POLITICAL NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the Democratic voters of Kent county that primary meetings will be held in the several election districts of said county, at the usual polling places on Saturday, August 23, 1890, next, to select five delegates from each district to represent them in a county convention hereby called to meet in Chestertown, at the Court House, on Tuesday, August 26, 1890,

at 11 o'clock A. M., to select delegates to represent Kent county in the Democratic Congressional Convention, to be held in Centreville, on to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress to represent the First Congressional District of the State of Maryland. Meetings will be organized in the several districts at 2 o'clock P. M.

Wednesday, September 3, 1890,

DR. SAMUEL BECK,
C. S. HURLOCK,
J. P. NICHOLSON,
Democratic State Central Committee for Kent county.

MR. BAYARD still figures as a prominent character in Delaware State politics. In response to a request of the Democrats of the Eleventh ward, of Wilmington, he will attend the Democratic convention at Dover as a delegate from that ward. The invitation was given, and accepted Thursday evening. Mr. Bayard saying that he was a private citizen and feeling very deep interest in the success of his party, was willing to serve his party in any way that would promote their success. The convention will assemble on the 12th instant to nominate candidates for Governor and Congress, and to adopt a platform.

THE Western Union Telegraph Company in removing its wires from the Chestertown office to the office at the depot, has inflicted an unwarranted inconvenience upon the people of the town and community. No reason for the change has been given, and we are left to infer that the Western Union is enjoying either a negative progress at this point, or else is taking advantage of the absence of a legitimate competition to heap an unnecessary inconvenience upon the people. To expect the patrons of the office to take a mile and a half or two-mile drive or walk to send a telegram is unreasonable and an injustice to the common sense of the community, and it is to be hoped that it may soon become apparent that this removal of the telegraph wires has been a blunder and that they may be replaced at an early date.

AN EXAMINATION of the records of business done by the Register of Wills, for Kent county, disclosed a singular but steady decrease in the amount of work done in that office. In the years 1886 and 1887 the number of estates administered upon in each year was forty-seven; in 1888 the number fell to twenty-nine; in 1889 a further fall was shown, and the number reached but twenty-four. The present year promises a somewhat increased amount of business over the past several years, but the natural query as the outgrowth of this statement of the register's office is, are there fewer persons dying, or is the financial condition of those who die, such, that they have no estates to administer upon? The fact is shown by the records, that the estates have fewer debts proven against them. This might be encouraging did we not know as a fact that this is produced by other causes, and not by a greater freedom from indebtedness now than was experienced by our community several years ago. The fees of the register's Office fell last year below one thousand dollars, and at no time during Mr. Strong's administration of the affairs of the office has it far exceeded twelve hundred dollars. During Mr. Slaughter's term, the office paid in round numbers the handsome sum of eighteen hundred dollars. With a continued decrease in the emoluments of the office, the desirable official plumb of the past, will in a few years go begging, and the exciting political race for the position will be relegated to the ordinary roadsters of the political turf, instead of, as in the past and at present, to the flyers of first rank for capacity and fitness.

Maryland Items.

William F. Watson's carriage was in collision recently with a wagon drawn by four unmanageable horses, on the Corsica creek bridge. Mr. Watson's vehicle was demolished and he was slightly injured.

Mr. Henry Embert, aged 67 years, of Ruthsburg, Queen Anne's county, while watching the workmen who were repairing the Methodist Protestant Church, stepped down from the foundation and raising his hand to his head complained of a bad feeling, and immediately fell forward dead. Dr. Holland, who was called, pronounced it death from vertigo. He leaves a family of grown children.

A company is about to be organized at Frederick, with a capital of $45,000, to manufacture ice. The daily capacity of the plant is expected to be from thirty to forty tons.

A petition signed by about four hundred voters in Cambridge district has been filed in the clerk's office at Cambridge asking for a resubmission of the question of the sale of intoxicating liquors in that district. The local-option law has been in force in the town and district since 1874. Under the local law the petition will have to lie until September 1, at which time the court will require notice of a new vote at the fall election, unless a counter-petition of a larger number of voters is filed in the interim.

