THE TICKET which we place at the head of our columns to-day, is one of eminent merit, and one which the Democracy of Kent will see elected in November. Though disappointments may have been experienced by some, every true Democrat should fall to work to see that the ticket is carried through by a rousing majority.

OUR CANDIDATES.

WILLIAM T. HEPBRON.

Wm. T. Hepbron, the candidate for the State Senate, was born near Still Pond, about sixty years ago, and served an apprenticeship at blacksmithing, in Chestertown, until he became of age in 1852, after which time he commenced farming. His education was received at the public school near his home. He has always been an active and consistent Democrat, and has served his party in various responsible positions. In 1858 an additional constable was ordered by the Legislature for Kent county, and Mr. Hepbron received the appointment by the county commissioners, and was elected in 1859. He was elected county commissioner in 1867 and again in 1869. In 1872 he was appointed a judge of the Orphan's court by Governor Bowie, to succeed Thomas Lusby, deceased, and in 1875 he was sent to the State Senate and re-elected in 1879.

DR. SAMUEL G. FISHER:

Dr. Samuel G. Fisher, condidate for clerk of the circuit court for Kent county, is a son of Dr. Jacob Fisher, who removed to Kent from Sussex county, Delaware, in 1826, and commenced the practice of medicine in the neighborhood where his son has since lived, until 1856, when he was stricken with paralysis. He was a Democrat, and was register of Kent county in 1851. The subject of the present sketch was born in the fifth election district, September 26, 1831. He graduated at Washington College in 1850, and afterward received his medical diploma from the Maryland University of Medicine. In 1887 he was elected to the Orphans' Court of Kent county, leading his ticket by 20 votes.

JAMES T. DIXON.

James T. Dixton, with his candidacy for Register of Kent county, enters for the first time the political arena, never having held a position within the gift of the people, but refused the nomination for county commissioner two years ago. He is the son of T. P. Dixon, deceased, one of the most thoroughly honored and highly respected citizens of Kent county, who came from Cecil about 1854, and was a successful farmer of his adapted county until his death. James T. Dixon, the son, has reflected honor upon the unblemished name of the father, and for high moral worth and integrity, no man in the county holds a more enviable position.

WILLIAM M. SLAY,

Mr. Slay comes from a well-known family of Kent county, Del. He was born in the upper part of Queen Anne's county, Md., in 1847, where his father, William Slay, was engaged in business several years. He graduated at Yale College in the class of 1868. He came to Chestertown in 1869 to take the public school here. He read law with his brother, John O. Slay, who was at the time a law partner of the late Hon. George Vickers. He has never held a political office, and has ever refused to accept office out of the line of his profession. His Democracy is unquestioned, and he has always taken a lively interest in the general affairs of the county.

EDWARD J. PLUMMER.

Edward J. Plummer, candidate for sheriff from the second district, is one of the most active Democratic workers of the county, and has had his services to the party recognized by being appointed constable in his district. A solid Democrat and a tireless worker, his present preferment is but an appropriate recognition of past services and present fitness for office.

We regret that a lack of both space and time precludes a fuller mention of the gentlemen referred to, and a satisfactory sketch of each member of the ticket.

IN REFERENCE to the clerkship of the Court of Appeals. Col. Luther H. Gadd, of Caroline county, is, however, a formidable candidate for the nomination. He is very popular, and his ability is unquestioned, and many politicians concede that he has a show of success. His nomination would not, however, satisfy the claims of the Eastern Shore. With them it is the comptrollership or nothing. The fight for the position has narrowed down to R. F. Brattan, of Somerset, who was president of the last State Senate, and M. deK. Smith, State's attorney of Kent county. The latter is a half brother of the late Jesse K. Hines, for many years insurance commissioner, and one of the shrewdest politicians the Eastern Shore has ever produced.—Sunday News.

THE TEMPERATURE of Kent county politics was far above the boiling point on Tuesday. A candidate asserted that the political waters had become so hot that the porcelaine lining from an ordinary preserving kettle was melted off.

