COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

EDWIN H. BROWN, Esq., the newly appointed State Treasurer, has formally entered upon the duties of his office, and has demanded of ex-Treasurer Archer that he deliver the State securities at the Safe Deposit Building. The demand was answered by Mr. Archer, who stated that he would be present in person or would be represented by counsel. The wisdom of Governor Jackson's choice in selecting Mr. Brown as Mr. Archer's successor has never been questioned, and the businesslike and energetic methods of the new State Treasurer will but emphasize his unquestioned fitness for the place. A lawyer whose pole star has always been a puritanical adherence to method and order, his administration may be expected to be thorough, businesslike and practical.

FOR FARMERS.

An exchange, in speaking of the agricultural depression, has the following:

"The farmers, judging by their resolves and recommendations, do not know precisely the nature of their own grievances; but they are in a fair way to find out. In Republican Kansas and Democratic South Carolina they have taken the bit in their teeth and are in open revolt against political conditions as they understand them. They will soon discover that in so far as their difficulties are the result of unwise legislation there is no real remedy except repeal. Restitution is out of the question. The money that has been pocketed by favored interests cannot be reclaimed.

"The farmers are themselves largely responsible for keeping in power a party pledged to a policy of discrimination which makes one portion of the population hewers of wood and drawers of water for another portion. The first step toward a better state of affairs would be to turn the Republican party out of power. It seems impossible to effect a reform inside of the Republican lines, because the men who profit by the party policy have obtained control of its organization. All that is necessary to restore prosperity to the farmers is the opportunity to pursue their calling uncrippled by forced contributions to other forms of industry. At present they are obliged to dig not only for themselves but also for all other persons who can persuade the Government to tax the farmer for their benefit."

NO REASSESSMENT YET.

The Governor's Reasons for Vetoing the Bill.

Governor Jackson on April 17, finally decided not to sign the reassessment bill, and gave to the press the following reason for withholding his signature:

"In my message to the General Assembly at the beginning of the session of 1890 I frankly said that I thought a new valuation and assessment of property in this State ought to be provided for. I remain of that opinion. I thought then that such new assessment ought to and could be made in a manner which would yield profitable results without vesting in the assessing officers extraordinary and offensive powers, and without subjecting the citizen to unnecessary interference in his private affairs. I was then, and am now, of the opinion that no system of taxation ought to be made offensive to those upon whom it is intended to operate, and that no novel and extraordinary inquisitorial powers ought to be vested in the subordinate taxing officers of the State. Our people are not accustomed to see such powers exercised. The bill under consideration is not framed in such a manner as to avoid these difficulties. It grants more power to the assessing officers than they ought to have, and it exposes the citizen to the malice of informers in cases where probably there would be no just cause of complaint. The effect of the bill will be, in my judgment, to drive more taxable property from the State than it would add to our basis of taxation, while our aim should be to encourage by all fair and just means the bringing of capital to our State. I cannot, therefore, consent to be the cause of the individual, public and general discontent which would certainly follow if I approved this bill and set its machinery in motion. There are particular inconsistencies and defects in the bill upon which I might dwell at length, but it is not necessary; but I am obliged to say that although I began the study of the bill with a strong desire to sign it, its provisions and methods are so objectionable to me that I have finally determined not to approve it."

The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun from Annapolis stated that; "the Governor said that he had had a great amount of worry in deciding upon the assessment bill, and tremendous pressure was brought to bear upon him, both to sign the bill and to withhold his signature. He said he was influenced to veto it by the apparent injustice of the third section of the bill. "This would," he said, "result most unjustly, for by its provisions a corporation which has in sight taxable property upon which it has a bonded debt, must pay taxes on bonds too. Take Sparrow's Point for instance. We will say that the steel company has invested in property worth five million dollars. There is the tangible property before us in full view, and it can be come at by the assessors and full taxation can be exacted. Now suppose that three million of the money involved in the erection of the works was procured on bonds owned anywhere—in Boston, New York or London. These bonds would be also subject to taxation. It is plainly to be seen that the intent of taxation is over reached when we go beyond a fair taxation upon tangible property in such a case, and go further to tax the debts also, when those debts are represented in the property fully taxed directly upon what is in tangible, taxable form."

