LOCAL Mass Meetings!

GRAND MASS MEETINGS of the Democratic and conservative voters of Kent county will be held in the several election districts, and speakers will be present and address them as follows:

THURSDAY, Oct. 29, at 7 P.M.,
AT MILLINGTON.
MESSRS. SLAY, PEARCE and SMITH.

FRIDAY, October 30, at 7 P.M.,
AT LONG COVE, Piney Neck,
Messrs. VICKERS, SMITH, WM. H. LEGG.

SATURDAY, Oct. 31, at 7 P.M.,
AT GREY'S INN,
Messrs. J. S. ROBINSON, WM. H. LEGG, J. A. PEARCE, H. W. VICKERS.

BEFORE ANOTHER ISSUE of the TRANSCRIPT, the great political battle of 1891 will have been fought. What the result will be, rests with the Democratic voters of the individual counties and the State at large. That the State is largely Democratic is an accepted fact, and the only requirement to insure success is a full vote in the party ranks. This may also be said of Kent county. Nothing but inexcusible and almost criminal apathy or neglect on the part of Democratic voters can place Republican success in the county within the range of possibility. Let every voter in the county lay aside his daily pursuits for a sufficient length of time to exercise that, the most sacred and God-given right of the American freeman—the right of the elective franchise. In behalf of the individual interests of the American people, in behalf of good government, local and national, and in the interests of pure politics, let us see to it that the rights of the people are vindicated. This is a matter which touches directly the interests of every man, irrespective of social position, occupation or geographical location. The life of an iniquitous tariff, the revival of an autocratic Force bill and the fostering of another billion-dollar Congress hangs in the balance as opposed to a legitimate tariff for revenue only, a free and untrammeled ballot and an economical government economically administered.

It rests with the voter to decide which he will accept. Can he? dare he force upon the shoulders already bending under the load of galling burdens a still greater burden, or a continuation of existing measures? Let every voter pause to consider what is worthy of his attention. Shun costly experiments. Vote for it. That national issue in the present campaign controversy, and the voter who neglect, the election of legislature, rendering the Republican U. S. Senators aid in fashioning and legislation will find when too late the mistake, that he has in his own conscience burthened and suffering with pride placed at the ...our columns the name of ...ree, Esq., for the United ...orship. See to it that a solid ...will be sent to Annapolis to ...or him, as also for Mr. Gorman.

IN ANOTHER COLUMN will be found accounts of the operations of swindlers in ...il county, which we publish, having in ...w a double purpose—both as a matter ...news, and to caution the readers of the ...ANSCRIPT against similar misfortunes ...the hands of sharpers. Then, too, the ...all-less Oats note case, which has ...akened such general interest, should ...phasize the warnings which we have ...in time to time given. Too much care can not be exercised in dealing with strangers who may appear in our midst.

...s of their rights, and assur... that if elected the rights of the ...ole people should be cared for and prosper under their stewardship.

The meeting was one of the most successful ever held at the Cliffs.

A MEETING AT CRUMPTON.

The grand Democratic mass meeting held at Crumpton on October 17, was large and enthusiastic. The speakers were listened to by voters both from Kent and Queen Anne's. Harmony was urged by the speakers, and the very possibility of Republican success in any county of the State was deplored, and Republican success at any point it was declared would be a national as well as a local calamity. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. P. B. Hopper, Olen Bryan, W. Scott Roberts and Col. William Henry Legg.

HOW IS THIS for a ballot to be used at the election in Queen Anne's on Tuesday next? The ballots are 17x22 inches in size, and will require 760 pounds of white paper on which to print them. There are three tickets — Democratic, Republican and Prohibition—printed in large type upon each ballot, with blank space as large as the printed tickets following immediately after the printed names. This space is for the voter to write the name or names of any candidate or candidates he desires to vote for which do not appear upon the ballot. The tickets are designed by emblems. The picture of Jackson and the liberty tree is the emblem of the Democratic, the portrait of ex-President Lincoln is the emblem of the Republican and the portrait of Washington, the father of his country, is the emblem of the Prohibition ticket. The question of whether or not all of the ballots can be cast within the allotted time, is now a perplexing question, and it is generally thought that they can not.