A resident of Somerset county was placed under a $300 bond to keep the peace, because he offered a preacher a drink while religious services were in progress.

THE FIRST BALE of this season's Texas cotton is on its round of the exchanges of the large cities, and is being sold at auction again and again for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum, of Houston, Texas. It was given for the charity by the raiser, and was first sold at Houston for $235. It was next sold at St. Louis for $500; then at Chicago for $2,034.75; thence it was shipped to Baltimore, to Goldsborough and Bro., and was sold last Wednesday, on the floor of the Corn and Flour Exchange, to the highest bidder. It is expected to be again presented to the charity and shipped from there to New York and then to Boston and Philadelphia. There have been no charges for transportation and telegraphing. The bale weighs five hundred pounds.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Congressional Tickets Named and a Platform Adopted.

The Maryland Prohibitionists met at Glyndon, Baltimore county, on Wednesday of last week, and made the following Congressional nominations:

First District—George W. Covington, of Kent county.

Second District—George Balderston, of Cecil county.

Third District—Wm. J. H. Gluck, of Baltimore city.

Fourth District—P. L. Perkins, of Baltimore city.

Fifth District—Nomination to be made later.

Sixth District—Nomination to be made later. H. R. Moulton, of Montgomery county, is the probable nominee.

A tariff speech, by ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas,, the adoption of a platform, the election of a new central committee and a big mass meeting at night, at which ex-Governor St. John paid his respects to the present national administration, were the other notable occurrences of the day.

The following Woman Suffrage plank was offered and carried with but one dissenting vote; "That no citizen should be deprived of the right of suffrage on account of sex."

The following was offered in the general "Confession of Faith:"

"We believe that the drink traffic is the greatest cause of the individual crime, social disorder and political corruption which curses our State and county, and that all efforts to secure good government will signally fail unless directed primarily to the absolute prohibition of the drink traffic in State and nation. We favor this absolute prohibition.

"We favor the protection of American laborers by greatly restricting foreign emigration and by wholly excluding the criminal and pauper.

"We believe our present tariff system is wrong in principle because it imposes its burdens upon what we consume instead of upon what we possess, thus making the poor pay as much toward defraying the expenses of government as is required of the rich.

"We demand that the bribe-giver, as well as the bribe-taker, whether the bribe be the giving or promise of office, money or other valuable thing, shall, in addition to the usual punishment provided by law, be forever disqualified to vote or hold office.

"We denounce the original package decision of the United States Supreme Court as being without foundation in justice and a serious menace to the safety of the homes of our land, and we demand that each State shall have the right to suppress anything which injures the health or morals of its people, and we further demand such legislation as will immediately remedy the evil flowing from this decision.

"We deplore and denounce the measure now pending before our national Congress, and sought to be enacted into law, known as the federal elections bill, as extraordinary, dangerous and revolutionary in its character, subversive of all principles of representative government, as an arbitrary and unwarranted attempt to interfere with the local affairs of the several States."

The delegates appointed from Kent were: B. F. H. Caulk, R. S. Griffith, first district; George W. Covington, C. B. Krusen, second district; Norris Barnard, R. T. Turner, Jr., third district; John Bordley, M. A. Toulson, fourth district; Rev. B. F. Benson and W. K. Judefind, of the fifth district. But seven of the delegates, however, were able to attend.