"The Governor thinks also, it is understood, that if the last clause of the third section of the bill could be enforced no corporation could borrow money in or out of the State. It would, it is thought, stop the Western Maryland from carrying out its contemplated improvements, and also the Belt Railroad, the Traction Company or any other enterprise of the kind."

He has also determined finally to withhold his signature from the bill to regulate the practice of medicine.

STATE AND PENINSULA.

Dogs are violating the financial sacredness of the sheep-folds in Queen Anne's.

Fourteen negroes were arrested in Easton on Sunday of last week for gambling.

Cambridge is to have water works. The supply will be drawn from an artesian well.

The large barn on the farm of Henry S. Couden, near Perryville, Cecil county, was burned on Wednesday night, 17th. inst., with nearly all of its contents, including two head of horses, eight head of catttle, 125 sheep and a large quantity of provender. The loss amounted to $4,000; partly insured.

Mr. F. H. Brush, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has purchased from John A. English the latter's farm, located on the bay shore near Snow Hill, in Worcester county, for $35,000. Mr. Brush contemplates changing the place into a stock farm.

Mr. George B. Covington, son of ex-Congressman Covington, of Snow Hill, has been awarded the senior oratorical prize in a contest lately held in Clio Hall, Princeton College.

"OLD NEW YORK TAVERNS" is the subject of a paper which John Austin Stevens will contribute to the Harper's Magazine for May. Quaint historic imaginings are the twenty-six accompanying drawings, in which Howard Pyle makes visible to the modern eye the very life of the olden time. A striking section of the article is devoted to the history of the famous tavern which one Edward Willett opened in 1754, in the old De Lancey house on Broadway, and which was succeeded by the old City Hotel.

All Things

Are Now Ready.

Come and see us and be convinced that we have the best system for cutting all kinds of clothing for men, women and children in the land. Our office is upstairs in the Voshell House, where we will be glad to See You and Show You Our System.

Mrs. Dunham has Charge of the School.

Only a part of the town has been canvassed, yet a large number have expressed their intention to learn to use this household king.

A Number of Our Best Citizens Have Made Arrangements to Take Lessons.

Among those who have taken instruction there is but one expression, and that is one of unbounded satisfaction. A young lady who never cut a garment in her life, after taking but four hours' instruction, cut a basque for herself, which for style and completeness in fit cannot be excelled by the best dressmaker.

No Young Lady Can Afford to Lose This Opportunity, if but to cut her own clothing, and if she never uses it for any other purposes, she will save many times its cost, and those who demands of the fashions of this age cannot be met properly without the system, and unless she is posted on styles in vogue, and unless she knows how to do this cutting,

She Can't Be Competent to Judge, and if in straitened circumstances or at leisure, they can't afford to pay out the money that ought to be saved, and enables them to make themselves useful members of society. The young people of this generation are not indolent, yet

Thousands are Wasting Time and Money

and not doing their duty to their fellow kind, and in many cases even drifting into idleness and crime through lack of learning to make themselves useful. Parents and others

Owe it to Their Country and Children to see that this drift is checked, and no method will be so effective as the teaching of useful knowledge. Go and examine the Garment Cutter and you will be surprised to see such a useful article embracing such a vast range of work and yet so simple. From all parts of the country come statements of persons thoroughly competent to judge the value of the Cutter, saying they would not part with

and consider it fully as valuable as their sewing machine, and in many cases it has been the means of livelihood, enabling many hard-working women to make a good living and save money by the use of the Cutter. You may think you can do without or that you can get along with your old methods, but

and the age demands in clothing especially that you have the very best and latest styles, hence the need of this grand work. We can't endorse an article so useful too strongly, and in calling your attention to such things, we would give you some testimonials, but we have not space, so come and see, one and all, for yourselves.

151. No license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Kent county shall be granted to any hotel keeper who shall have complied with the provisions of this act until such applicant, in addition to the sum or sums now required, or which hereafter may be required to be paid by the general license law of the State, shall also pay to said clerk the sum of three hundred dollars, to be paid to the county commissioners of Kent county by said clerk for the use of said county.