SATURDAY was the red letter day in the history of second district politics, and the occasion was uncomfortably productive of surprises.

ROCK HALL has never known a more obstinate inter-party contest than that of Saturday. Each man was a Richmond and ready to fall upon the sword.

IT IS claimed that sixty of the Democratic papers, outside of the city of Baltimore, are favorable to the Gubernatorial candidacy of ex-postmaster Frank Brown. With Baltimore city divided and the counties almost a unit for Mr. Brown, it would appear that the ex-mayor will be unable to stem the tide.

IT LOOKS very much as if the next comptroller will come from Kent county, and that his name will be Marion deK. Smith who is now the State's attorney of that county. Kent county has not had any of the good things for a long time. It is the home of such party leaders as Jesse K. Hines and Richard D. Hynson, and when the former died the position of State insurance commissioner which he held went to another county. Kent thinks the time for recognition has come, and Smith looks like the coming man.—Baltimore American.

IT IS COMPLAINED by Western Shore leaders that the selection of Edwin H. Brown, of Queen Anne's county, to the Treasurership has thrown the management of the Board of Public Works, and through it the entire political machinery of the State in the hands of the Eastern Shore. In addition to this is the patronage of the Governorship and the State Senatorship, while on this side of the bay is but one Congressional district. It is proposed to change the present order of things and draw the Treasurer from the political ranks of the Eastern Shore across the bay.

THE Democrats of Wilmington suffered a Waterloo at the polls on Saturday. The Republicans made a clean sweep electing their Mayor, President of City Council, City Solicitor, City Treasurer, Assessor and Collector of the Northern District, and members of Council in the Second, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Twelfth wards. This gives them control of Council by a vote of 8 to 5, and is the first time they have had posession of the local legislative body since '84. There were some close shaves in the Council contests, the Republican candidate winning in the Ninth by four majority and the Democratic candidate in the Eleventh by a bare dozen.

ON THE FRONT PAGE of this issue of the TRANSCRIPT, will be found several articles of particular interest to the Kent county farmer and horticulturist. Each article has been selected on account of its timely reference to live local matters, as we are convinced the question of the introduction of Scarlet clover and a wider and fuller knowledge of the system of fruit spraying may be considered. The subject of fruit spraying we consider one of the most important now forcing itself upon the attention of our horticulturists, and is one which we have tried to keep promitently before the people as such. In the notes from the report on agriculture, this subject prominently enters, as also in the column of "fruit notes." Then, too, the Scarlet clover question is one of interest at this time to all classes of our citizens. Independent of these particular articles the literary tone of the paper will be found of a high order.

SALLIE V. CLINTON, ELIZA CLINTON.
JOSEPH L. CLINTON, SAMUEL V. CLINTON, SARAH JANE GREY, formerly SARAH JANE CLINTON GREY.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of the bill filed in this case is to procure the appointment of a trustee to receive and invest certain sums of money in the bill mentioned, until it shall be legally ascertained who is entitled to receive the same. The bill states:

1. That Joseph H. Clinton died during the month of October, in the year 1884, and by last will and testament devised his property to his three children, Joseph L. Clinton, Samuel V. Clinton and Sarah Jane Clinton, now Sarah Jane Grey; provided the said Joseph L. Clinton should be alive at the time of his death.

2. That J. Frank Wilson, the executor of Jos. H. Clinton, has returned accounts to the Orphans' Court, showing that the sums of $85.31, $127.89 and $1,549.88 respectively are the shares of the said Joseph L. Clinton in the estate of his father, Joseph H. Clinton, but the said sums of money have not been distributed owing to the fact that it has seemed uncertain whether the said Joseph L. Clinton was alive or dead at the time of the death of his father, the said Joseph H. Clinton.

3. That the said J. Frank Wilson has since died and that letters of administration upon his estate have been granted unto Mary R. Wilson, executrix, who hath in hand the said respective sums of money so as aforesaid undistributed, and which have never been paid by her to any one, but which said sums of money have been used by the said J. Frank Wilson, and treated as his own property, and upon each of which said sums of money the said executrix of J. Frank Wilson should account with interest from the date of the statement of the said respective administration accounts.

