EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

ARBOR DAY, which has been designated by Gov. Jackson as April 10, is not a legal holiday.

FORTY-NINE black men and one white man were arrested in Baltimore, on Sunday, charged with gambling.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has cast a bombshell in the Canadian camp in the form of a proclamation declaring Behring's Sea a closed sea.

THE commissioners to the Samoan conference will sail for Europe on Saturday, April 13. The only officer who will accompany the commissioners will be a disbursing officer.

MISS PAULINE, the fifth daughter of Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States Supreme Court, eloped and was married by a Justice of the Peace, in a hotel, in Milwaukee, last week. The bridegroom was Mr. J. M. Aubrey, of Chicago.

CAMBRIDGE also has a "bridge question" which is now agitating its people. The question is whether or not the bridge shall be removed from its present location. Two parties have already joined issue, and strong feeling exists between the parties.

SENATORS SHERMAN AND HOAR have declared openly that the annexation of Canada to the United States is not only a possibility but a probability. The annexation may be a long way off, but it is claimed that it must inevitably come sooner or later.

AT APPOMATTOX Court House, Wednesday evening last, Miss Mattie W. Ragland, one of the belles of that village, and Mr. Matthew Troy, of Texas, were united in marriage. The ceremony took place in the room made historic by Gen. Lee's surrender. The room with its plain matter-of-fact furniture has now but little of the old war-period look, many changes having been made.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER has declared that the simple recommendation of a Congressman is not sufficient in cases of appointment to important Federal positions. In the case of the appointment of postmaster in one of the largest cities in Kansas, the Congressman made elaborate representations in reference to the would be appointee, but the Postmaster-General declared that, "I cannot make the appointment unless I have seen the recommendations of the patrons of the office. You must send them to me. I will examine them carefully, and if I agree with you that the man you have just recommended deserves the place, I will appoint him."

GREAT destruction to property at Atlantic City resulted from the high tides and storm of last week. Says an American correspondent: Imagine a whole row of one to three-story frame buildings being thrown seawards in a mass of indescribable ruins, the waves dashing among the timbers with a hissing, ominous roar, sending up clouds of spray, and occasionally drencing the shivering spectators, and one will have some idea of the scene witnessed between Mississippi and Georgia avenues at noon, when the highest tide ever known here was at its flood. Similar work of destruction was going on between Georgia and Florida avenues, and from Mississippi up to Michigan. To use the words of a boardwalk fakir, who has lost his all: "The tide of November 25 wasn't a marker to this one."

BARNUM'S HOTEL, one of the old and most substantial landmarks of Baltimore city, will be closed on April 3. The old hotel is a building which, could its walls break their silence, would be able to give more of the inner moves of State and municipal politics than any building in the city or State. The foundation of the imposing structure was laid in 1825. Though the location is one of the finest, on account of its central position of the numerous hotels in the city, the management have found that the business has ceased to be remunerative, so will close doors after April 3. Many noted people have been guests at the once celebrated hostlery. Charles Dickens, when visiting Baltimore, put up at Barnum's, and in his "Notes on America," said that it was the best inn he found in America.

THE Maryland Democratic State Central Committees will meet at Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore, April 3, to arrange for party organization. Various Republican moves, both national and State, have served as index fingers to point out to party leaders the necessity of presenting in the approaching campaign a solid front and unbroken ranks. Party factions must be reconciled and party disaffections healed in order that a triumphant Democracy be assured. Chairman Stevenson Archer says that, "This early meeting of the committee has been called in compliance with the demand of prominent Democrats from all parts of the State, including all elements of party opinions." These early and vigorous movements in the direction of party organization and harmony are expected to produce a canvass which will entirely eliminate the party disputes of the past and assure victory.

