Election November 4.

Grand Democratic Rally

—AND—

MASS MEETING.

A grand Democratic rally and mass meeting will be held in

STAM'S HALL, CHESTERTOWN,

—ON—

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1890,

AT 2.30 O'CLOCK, P. M.

COL. HENRY PAGE

SENATOR WM. H. PETER, of Howard co.;
HON. ROBT. CRAIN, of Baltimore city;
JAS. S. ROBINSON, Esq., of Anne Arundel county, and other prominent speakers are expected to be present.

Let there be an old-fashioned rally such as Maryland saw when she was rolling up 25,000 Democratic majorities.

NOW THAT additional fires have been lighted in nearly all, if not in each and every house in Chestertown, thereby increasing the danger from fires, it would be but a wise and we might add a necessary precaution to have our fire department given a complete overhauling. The engine should be brought out and given a trial, the hose thoroughly inspected and each and every fire-plug in the town carefully examined. This is a matter which should not be neglected or postponed.

—New York World.

This is the result of the philanthropic legislation of the party which is to-day protecting the people to death. Trusts, says Mr. Blaine, are private interests with which the public has nothing to do, and to supplement this righteous dogma of Republicanism it is declared that the tariff is not a tax, but is the balm which is to prove the financial salvation of the working classes. After it is too late and seventy-five per cent, of the agricultural world has been driven to the wall by this unholy system of protection, possibly the American farmer may be able to decide whether or not an onerous tariff is or is not a tax upon those who pay it.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

General Seth the Political "Dark Horse" in the Recent Contest.

The long-pending and highly interesting contest for the position of commander of the State Oyster Police Force was closed last week and has had the effect of affording the world of speculative politics an increase to the fund of "whys and wherefores" which may be answered at leisure after the smoke of battle has cleared away. Then, too, the Tax Commissionership introduced some rather interesting features into State political circles, which otherwise might and undoubtedly would have slumbered on, until in the gradually progressive scale their day and generation were reached.

The oyster navy appointment, however, was the big surprise. Names had been added to and names had as often been stricken off the list of eligibles for the position, until by common consent the issue had been reduced to a supposed contest between Col. William Henry Legg, of Queen Anne's, and Commander Plowman who was already in command of the oyster police force. In the congressional contest the name of Gen'l Seth had figured as an obscure, but possibly potent factor under certain contingencies, but in the late battle his name was scarcely thought of by the public at large. And, indeed, it is claimed that the appointment came as a "colossal surprise" even to the General himself. Now did it? At any rate it is asserted that he was not an applicant, and that political circles were not apprised of his desire for the place. Governor Jackson is severely criticised in regard to his action in the matter, by the friends of Colonel Legg. It is claimed by them that Treasurer Brown as well as Col. Legg were given substantial reasons to believe that if they withheld their claims until the congressional convention the Governor would come to the rescue and the Queen Anne's applicant would be duly installed. In this, however, subsequent events have proven that either no such promises were ever given or the balance of power changed its base of operations and reconsidered its first utterances.

The friends of Captain Tom Howard are also claiming that the claims of their favorite were ignored after promises had been given that the Governor would use his efforts to put him in the coveted place and promote ex-Captain Griffith, of Anne Arundel county, to the vacancy. On the event of a refusal by Mr. Seth, Col. Legg was asked the other day whether or not he would again become an applicant, when that gentleman is reported as having said: "No, sir! Not under any consideration. I'm done with it, and I want it so understood distinctly."

General Seth will make a most efficient officer, and whatever political significance his appointment and the defeat of Colonel Legg may have, the appointment was a good one, and it is asserted that Treasurer Brown's position politically is not lessened by this defeat of his man in the recent fight. The Baltimore Herald thus puts it:

"Some people express the opinion that after all Treasurer Brown is placed in a stronger position politically by the defeat of Colonel Legg than otherwise. Mr. Brown, when the next Legislature meets, will want to be elected State Treasurer for another term. He is sure of his own county; the appointment of Col. Legg could hardly have made him any surer. What he wants is strength from other counties. By doing what he could for Mr. Walker, of Kent, for Tax Commissioner he has gained favor with that county. His final vote for Dr. Shaw, of Carroll, may give him that county's support. The appointment of General Seth as oyster commodore may operate against the possibility of the general's fellow-countian, ex-Comptroller Turner, being again nominated. A blow at Mr. Turner means a stroke in favor of Robert Brattan, of Somerset, or any other possible candidate for the Comptrollership below the Choptank. Politicians must look ahead. The defeat of Colonel Legg may eventually prove for Treasurer Brown a cloud with a silver lining."