4. That letters have been written as late as the year 1885, showing that at that time he was alive and then in the city of St. Louis in the State of Missouri, but that since then no intelligence has been obtained as to his whereabouts, and that the said Sarah Jane Clinton hath intermarried with a party by the name of Grey, whose name complainants are not acquainted with, and resides in North Dakota State, and that Samuel V. Clinton resides in the city of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania.

5. That complainants believe that the said Joseph L. Clinton has since departed this life, and that they are his next of kin and heirs at law; are his widow and daughter, and are entitled to receive the said respective sums of money so as aforesaid belonging to the said Joseph L. Clinton, and that they are unable to show that the said Joseph L. Clinton is actually dead, and that until the legal presumption of his death arises, which will be sometime in the month of April, 1892, it is proper that the said sums of money should be invested under the order of this court so that the same may draw interest. That complainants have applied to the said Mary R. Wilson, executrix, and demanded payment of said sums of money, and the said Mary R. Wilson has refused to make payment thereof although by an order passed by the judges of the Orphans' Court for Kent county, Maryland, dated the 21st day of April, 1891, Hope H. Barroll was appointed trustee to receive said sums of money and to execute a release therefor to the said Mary R. Wilson, administratrix of J. Frank Wilson, executor of Joseph H. Clinton, upon his giving a good and sufficient bond in the penalty of four thousand dollars, which bond was duly given by the said trustee, and duly approved of by the said Orphans' Court.

6. That it is necessary to obtain the assistance of this honorable court to compel the said executrix to pay over said sums of money and to appoint a trustee to receive the same and execute a sufficient acquittance therefor unto the said Mary R. Wilson, administratrix.

It is therefore ordered this third day of June, 1891, that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of July next, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 22d day of July next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

vs.
WM. GROOME RINGGOLD and others.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of so much of the real estate of Josias Ringgold, late of Kent county, deceased, and situated in said county, as is necessary for the payment of his debts. The bill states:

1st. That the said Josias Ringgold in his lifetime was indebted to the plaintiff, W. B. Copper, upon his certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars current money, dated March 4, 1890, and payable six months after date with interest from date, upon which note the sum of one hundred dollars had been paid May 10th, 1890, leaving due thereon five hundred and seven dollars and twenty cents, with interest from May 16th, 1890.

2d. That the said Josias Ringgold being so indebted unto the said plaintiff, and also unto divers other persons in large sums of money, departed this life in the month of August, 1890, leaving a valuable personal estate, but inadequate for the payment of his debts, and leaving also three farms in Kent county aforesaid, chargeable with the payment of his debts, and leaving a widow, Mary C. Ringgold, and the following children and heirs at law: Emily W. Ringgold, Wm. Groome Ringgold, Robert Gamble Ringgold and Carrie Edna Ringgold, all of whom now reside in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, and Matilda Cox Ringgold, Hubard Ringgold, Eloise Davis Ringgold and Julia Ethelind Ringgold, all of Kent county aforesaid, all of said children being infants under the age of twenty-one years except the said Emily W. Ringgold, who is of full age.

3d. That said Josias Ringgold left a last will and testament duly executed to pass real estate by which he devised his home farm in trust for the benefit of his two sons, Wm. Groome Ringgold and Robert Gamble Ringgold, subject to certain charges in favor of his two daughters, Emily W. Ringgold and Carrie Edna Ringgold, but clear of any right of dower of his widow, Mary C. Ringgold, and free from liability for any of his debts, unless the residue of his real estate proved inadequate to pay the same.

4th. That said Josias Ringgold devised his two other farms in trust for the benefit of his children, excepting the said Wm. Groome Ringgold and Robert Gamble Ringgold, subject to the dower of his said widow therein, and subject to the payment of his debts.