Any person who shall sell, directly or indirectly, at any place in Kent county any spirituous or fermented liquor or intoxicating drinks of any kind without first having obtained a license as required by this act, shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and failing to pay such fine and cost of prosecution forthwith shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term of not less than six months nor more than one year.

151 E. No person obtaining a license under this act shall permit minors to enter the bar room or other place where liquor is sold, unless said minor is accompanied by the parent or guardian of such minor, nor shall any person obtaining a license under this act, his agents, servants or employees, sell, directly or indirectly, or give away at his, their or its place of business any spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drink of any kind whatsoever, to any minor, or to any person known to such vendor to be purchasing or receiving such liquors or intoxicating drinks as the agent of or on behalf of, or at the request of, any minor.

151 F. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, and the license of such person may be suppressed, in the discretion of the court.

151 G. No vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors licensed under this act shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquor to any person who is intoxicated at the time, nor shall it be lawful for any such licensed vendor to keep open the room where spirituous or fermented liquors are sold between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning, nor to sell, directly or indirectly, or give away in such room, or on or about the premises of such vendor, any spirituous or fermented liquor whatsoever between the hours aforesaid.

151 H. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, at the discretion of the court.

151 I. Whenever any license shall be suppressed for any violation of this act it shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county at any time to grant another license under this act to the person whose license has been suppressed, nor to grant a license to any other person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors upon the premises covered by the license suppressed, for the term of twelve months from the date of such suppression.

151 K. Any person who shall fraudulently procure a license as a hotel keeper without having complied in good faith with the provisions of this act defining hotel keepers, shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars; the license granted shall be suppressed by the court, and it shall be unlawful for the Clerk to issue any other license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors to such person.

151 L. Nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize any sale or barter or giving away of any spirituous or fermented liquor on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, or on the day of election held in said county, under the constitution and laws of this State or of the United States.

151 M. On any prosecution under this act it shall only be necessary to state that the traverser did sell or give away spirituous or fermented liquors, without specifying the particular kind or quantity of liquor sold or given away.

151 N. All fines imposed and collected under this act shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Kent county for the use of said county.

151 O. All prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of this act shall be upon presentment and indictment, and it shall be the duty of any Justice of the Peace for Kent county, upon information received and confirmed by the oath of a credible witness, to have any person arrested and committed to the county jail for a violation of the provisions of this act, unless such person shall give sufficient bail or recognizance with sureties to appear before the Circuit Court for Kent county at the next succeeding term thereof, to answer the charge.

PRIDE OF ENGLAND,

IMPORTED

Cleveland Bay Stallion

is of a beautiful Cleveland Bay color, stands 16 hands 1½ inches, and will weigh thirteen hundred pounds in condition. He is stylish, fine action and perfectly quiet. In the combined qualities of action, beauty and endurence, he is acknowledged to stand unequaled as a stock horse for farm and carriage purposes. Has only served a few mares, but has proved sure with them. He comes down a long line of the best producers.

The American Farmers' Stock Book, in speaking of the most desirable strains of horses which have been the result of careful and scientific breeding, in coming to the Cleveland Bays, says: "We come next to a class of horses always held in the highest esteem for their many valuable qualities. It is a horse that is now bred to a degree of perfection that leaves little to be desired in all that goes to constitute size, style and ability to perform any labor that may be required, except the heaviest drudgery. The Cleveland Bays are good carriage horses, good and stout wagon or plow horses, and they match together about as easily as Devon cattle, combining as they do, plenty of staunch thorough blood with excellent size and constitutional vigor. Unfortunately they are rare in the United States, but since their introduction into the West, they have been steadily growing into favor. They are remarkable for their pure bay color, dashed only at the fetlocks and in the forehead with white. We have good authority for our admiration of this splendid animal. Canada has of late years become celebrated for finely-bred and finely-matched carriage horses, which is due to the sagacity of some Canadian breeders, in selecting Cleveland Bay Stallions for sires."