George W. Covington, the Congressional nominee from the first district, is a merchant of Still Pond, where he is favorably known as a man of strong convictions and of unquestioned sincerity of purpose. He was born in Middletown, Del., and commenced his early school days in St. George's, Del., then went to Cambridge, Md., to reside with an uncle, the Rev. Jas. M. Haines, thence to Easton, thence to Baltimore, where he completed his schooling, then moved to Still Pond, this county, to clerk for an uncle, Daniel Haines. In 1857 Mr. Covington purchased the business interests of G. W. Price, who succeeded his uncle, and commenced the merchandise business. In 1859 he married Miss Hellen E. Busick, of Still Pond. In 1867 he built the store house and dwelling where he has since resided. He has never figured as a politician and the only position which he has ever filled of an appointive character was the post-office, under Buchanan's administration. He was a member of the school board of Kent county, in 1869. Before allying himself with the Prohibition he was always a consistent Democrat. Mr. Covington is a gentleman combining a high degree of intelligence, with a conscientious adherence to principle, which must command the respect of his political friends and opponents alike. There is little question that the Congressional representative of the Prohibition party, of the first district, will command the full and enthusiastic support of the district vote

Higher Prices.

If crop reports are to be relied upon says the Westminster Advocate, higher prices are soon to prevail for grain, hay, fruits, flour and canned goods. In New England everything is parched from a long drought. The corn crop is a failure, and also the second crop of hay. In New Jersey the peach and grape crop are failures, and the corn and grass very short. In Delaware there is no fruit, and the same may be said of Maryland. In both these States the hay crops will be short, and the pack of fruits and vegetables are far below previous years. There have been droughts in the North, West and South, and these, with destructive storms, have shortened all crops. The wheat crop everywhere is short, and in many sections the grain is inferior. In Europe, too, the wheat crop is less than the average, and in consequence of the short crop at home and abroad prices are going up. It is the prevailing opinion that wheat will go to a dollar a bushel; that flour, fruit and canned goods will be much higher, and hay also.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs, she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. 10 cent trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Colin F. Stam's Drug store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00

—o—

WANTED: 100 LADIES!

TEACHERS, DRESSMAKERS, MILLINERS OR FARMERS' WIVES,

Or any others desiring to make money. Permanent work, big pay. No previous training or special talent required. Only honest effort and common sense the essentials. Don't delay, or it will be too late. We want a number of men and women that will push business to introduce the

NATIONAL

Garment Cutter

We will give you terms whereby many people are making large sums of money. We want none but sober and industrious people who are willing to do hard work for big pay. It is true that all persons are not fitted for agency work, yet a greater number fail through lack of steady, hard work than through lack of ability. Our work is pleasant and profitable, but we want no persons to work for us who are looking for a soft snap without work. By faithful work any one can make plenty of money in this work, as has been demonstrated, and we are getting calls almost every day now for territory; and the first comes the first served. Our territory is becoming limited in this section. I have just received a letter from an agent in Dorchester county who is delighted with the work, and several more down there have applied for work and territory. I have also just received a letter from Johnoan City, Tenn. They are doing a big work there. The Tennessee Enterprise says "Mr. J. K. Doran, who has been here for more than eight months with his gentlemanly corps of assistants teaching our citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, the use of one of the best systems of garment cutting ever invented—the National Garment Cutter—is moving his forces further South. They taught several large classes during their stay here, among whom were our best and most influential citizens, many of whom are now in the field teaching this grand method. They all speak in the highest terms of the system and the work, and say they would not be without it for many times its cost. Others say they have saved several times its cost already in doing their own work; and so it goes, receiving the highest endorsement from all. Nor could it be otherwise when it fills the greatest need at this time. A correct system, that is simple and can be correctly learned by the people. It is impossible to estimate the value to the public of such a work. In leaving Johnson City not only the large numbers that formed his large classes, but our entire community, now the time we expected to stay here has already expired. And those who want the Cutter or want to get profitable employment should call early and see us at the Voshell House.

"SEC. 3. When any person or persons who shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this Act he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, in a court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not more than fifty dollars for any such offence.'

The Local Health Officer for Kent county will render any such assistance or advice as may be required under the above provisions. The physicians have generally been provided with blanks for such returns as named. If any have not received the same, if they will notify the undersigned he will see that they are supplied. Keepers of boarding-houses, hotels, etc., will find it to their benefit to communicate with the Secretary of the Local Board of Health for information and assistance in such above mentioned cases.