THE Court of Appeals on Friday overruled the motion of the State for a new trial in the suit against the bondsmen of ex-State Treasurer Stevenson Archer. The State gained a compromise verdict on the one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars claimed of sixty thousand dollars. The appeal was taken on the ground that such a verdict was "utterly irrational and indefensibie."

STATE AND PENINSULA.

Six prisoners escaped from the house of Reformation, on Saturday about 6 o'clock P.M. The prisoners were being inspected and gave the officers the slip and made for the woods.

A grand Democratic mass meeting and barbecue were held at Manchester, Carroll county, on Saturday.

W. S. Ridgely and George T. Melvin, publishers of the maryland Republican, of Annapolis, have been arrested for criminal libel at the instance of Robert Moss, Democratic candidate for State Senator.

John. R. Downes, a late tax collector of Kent Island district, Queen Anne's county, has been arrested for embezzlement, and has had four charges in forgery brought against him of forging the names of Dr. William Denney, James Denney, James E. Cockey.

Hagerstown has extensive bicycle works in course of construction.

During the Hagerstown fair, couples were married there from Point of Rocks, Braddock, Adamstown and Jefferson.

It is claimed that Hon. Frank Brown has the finest corn crop in the State.

The contract for printing 32,000 official ballots to be used at the November election in Cecil county has been awarded to the Cecil Democrat Publishing Company of Elkton.

COURT NOTICE.

Owing to the fact that next Tuesday, November 3, will be election day, the Orphans' Court will meet on the following day, Wednesday, November 4. it.

Turning on the Electric Light.

To Our Fellow Christians of Maryland:

PERMIT us to speak a word to you in the interest of God, Home and Humanity. On November 3d, next, you will have another opportunity of exercising the right of suffrage, the highest privilege of an American citizen. We feel sure you will agree with us that for years past many, if not the large majority of our fellow citizens, have been voting with their respective parties more from habit, surroundings and prejudice, than from a due consideration of all the questions involved, and the responsibility connected with this high privilege.

Feeling sure that this is contrary to the spirit of the Gospel which requires all believers in Christ to do everything with an eye single to His glory, we beg of you to consider seriously and prayerfully how you shall discharge this responsibility this year, and then vote as your conscience shall dictate, for that party which best represents the good of humanity and the glory of God.

Three regularly organized parties submit their claims for your consideration and offer their candidates for your votes. We bring no words of railing against the two old parties. They both have much in the past to glory in. Our duty, however, is in the present, and with our faces towards the future. How do these parties stand on the living issues of to-day?

On great economic questions, while they both talk loudly, they are greatly divided among themselves, but on the moral questions, with which as Christians we have most to do, and on that greatest of all questions now before us, "which will not down at any man's bidding, that which Mr. Gladstone describes as hopelessly ruining more that is dear to humanity than the three scourges of War, Famine and Pestilence combined, the liquor traffic, that legalized system which has fastened itself upon our body politic, how do they stand? Absolutely silent as far as determined effort to suppress it is concerned. Their desire seeming to be to silence the consciences of their Christian adherents by a few glittering generalities in their platforms and at the same time to give assurance to the liquor dealer, upon whom they are so dependent for money and votes, that they will do nothing after the election to interfere with his business.

In direct opposition to all this stands the third or "Prohibition Party," composed of God-fearing men, men who believe that the liquor traffic is the cause, to a very large extent, of the crime, suffering, misery and poverty which afflicts humanity, and which is destroying not only the bodies, but the souls of countless thousands every year. Believing further that such an evil cannot be legalized without sin, as was so truthfully stated in the report adopted by the last General Conference of the M. E. Church, these men have banded themselves together for the avowed purpose of securing such legislation as shall put the ban of the law upon the traffic rather than give it its sanction, protection and support as at present.

As all the other questions now agitating the public mind sink into insignificance compared with this one, and as the Prohibition party is the one which honestly and fearlessly proposes to battle with it, we feel that love to God and humanity compel us to give it our hearty support, prayers and votes. What we believe is right for us to do on a moral question in the fear of God, we believe is right for every Christian in our State to do, and therefore we earnestly beg of you to stand with us in this matter and vote the ticket which most nearly represents the principles of the Gospel we profess. In doing this we enter our protest in the only practical way to make it felt against the unholy Alliance which now exists between our State and Government (of which we are each one an integral part) and the liquor traffic.