SAYS THE Annapolis correspondent of the Baltimore Sun: Governor Jackson has directed Major W. E. Stewart, State's attorney for Talbot county, to institute proceedings against "The Bayside Social, Literary and Musical Club," the "Oxford Social Club," the "Oxford Social, Literary and Musical Club," and the Riverview Social Club," all of Oxford, Talbot county, to ascertain whether said corporations have been guilty of such misuse, abuse or non-user of their powers and franchises as by law would make proper a forfeiture of their charters. Action by the Governor was taken on the representation that these clubs, which were chartered under the general incorporation act, were openly violating the local option law.

The Governor also authorized similar proceedings against the "Bel Air Social, Literary, Musical and Dramatic Club," of Aarford county. He had previously issued proceeding against the "Easton Social Club," the "Farmers' Social and Literary Club of St. Michaels," and the "Invincible Social and Literary Club of Denton," all located in local option counties. Until the repeal of the local option law there were about a dozen of these so-called literary and musical associations in Annapolis. Some of the counties, among them Dorchester, refused to license clubs of this kind under the general incorporation act of 1868. N[illegible] petitions urged the Gov[illegible] the matter.

ONE OF THE latest moves in Baltimore political circles, is the suggestion by some who are closely associated with city politics, that the Hon. Robert M. McLane, who will at an early date return from Paris, be presented as a candidate for mayor. The friends of Mayor Latrobe have already brought him to the front for renomination.

MARYLAND'S GREAT DISPLAY.

The Maryland State Agricultural and Mechanical Association continues its strenuous efforts to advance the agricultural and mechanical industries of the State, and to bring Maryland to its proper position in the very front ranks. With its varied soil, its even more varied enterprises, a climate adopted to the successful cultivation of a vast variety of crops and men of intelligence and culture engaged in its numerous industries, Maryland, as a matter of right, should occupy a most honorable position among the great industrial centres of our country. Kent county, as representing one of the most fertile and beautiful sections, should be represented by a display which she might feel justly proud. Says an appeal which has been issued throughout the State:

"The Exposition will not be a 'show,' but a great universal school to the farmer, merchan and mechanic, where the lessons will be object teaching. Not only will all the varieties of improved live stock in Maryland be on exhibition, but all the productions, mineral, agricultural, forest, &c., of the State will be shown. Situated side by side, each on its own alloted space, competing in brotherly rivalry, will be seen the counties of Maryland, displaying to their people, and to the people of many climes, all the vast and varied attractions, resources and advantages of our State. Thus an opportunity will be offered for a study of the characteristics of each county, and a comparison of each with all the others, and all knowledge comes of comparison. That each and every county should have a complete and representative exhibit is for the advantage of the State, and it is believed that the thorough carrying out of this design will render the collective display of the counties the most attractive feature of the Exposition, and will, moreover, be of lasting advantage to the counties individually and to the State at large."

A number of the counties have already called meetings for the purpose of taking some definite and satisfactory steps for an appropriate display on the occasion of this great carnival of Maryland skill and enterprise. President of the association, Frank Brown, is thoroughly awake to the great enterprise which he has undertaken.

ARBOR DAY.

An Interesting Ceremony to be Observed by the Public Schools.

As recently mentioned, Gov. Jackson has designated April 10 as Arbor Day, and suggests that throughout the State it be observed by the schools, and that suitable programs be arranged for the occasion. In many States the day has been observed for a number of years and with highly gratifying results. We give the following interesting letter of Prof. M. A. Newell, of the State Norman School, to Examiner Eben F. Perkins. The letter was authorized by the State Board of Education, and will be found to be an interesting paper:

OFFICE STATE BOARD EDUCATION,
Baltimore, March 15, 1889.

DEAR SIR:—The Governor, in pursuance of law, has appointed the 10th of April next to be observed as "Arbor Day."

The purpose of this observance is to inspire the young with a love of trees, to prevent the unnecessary destruction of our remaining forests, and to lead to a more general system of tree-planting, and tree-culture.

You will notify the teachers of your county that the ordinary school exercises will be omitted on Arbor Day, and that the pupils shall assemble at the school house at an appointed hour with their friends and neighbors.

Appropriate selections should be read, suitable songs sung, and essays read by the pupils. Addresses by citizens of the neighborhood would also be in order, either in the school-room or on the ground.

