DECEMBER 15th.

Scribner's Magazine will be in the widest sense a magazine of general literature, and each number will be fully illustrated.

Some of the most notable papers to appear during the first year are a series of Unpublished Letters of Thackeray of very great autobiographical value; ex-Minister E. B. Washburne's Reminiscences of the Siege and Commune of Paris; Glimpses at the Diaries of Gouverneur Morris, Minister to France at the close of the last century, giving descriptions of social life and characters at the time; a collection of contemporary letters describing Early New York and New England Society.

There is much excellent fiction, including a serial by Harold Frederic; stories extending through several numbers by H. C. Bunner, J. S. of Dale, and others; and short stories by R. L. Stevenson, Joel Chandler Harris, T. A. Janvier, Miss Jewett, Octave Thanet, H. H. Boyesen, Miss Crosby and a host of others.

Notable special papers to be published very early are General F. A. Walker's on Socialism; Dr. William Hayes Ward's on Babylonian Cylinders; Mr. John C. Ropes' on the Portraits of Cæsar; Captain Green's on Coast Defence, etc.

Scribner's Magazine will be published at $3.00 a year, or 25 cents a copy. Subscriptions may be sent to any newsdealer or bookseller, or to

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, Publishers,
743 and 745 Broadway, New York.

"THE IDEAL MAGAZINE"

for young people is what the papers call St. Nicholas. Do you know about it,—how good it is, how clean and pure and helpful? If there are any boys or girls in your house will you not try a number, or try it or a year, and see if it isn't just the element you need in the household? The London Times has said, "We have nothing like it on this side." Here are some leading features of for 1886-87.

Stories by Louisa M. Alcott and Frank R. Stockton,—several by each autnor.

A Short Serial Story by Mrs. Burnett, whose charming "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has been a great feature in the past year of St. Nicholas.

War Stories for Boys and Girls. Gen. Badeau, chief-of-staff, biographer and confidential friend of General Grant, and one of the ablest and most popular of living military writers, will contribute a number of papers describing in clear and vivid style some of the leading battles of the civil war. They will be panoramic descriptions of single contests or short campaigns, presenting a sort of literary picture gallery of the grand and historic contests in which the parents of many a boy and girl of to-day took part.

The Serial Stories include 'Juan and Juanita,' an admirably written story of Mexican life, by Frances Courtenay Baylor, author of 'On Both Sides;' also 'Jenny's Boarding-House,' by James Otis, a story of life in a great city.

Short Articles, instructive and entertaining, will abound. Among these are: 'How a Great Panorama is Made,' by Theodore R. Davis, with profuse illustrations; 'Winning a Commission' (Naval Academy), and 'Recollections of the Naval Academy; 'Boring for Oil' and 'Among the Gas-wells,' with a number of striking pictures; 'Child-Sketches from George Eliot,' by Julia Magruder; 'Victor Hugo's Tales to his Grandchildren,' recounted by Brander Matthews; 'Historic Girls,' by E. S. Brooks. Also interesting contriubtions from Nora Perry, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Joaquin Miller, H. H. Boyesen, Washington Gladden, Alice Wellington Rollins, J. T. Trowbridge, Lieutenant Frederick Schwatka, Noah Brooks, Grace Denio Litchfield, Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, Mrs. S. M. B. Piatt, Mary Mapes Dodge and many others, etc., etc.

The subscription price of St. Nicholas is $3 00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions are received by booksellers and newsdealers everywhere, or by the publishers. New volume begins with the November number. Send for our beautifully illustrated catalogue (free) containing full prospectus, etc., etc. THE CENTURY CO., New York.

THE CENTURY

The Century is an illustrated monthly magazine, having a regular circulation of about two hundred thousand copies, often reaching and sometimes exceeding two hundred and twenty-five thousand. Chief among its many attractions for the coming year is a serial which has been in active preparation for sixteen years. It is a history of our own country in its most critical times, as set forth in

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN,
BY HIS CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARIES, JOHN G. NICOLAY AND COL. JOHN HAY.

This great work, begun with the sanction of President Lincoln, and continued under the authority of his son, the Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, is the only full and authoritative record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private secretaries throughout his term of office, and to them were transferred upon Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the civil war and of President Lincoln's administration—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear in this authentic history. By reason of the publication of this work, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great audience, will occupy less space during the coming year. Gettysburg will be described by Gen. Hunt (Chief of the Union Artillery), Gen. Longstreet, Gen. E. M. Law and others; Chickamauga, by Gen. D. H. Hill; Sherman's March to the Sea, by Generals Howard and Slocum. Generals Q. A. Gillmore, Wm. F. Smith, John Gibbon, Horace Porter and John S. Mosby will describe special battles and incidents. Stories of naval engagements, prison life, etc., etc., will appear.

THE WAR SERIES,

NOVELS AND STORIES.

"The Hundredth Man," a novel by Frank R. Stockton, author of "The Lady, or the Tiger?" etc., begins in November. Two noveletts by George W. Cable, stories by Mary Hallock Foote, "Uncle Remus," Julian Hawthorne, Edward Eggleston and other prominent American authors will be printed during the year.

SPECIAL FEATURES

(with illustrations) include a series of articles on affairs in Russia and Siberia, by George Kennam, author of "Tent Life in Siberia," who has just returned from a most eventful visit to Siberian prisons; papers on the Food Question, with reference to its bearing on the Labor Problem; English Cathedrals; Dr. Eggleston's Religious Life in the American Colonies; Men and Women of Queen Anne's Reign, by Mrs. Oliphant; Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Astrology, etc., by the Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate; astonomical papers; articles throwing light on Bible history, etc.

PRICES. A FREE COPY.

Subscription price, $4.00 a year, 35 cents a number. Dealers, postmasters and the publishers take subscriptions. Send for our beautifully illustrated 24-page catalogue (free), containing full prospectus, etc., including a special offer by which new readers can get back numbers to the beginning of the War Series at a very low price. A specimen copy, back number, will be sent on request. Mention this paper. Can you afford to be without the Century?

For Sale.

10x10, 30 ft.; 8x10, 20 ft. to 32 ft. long; 6x8, 16 to 44 ft. long; 6x6, 14 to 43 ft. long; 4x6, all lengths; 5x5, 36 and 40 ft. long, Georgia Heart Pine Timber. This Timber was cut to order expressly for Scott's Point Lumber Yard, and is most suitable for Sills, Portico work and Wharf Building, and is offered at city prices.

Also, a Complete Assortment of Virginia Yellow Pine—brightly cured in thick sticks in lengths from 12 to 32 feet. 2x4, 3x4, 4x4, 4x6, 6x6, 2½x8, 1½x10, 2x6, 3x12, etc., and ⅝x6¾, Siding; 1x12, 12, 14 and 16 foot Cullings and Barn Boards. This is not Eastern Shore Pine, but very fine original growth Virginia.

We keep constantly every grade, kind and size of WHITE PINE that we can conceive our customers may want, buying weekly full car load lots of one kind from first hands, North and West, with my advantages in freighting places me safe for competition.

Having a yearly contract with a manufacturer of Cypress, with vessel communication of my own, I offer for sale this Lasting Timber in Fencing, House Siding and Outside Exposed Casings, etc.

To give those wanting Lumber an idea of our Stock of Seasoned Boards at Scott's Point, and our facilities to suit all sorts of tastes in House Building, will state that in the past ten days, we have furnished nine different and distinct styles of Weatherboarding.

Everything in the shape of Building Material for sale.