The Baltimore Sun of Monday in its Annapolis correspondence had the following: "It is said not to be improbable that General Seth will yield to the wishes of his friends and accept the position of commander of the oyster navy, to which he has been elected by the Board of Public Works. He will finally make known his intention in the matter in a few days. The acceptance of General Seth of the place, it is said, will be in the line of a compromise, which contemplates a position for each of the applicants for the oyster navy commandership. Col. Wm. Henry Legg will then, it is said, succeed Gen. Seth as a member of the State sanitary board, and Commander Plowman will be looked after. Capt. F. Louis Griffith, of Anne Arundel county, who was an applicant for the command of one of the State steamers, has already been provided for, having been appointed by Governor Jackson on Saturday shipping commissioner under the general oyster law of 1890, to reside in Baltimore, vice Berry T. J. G. Jones, of Dorchester county, failed to qualify."

The contest for the position of Tax Commissioner was short, spirited and decisive. The best political elements of the State were represented by the contestants, and in each instance the aspirants were backed and their claims strengthened by the representative men of the different sections. The battle was unexpectedly sprung and had less of political contingencies in it than were engrafted upon the issue which had been standing so long upon the public board. William S. Walker, of Kent, carried with him the undivided support of his county with a very friendly feeling outside, but the appointive power thought best to cast the vote on the Western Shore, and with Talbot provided for in the appointment of General Seth, Kent, Cecil and Queen Anne's could but acquiesce, and extend congratulations to Dr. Frank T. Shaw, of Carroll. The appointment of Dr. Shaw to the Tax Commissionership meets with general approval, and by common consent no better man could have been appointed. A business man of ability, he is loyal to party principles and has already as a legislator made a most enviable record. It was even hinted before Colonel Woolford's death that the position would be filled by the gentleman from Carroll, when his time had expired.

The Baltimore Herald says that "It is whispered on the Eastern Shore that Governor Jackson, to show he still retains the undiminished confidence of his friends in Wicomico county, may resign the Governorship next summer or earlier and be a candidate for the State Senate once more. This would keep him in training for Congress or the United States Senate at some future date. The Governor enjoys the excitement of political life, and it is said that ex-Commodore Plowman will be given a clerkship in the office of State Comptroller Baughman."

Wm. E. Temple, who succeeded Dr. W. H. Gale, of Somerset, as a clerk in the State Treasurer's office, is an influential politician in the Church Hill district of Queen Anne's county, and a warm and uncompromising friend of State Senator John B. Brown.

STATE AND PENINSULA.

The clerk of the court for Dorchester county had last week issued, in round numbers, 800 tonging licenses and 1,500 scraping licenses.

A fire in Cambridge last week burned out the office of 'Squire Goldsborough and the grocery of W. T. Hubbard. Within eight minutes from the first tap of the bell the firemen were fighting the flames.

Much excitement was caused at the Elkton fair on Friday by the fall of the voting booth. Several persons were in the booth but no one was seriously hurt.

There have been eighty-nine entries in the bicycle races at Frederick this week, and it is expected that two hundred wheelmen will take part in the contests.

Diphtheria is reported epidemic near Preston, Caroline county, and in portions of Dorchester.

The work of digging out the channel at Pea-Liquor shoals, about three miles below Denton, has been completed. The channel is now sixty-five feet wide and nine feet deep at low water.

A new enterprise in Howard county will be the fattening of beeves for market. The capacity will be for more than one hundred beeves at a time which will be fattened and shipped direct to the European market.

A wrestling match at Frederick, on Friday last, resulted in a quarrel, and one of the men was probably fatally wounded by being struck with a spade.

The State militia will parade in Baltimore on Thanksgivng day.

is of a beautiful Cleveland Bay color, stands 16 hands 1½ inches, and will weigh thirteen hundred pounds in condition. He is stylish, fine action and perfectly quiet. In the combined qualities of action, beauty and endurance, he is acknowledged to stand unequaled as a stock horse for farm and carriage purposes. He comes down a long line of the best producers.
The American Farmers' Stock Book, in speaking of the most desirable strains of horses which have been the result of careful and scientific breeding, in coming to the Cleveland Bays, says: "We come next to a class of horses always held in the highest esteem for their many valuable qualities. It is a horse that is now bred to a degree of perfection that leaves little to be desired in all that goes to constitute size, style and ability to perform any labor that may be required, except the heaviest dreadgery. The Cleveland Bays are good carriage horses, good and stout wagon or plow horses, and they match together about as easily as Devon cattle, combining as they do, plenty of staunch thorough blood with excellent size and constitutional vigor. Unfortunately they are rare in the United States, but since their introduction into the West, they have been steadily growing into favor. They are remarkable for their pure bay color, dashed only at the fetlocks and in the forehead with white. We have good authority for our admiration of this splendid animal. Canada has of late years become celebrated for finely-bred and finely-matched carriage horses, which is due to the sagacity of some Canadian breeders, in selecting Cleveland Bay Stallions for sires."