At the conclusion of the literary exercises the tree, or trees, will be planted and named. The trees must be procured beforehand, and all necessary arrangements made. If the school premises do not afford a suitable place, let the trees be planted by the roadside, and in such a way that in successive years a line of shade trees will grow up. If the school prefers to plant fruit trees, there is no objection. The pear and cherry are graceful and excellent ornamental trees for the way-side.

One of our leading nurserymen says, "Plant small trees. I would not accept three-year-olds as a gift where I could buy yearlings at a reasonable rate."

The following hints on How to Plant are by Dr. B. G. Northrop in the Report of the Secretary of the Conn. Board of Agriculture:

"Let the holes be dug beforehand, and deeper and wider than is needful to receive the roots when spread to the utmost. Great care is needed in 'lifting' or digging up the trees so as to get the most and longest roots possible, and especially the fine capillar rootlets. When first dug up, the roots should be set in a box or barrel and covered with moist leaves. Spread some four inches of good soil in the ample hole; set the tree about three inches lower than it stood before, spread its roots carefully in all directions as they grew. Churn the tree gently while rich, pulverized soil is thrown upon the roots, working it around them with the hand so that no empty spaces be left; dashing water on the roots to secure their closes embrace by the soil; tread the earth firmly about the roots; cover the whole with a little loose earth to prevent the surface from baking; leave the soil around the tree a little lower than the general level; and mulch freely with straw or leaves."

To insure success, everything must be made ready beforehand.

Advantage might also be taken of Arbor Day to screen the out-buildings with evergreens, such as Norway spruce, hemlock, arbor vitæ, or holly and small cedars which can be had in our own woods.

Twenty-six States have by Act of Legislature or orders of the State Superintendent of Public Instructons, adopted Arbor Day as an annual festival. It has not been the privilege of Maryland to lead in this, as she has done in so many other instances; but let us follow steadily in the footsteps of those who have gone before us, and marked the track.

STATE ITEMS.

The public schools of Bel Air were closed on Tuesday, until the 1st day of April, on account of scarlet fever in the neighborhood.

Fannie Ray, the two-year-old child of Mr. John Ray, 1514 West Mulberry street, Baltimore, fell from the third-story front window of her father's house Saturday afternoon, and died three hours afterwards.

The commencement exercises at St. John's College will be especially interesting, as it is intended to celebrate the centennial of the college during commencement week.

MI. John B. Flood has again been selected chief marshal of the trades display and carnival to be held in Annapolis April 23. He will have twenty-one assistants. The trades display will be held in the morning, and the carnival in the afternoon, with fireworks at night.

Burnes Hargett, a twelve-year-old son of Douglass H. Hargett, of Frederick county, had his leg caught in a steam corn crusher, on Saturday. Two hours elapsed before the unfortunate boy could be released from his terrible position. He died during the night.

The ground hog's reign having recently expired, one of these little animals came out of his hole on the Holmes farm, near Sykesville, one day last week, and was captured by a young man in the neighborhood. A ground hog is much like a 'possum in appearance and size, and knows more for his looks than any other animal in the country.—Ellicot City Democrat.

Last Sunday morning, when Mr. Joseph Henriques' colored man went to the barn, on Wilton Farm, near Harve de Grace, he was horrified to find the dead body of Mr. Richard T. Carr, a former tenant on the place, seated in a buggy. The vehicle was a no-top one and Mr. Carr was leaning forward, one hand still holding the lines and the other resting upon the bottom of the buggy. The mule attached to the buggy was standing near the fence.—Ægis and Intelligencer.

The B. & O. and the Inauguration.

