On a Western Tour.

Mr. James W. Chapman, of this town, left last Wednesday for a Western trip and will be gone several weeks. His object is generally to take a view of the Western country and enjoy recreation from business cares, and especially to visit near relatives whom he has never seen. Mr. Chapman is of a Delaware family and came to Chestertown in early boyhood. Some fifteen years ago his father died in Delaware and in settling up the estate Mr. C. learned of the whereabouts of other relatives who had gone West, and has since been in communication with them. One of these is a prominent minister in Chicago; another, an own uncle, is a distinguished citizen of Indianapolis. In making this visit Mr. Chapman expects to see these relatives for the first time. The interview will no doubt be mutually pleasant. The Western branch of the family will have much of "push and plenty" to show for their past life work, but not more probably than the little boy who made his way to Chestertown and entered Benjamin's shop as a blacksmith's apprentice. That little boy, by his energy and devotion to correct business and moral principles, now ranks among the wealthy citizens of our county, and what is better than that is honored for his business integrity and high personal character.—News.

Accused had a knife in his hand with which he cut Venable across the chin and throat. Williams, indicted for assault upon John Clendaniel with intent to kill, tried before jury Testimony in the case showed that the accused was employed by Clendaniel to work on farm, In September last in a difficulty between the accused and Mr. Clendaniel, accused drew a knife, and subsequently stuck a pitch fork in the face of Mr. Clendaniel. Accused claimed to have acted in self defense. The case was tried upon two counts one for assault with intent to kill and the other for simple assault. It was argued before the jury by States Attorney Smith for prosecution and Richard D. Hynson for defense. The jury brought in verdict of not guilty on both counts.

The case of State vs. Louis Crippen was taken up and tried before the court.

A Bold Thief.

Louis, Crippen, a large mulatta, aged about thirty years, will be tried during the present court on three different charges. Several weeks ago, Crippen committed a burglary on the house of Wm. Parsons, in Worton, and he was wanted for that offense. A short time after, he was employed by Mr. George A. Jessop, residing near Lankford. One night about two weeks ago, Miss Jessop, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Jessop, was awakened during the night by a light in the room. She looked and saw the negro, Louis Crippen, searching her trunk. She wakened the lady who was sleeping with her, by calling to her, and Crippen immediately extinguished the light and made his way out of the room. Mr. Jessop was called, and told of the matter, and he got his gun and went to look for Crippen. He found him in the kitchen with a light and pretending to be reading a book. He questioned him about intruding into his daughter's room, and the negro positively denied the matter. The next morning Crippen had disappeared, and though a writ was issued for him, he could not be located. During the early part of last week, he went up to the farm of Mr. Joseph Peterson, near Chestertown, and engaged himself to husk corn. Nothing was known by Mr. Peterson nor by his overseer, Mr. Joiner, concerning the negro's recent record. On Sunday morning last, Mr. Joiner found Crippen gone, and one of Mr. Peterson's horses and his own buggy missing. He started in pursuit, but before he had got on the track of Crippen, Constable Conlyn, of the fifth district, captured the horse, buggy and the man, and brought them all to Chestertown. Crippen had driven down to Mr. Jessop's and apologized for past misdemeanors, and asked for his clothes. Mr. Jessop detained him in conversation, while he sent a messenger across country for Constable Conlyn. The constable met Crippen on the road, and the latter tried to get by, but was headed off. The constable reached Chestertown with his prisoner, and deposited him safely in jail. Crippen's case was taken up for trial before the Court yesterday.

An Old Citizen Dead.

Mr. William Frazier died of old age—being in his eighty-fourth year—at the residence of his son-in-law, Postmaster Fowler, on Wednesday morning. The deceased was probably the oldest white male citizen of Chestertown. He carried on the merchant tailoring business here for many years, before the days of clothing stores and was a very active and useful citizen In his early days he was fond of military life and was for a number of years a lieutenant of the Wayne Guards, the largest and perhaps the best drilled company we ever had in Chestertown. For many years he has been in feeble health and has not been actively engaged in business. His remains were interred yesterday morning in Chester Cemetery. Rev. W. R. Graham conducted the funeral services, and the pallbearers were Messrs. L. S. Fowley, T. W. Russell, C. Estes, W. A. Wheatley, W. F. Russell and W. L. Fowler, four sons-in-law and two grandsons.—News.

A Prospective Peach Basket Factory.

A firm largely engaged in the manufacture of paper peach baskets at Newark, N. J., is considering the question of building a factory, and engaging in the manufacture of baskets at Chestertown. The board which the firm uses at its Newark factory, is supplied largely by Mr. Wilbur Eliason's straw-board mill, and by establishing a factory here, the firm would have material close at hand, and would also be near to the large peach-growing sections of Kent and Queen Anne's counties. Representatives of the firm are expected down to-day on a preliminary investigation. Whether they finally determine to locate here, will probably depend largely upon contingent circumstances. It would be a good thing for Chestertown to have such a factory, and it is to be hoped that every possible encouragement will be extended to the capitalists who are considering the undertaking.

Fertilizers?

Are you tired of growing small crops? Do you want a good, honest, well-made Fertilizer, at a much lower price than others ask for an article no better, or even as good? Try our Fertilizers this Fall, save money, grow a good crop of wheat and you will be happy.

Reports of crops from farmers who have used

C. W. KENNARD & CO.'S

FERTILIZER!

GEORGE W. BOLTON reports a very large crop on the Big Meadow farm, and is much pleased with results. We have his full order for fall fertilizer.

JAMES FRENCH reports 22½ bushels average from C. W. Kennard & Co.'s Phosphate, a great improvement on previous crops; buys the same fertilizer again this fall.

THOS. BLACKISTON, on the Pippin farm, reports 30 bushels to the acre; says he can buy his goods cheaper from C. W. Kennard & Co. than anyone else, and has always grown big crops from the use of their goods. Wants no other and takes pleasure in recommending it.

JOSIAS RINGGOLD, Esq., says his crop this year was 25 and 28 bushels to the acre, the fly—resulting from seeding too early, about Sept. 20th—cut his wheat fully 400 bushels, and he would, doubtless, have received if seeded later, forty bushels to the acre. Has used C. W. Kennard & Co.'s Fertilizers five years, and has always grown large crops; knows he has saved money by buying them; takes great pleasure in recommending them to any inquirers.

JNO. N. DODD and JNO. LOLLAR, Esqs., report a remarkable result on corn ground, seeded late, and consequently winter killed; the wheat branched greatly, and the head was from 1 to 1½ inches longer than other wheat sown in his fallow, where high-priced brands of fertilizers, made by other parties, were used. Mr. Lollar says that no other fertilizer but Kennard's could give such a wonderful result. He knows their worth, having always grown a crop from their use.

DR. C. H. B. MASSEY, Massey's, Md., reports 5,765 bushels of wheat from 250 acres, all corn grown, an average of 23 bushels to the acre. One field had been tilled successively in wheat and corn for fourteen years. His grass is extra fine. He used forty tons of our fertilizer.

W. K. LOCKWOOD, Esq., on his Warwick farm, grew 27 bushels to the acre on corn ground, reports a large crop on his fallow where it was not drowned out. Has used our goods for seven years, always giving large crops.

CAPT. CLAYTON, Still Pond, reports fine crops on his three farms where he used our goods, and has ordered twenty or more tons. Says he has grown the best crops on his farms from our goods.

The above reports are only a few among our many pleased customers, and we have more to come. Remember, we do not publish and republish old testimonials; everything new and true. Call on us early. We bought early, filled our house early, saved in buying early, and from the way orders are coming in expect to do a large, early and fine business, and save our customers money,