5th. That the said Mary C. Ringgold renounced the provisions of said will in her favor and elected in lieu thereof to take her dower or legal share of the estate of said Josias Ringgold.

6th. That said Mary C. Ringgold, who was made the executrix of said will renounced as such executrix, and that letters of administration c. t. a. on said personal estate have been granted unto Wm. M. Slay, of Kent county.

It is thereupon this 7th day of May, 1891, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of June, 1891, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 29th day of June next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

EXECUTOR'S SALE —OF A VERY—Desirable Farm.

UNDER and by virtue of a power contained in the last will and testament of Francis Baker, late of Kent county, Maryland, deceased, and the order of the Orphans' Court of said county, the undersigned, as executor,

On TUESDAY, 16th day of June, 1891,

AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK A. M.,

At the Court House Door, in Chestertown, will offer at Public Sale,

THE STEWART FARM,

the same being the residue of his said testator's real estate, containing by recent survey,

149 ACRES,

1 ROOD and 38 PERCHES, more or less.

This Farm lies in Quaker Neck, near the head of the N. E. branch of Lankford's bay, adjoining the lands of James H. Baker and others, and is divided into five fields, two lots and a

Peach Orchard of 400 Trees,
IN BEARING.

Also, a Young Orchard of 1400 Trees, located in a section of the county in which the yellows have never been known.

Against trespass from the public road it is protected by a strong and thrifty hedge, and all the division fences are good. The soil is naturally fertile and highly improved, and its products are equal to the best farm in the neighborhood.

There is but little fruit on it, though its soil and location make it highly desirable for fruit culture, being eligibly located within 4 miles of Chestertown, not more than 2½ miles from the Quaker Neck steamboat wharf, and less than half a mile from the postoffice in the village of Pomona, and convenient to church, etc.

The IMROVEMENTS are

of Two and a-half Stories, with a Kitchen attached and the usual Out-Buildings, all in fair order.

TERMS OF SALE:

The following terms are desired, subject, however, to such modifications as may be found necessary to make a good sale, to wit: One-third of purchase money cash within sixty days, at the seller's option; residue in two equal annual instalments from the day of sale. The whole purchase money will bear interest, and payment to be secured by bond of purchaser with approved sureties. All interest to be paid with each instalment of principal.

Executor of Francis Baker, deceased.

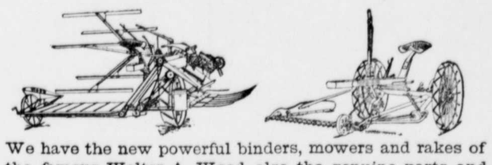
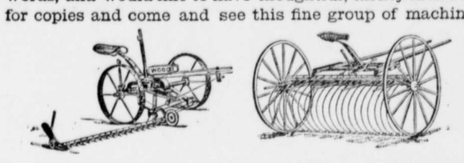
SMITH & CLEMENTS.



We have the new powerful binders, mowers and rakes of the famous Walter A. Wood, also the genuine parts and "Wood" brand of twine, all choice. Walter A. Wood is not only an inventor, but a rare mechanic with the inborn faculty of putting bright ideas into common-sense shape. The intensely American style of his machines makes others look clumsy and foreign. He is one of those earnest men who do not say much; but his machines do, in the field. We have pamphlets explaining them in plain words, and would like to have thoughtful, thrifty men send for copies and come and see this fine group of machines.



We have added to our business the Manufacturing and Repairing of HARNESS, and have engaged one of the best workmen in the State. Harness made to order; also, Ready-Made Harness, and a large selection of Fly Nets always in stock.

NOTIC!—We have obtained from the Amos Whiteley Co. the agency of the Genuine Wm. N. Whiteley REPAIRS for the CHAMPION BINDERS and MOWERS, the machines that have been in use in this section for the last 10 or 12 years. We advise owners of these machines to overlook them and see what Repairs they need, and bring us their orders at once, so that the machines can be put in order before the rush of harvest comes on.

MACHINERY OIL ALWAYS IN STOCK.