Between midnight March 3d and noon March 4th, the B. & O. R. R. carried into Washington, sixty thousand excursion passengers, in addition to its regular local and through travel. From 3 o'clock, afternoon of the 4th until midnight of the 5th, an equal number was carried from Washington. Allowing an average of 50 passengers to the car, including Sleeping and Parlor Cars, it required 1200 Cars to accommodate the multitudes. Adding to this the necessary number of Baggage Cars to take care of the baggage of passengers and the supplies and paraphernalia of military companies, bands and marching clubs, it will be seen that the B. & O. hauled a train of 9 cars into Washington every fifteen minutes from midnight March 3, until noon March 4, and out of Washington every fifteen minutes from 3.00 P. M. of the 4th until midnight of the 5th.

In handling this immense volume of business, in so short a time, not a single accident occurred and not a passenger was injured; not a car was derailed and not an engine failed to perform its allotted task. During all this time there was an incessant fall of rain and all out door work was invested with very depressing conditions.

The satisfactory manner in which this great movement was conducted reflects the highest credit upon the operating department of the B. & O. Company, and indicates the promptness and intelligence with which each member of the entire rank and file of the force performed his essigned share of the labor involved.

PEACH GROWERS!
TRADE MARK
IT IS A WELL-KNOWN FACT
That FRUIT TREES, of whatever variety, Peach, Apple or Vine, supplies the required nourishment to the fruit by its roots, absorbing such elements as are available to give life and vigor to the crop, and if not applied to the soil in some way the tree must naturally deteriorate, which is noticeable in the dropping or shedding of the fruit in early summer months, premature ripening, and finally the loss of both crop and tree. We do not claim, however, that our FRUIT GROWER will prevent all dropping of fruit, premature ripening, or death of trees. This would be contrary to the inevitable laws of nature. But do claim, which has been demonstrated beyond a doubt, that the FRUIT GROWER, when applied to Peach Trees (the most liable to such disasters), will insure a greater abundance of fruit, and of a superior quality. And this having been positively proven, we are confident that one fair trial will convince the most skeptical of the value of this fertilizer.
MR. JOHN A. CROVES,
The largest Peach Grower in this section of the country, says the six year's use of our FRUIT GROWER has been entirely satisfactory, having used it extensively, and in connection with almost everything.
MR. W. HARRISON NEWNAM,
Says the change wrought in his orchard by the FRUIT GROWER was simply wonderful.
MR. J. BENJAMIN BRIGHT,
Kent Island, says he put out a young orchard where an old one had just been taken up, which has been fed by the FRUIT GROWER, and that he has never grown finer fruit on young trees, realizing as high as $2.25 per box for same.
MR. WILLIAM H. FAULKNER,
Near Crumpton, one of the most successful Peach Growers, says in his orchard there were two places of half acre each where the leaves had all twisted up and turned yellow (literally had the yellows), but he put in addition to the 200 lbs. sown on the rest of his orchard, an extra amount by hand around the trees. The leaves straddled off, new foliages came and put his whole orchard in a flourishing condition. On his other orchard where applied, his fruit was generally conceded to be the finest carried to Millington, realizing (last summer) an average of $1.00 per basket through for his Crawford and Reeves.
WE DO NOT GUARANTEE
Our FRUIT GROWER to cure the yellows, but we honestly believe that if there ever was a Manure particularly adapted to Peach Trees it is, as its base is a NATURAL GUANO, that runs as high in AVAILABLE BONE PHOSPHATE as DISSOLVED ANIMAL BONE, yet this is available by decomposition. Not one pound of Sulphuric Acid is used in its manufacture; hence its superiority as a PEACH MANURE. Farmers have often been induced to try Natural Guanos by being shown how high they run in bone phosphate, but they do not notice that it is INSOLUABLE instead of AVAILABLE, the former being of no advantage whatever, hence they should always see that it is AVAILABLE BONE PHOSPHATE. We defy anybody to produce a Natural Guano that will run as high in AVAILABLE BONE PHOSPHATE as our O. B. For want of space we are unable to publish a vast amount of testimonials, but upon application will gladly mail a circular, giving the strongest endorsements of gentlemen who use it year after year.
JUST THINK OF IT, YOU CAN DRESS YOUR ORCHARD FOR ABOUT $2 PER ACRE.
